HUMANOID = AN ADJECTIVE MEANING:

HAVING HUMAN FORM OR CHARACTERISTICS.

CLOSE ENCOUNTER OF THE THIRD KIND OR CE3:

SEEING OR COMING IN CONTACT WITH AN ENTITY OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN, BEING RELATED TO UFOS OR NOT.

TYPES OF CE3 CLASSIFICATIONS:

TYPE A: WHEN AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS SEEING INSIDE OR ON TOP OF AN OBJECT OR UNIDENTIFIED AIRCRAFT.

TYPE B: WHEN AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS SEEN ENTERING OR EXITING A UFO.

TYPE C: WHEN AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS SEEN IN THE IMMEDIATE VECINITY OF A UFO.

TYPE D: WHEN AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS SEEN IN THE SAME AREA WHERE UFOS OR UNKNOWN OBJECTS HAVE BEEN REPORTED.

TYPE E: WHEN AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS SEEN ALONE WITHOUT RELATED UFO ACTIVITY, EXAMPLE: BEDROOM VISITATION.

TYPE G: WHEN THERE IS DIRECT CONTACT OR INTERACTION BETWEEN A WITNESS OR WITNESSES WITH THE HUMANOID OR ENTITY, EITHER AGAINST AS A RESULT OF A FORCED ABDUCTION OR A VOLUNTARY CONTACT.

TYPE F: WHEN THERE IS A "PSYCHIC" CONTACT BETWEEN ENTITIES OR HUMANOIDS, BUT AN ENTITY OR HUMANOID IS NOT NECESSARILY SEEN.

TYPE H: WHEN THERE IS A REPORT OF AN ALLEDGED CRASH OR FORCE LANDING OF A UFO WITH RECOVERY OF ITS OCCUPANTS. OR WHEN AN ANAMOLOUS ENTITY IS CAPTURED OR KILLED BY EITHER A WITNESS OR MILITARY PERSONNEL.

TYPE X: An event with many components of high-strangeness ingredients, so bizarre in nature that it needs a category of its own and it does not necessary includes the appearance of an entity or humanoid.

CURRENT CASE LOG:

A 39-year old housewife living in an unspecified location in Michigan reported that around 5:10 a.m. on the morning of June 27 2010 she had woken up like she usually did in order to assist a family member who isn't able to walk or care for herself. She would typically wake up each morning by yelling "to go" since that family member is unable to speak also (she had been doing this for five years). This morning she woke up and was extremely sleepy but immediately went into her mom's room where she assisted in taking off her top and putting on a new one for the day. She took her two pieces of bedding and threw them downstairs.

A matter of 5 to 7 minutes went by and she called for the dogs to put them outside. She opened her backdoor that leads to their porch that has glass double doors. Before she touched the door handle, she noticed what she thought to be 4 kids (teens is what she thought) outside. They were only black objects that appeared to take the shape of a human, although had a bigger upper head on all of them. She could only see the black color as she looked at them from approximately 25 yards away. She realized that they were not human because of their unusual movements. When they walked they appeared to move/dart quickly and when standing they seemed to wobble from side to side. One darted from her neighbor's yard to the middle of the street where they all were communicating with one another in a circle. She thought they were 'communicating' because they all appeared to be facing each other and that was her perception. Figure 2. Shadow beings

She didn't feel like she was going to be harmed, although she got the sense that they were unaware of her watching. Stunned, she kept saying over and over again, "This is not happening". Her two dogs are small dogs and they never barked or seemed aware of anything outside. She watched for approximately 4-6 minutes until one of them suddenly turned and faced her, like if it knew that she was watching. She stared at them and could only see the black outlines and no details, except that their heads were much larger than normal. Terrified she ran into the house and into her teenage daughter's room and after about 10 seconds she got up and looked out into the middle of the street. However the strange figures were already gone. The witness is convinced that she was not dreaming and was very reluctant to inform the rest of the family members of the incident. (1)

On July 12 2010 around 2000, a witness in Montebello, California, had been watching a movie on television when he suddenly felt very tired and "felt compelled" to go to bed. He normally doesn't retire until about midnight. He said that after falling asleep he had awakened in a room "without visible" furniture. He was on a table and saw "non-human" entities surrounding him. He said that the entities told him that everything would be alright. He said that they made an incision on one of his hands. He doesn't remember anything else until awakening at 7 am the next morning at which time he drove his brother to school. When he arrived back home he thought that his experience may have been a dream. However, he noticed a very visible scar on the hand where the incision had been made. This scar had not been there before the experience. He plans to take a photo of the scar (when?). Unfortunately the witness does not describe the "non-human" entities. (2)

A witness in an unspecified location in New Brunswick, Canada around 1:30 am on July 20 2010 remembers having a 'normal' dream when all of the sudden in the dream there was a really loud repetitive pounding drumming. It took the witness a while to notice it, but when he did he thought 'this isn't right, this doesn't make sense in my dream'. So at this point the witness wakes up (so he thinks). The drumming is coming from only one side of the room, the side with the door, so he turns his head to look. He didn't see anything so he turns his head back toward the window on the opposite wall. He is definitely awake at this point, and he no longer hears the drumming.

When he looks at the window he sees a flash of blue light. The blinds are closed, but the light is bright enough that he can see through them, and he can see something floating in the sky outside the window. The object looked like a thick dark line with a haze around it. It goes dark again, but now there's a shadowy figure/shape drifting into the room from the window. It gets closer and closer to the witness who is beginning to panic, but he is unable to move because it feels like something is pushing on his back. He felt pinned to his bed. The strange shape gets close enough that he can touch it, and finally he is able to pick up a pillow and swat at it. * It then just dissipates into nothing. The witness goes on to say that he has never experience anything like that before. (3)

P. H. a security guard in Salt Lake City, Utah, reported directly to me that on the early morning of August 8 2010 he was patrolling an area in downtown Salt Lake in an area where there is a 'Target' under construction, when around 1:20 am he saw a strange figure walking on all fours with long arms and pale skin, stunned he went looking for his flashlight when he looked back it had vanished.

He had been moving his patrol vehicle to the other side of the site and saw the strange creature when he was getting ready to park. He further describe the strange figure as having pale gray skin with 'bumps' and it walked on its hands which had to be as long as his legs. Its head was of an 'abnormal' shape and it didn't turn to look at the witness, so he didn't see the face. It didn't appear to have any hair on its body and it had no clothing. He reportedly found strange 'hand prints' where he had seen it but didn't have a 'cam' with him at the time, he didn't hear any noises but later heard noises on the roof as if someone was walking around on the roof. Additional the witness estimated that the creature must have been at least 7-8 feet in height, he could make out its 'spine' and rib through its skin but the arms appeared to be muscular. (4)

THERE WERE GIANTS ON THE EARTH, AND THERE ARE STILL AROUND.

Ancient myths and legends, even the Bible and other ancient books and scripts speak of these legendary beings, called Titans, Nefilim, Fallen Angels, etc. Giants indeed walked among us, both in myth and in real recorded history. But are these creatures a product of alien-human cross-breeding? Are they the ancient Anunaki of old? Have they come back? Do they still walk among us? I will like to present a few samples of incidents that seemed to indicate that unknown giants still are among us.

In June 1932 near the hamlet of Nifonyata, Vereshchaginskiy area, Perm region, Russia, one day the main witness a young boy named , P. D. Fedoseyev and 5-6 other boys and girls, including a girl named Maria Kirillovna were playing in the meadows in an area 400 meters northeast of the village. Large fir trees grew in a nearby ravine. As the children approached the trees a strange woman came out of the forest. The woman was 3 times taller than an average human, or approximately 6 meters in height (!). She was dressed in a dark brown dress, made out of what appeared to be silk, which reflected the sun rays. Her décolleté dress reached to her knees and the sleeves up to her elbows. The dress was tight-fitting at the waist, but without a belt or collar.

The woman's face resembled that of a Greek or Roman. She was athletically built, very beautiful and not frightening despite her height. She was barefoot and the color of her face, hands and legs was a pleasant tan brown. Her hair was dark brown, very thick, and came down to her shoulders, with some locks down to her waist. She walked beyond the fir trees, stopped and straightened her hair with her fingers, smiling at the children. The astounded children stood in a semi-circle staring at the giant woman, about 4-meters from her.

Suddenly Fedoseyev pointed at the strange woman and said, "Look guys the wife of a wood-goblin!" The woman then cast a piercing glance at the boy and something like sparkles flashed in her eyes, she then turned around and vanished behind the trees. Fedoseyev ran to look where she had gone to, but did not see her anywhere. At this point all the children became frightened and ran home. Another local man reported seeing a similar entity, this time accompanied by a male entity. (5)

In 1949 at an unknown date and time, in the small village (then) of Ciales, Puerto Rico, a lone witness was returning home from his girlfriend's house along an isolated path near a sugarcane field when suddenly he saw a gigantic man-like figure, the figure walked over a chain link fence about 4 feet in height and disappeared from view. The witness reportedly was in shock during the whole observation. (6)

Consider the following case of true Biblical giants roaming among us:

Around the year 1955 (date is approximate) one late night, in St. Eugene Delmonte, a small suburb of Oran Algeria, a local fruit and nut vendor, a very jovial man, who usually would push his produce cart into the late hours of then night, was strangely absent from the town for several days and concerned neighbors went to see him and found him weakened and almost paralyzed with fear, lying in bed.

He was very happy to see visitors and reported the following bizarre encounter: One night, close to midnight he was pushing his tram returning to his house after his selling his wares, he was on a wide avenue without a single vehicle in sight and had just passed the Henri Huc Bridge and was near an area of wasteland on a vacant lot when at about 150 to 200 meters from his location he saw several abnormally proportionate silhouettes of a frighteningly large size, milling about the side of the road. However at this point he did not stop and continues on pushing his tram in the direction of the strange figures. Suddenly he is terrified to see four 'giants' standing near the edge of the road next to the wasteland and another one coming from the shadowy opposite side of the road. With a terrible fear swelling within him he passed them and noticed that they wore something like a whitish combination uniform, he thought that the beings must have been at least 4 meters in height, judging by some nearby trees. Despite his fear the giants showed no interest in him or any hostility. Stunned, he returned to his house unable to tell his wife what he had seen. After the incident it was noted that he was no longer the usual jovial man everyone had come to know, everyone agreed that he seemed to be tormented by some lingering inner fear. (7)

In August 1958 around 0900am in Minduri, Minas Gerais state, Brazil, three men walking up a hill on the other side of a valley saw two gigantic human-like figures. Both figures were wearing tight-fitting shiny red clothing that covered them from head to toe, they seemed to be well proportioned and were moving at a normal pace and ignored the presence of the stunned witnesses.

When the two giants walked next to some tall trees, the men were able to estimate that one of the figures was about 5 or 6 meters in height (!) while the other only 3 meters in height. Two hours before a local businessman and his family had observed a very bright round object flying in the direction where the giant figures were seen by the 3 witnesses later. (8)

From the land of the giant Gods of Olympus comes this interesting report:

One night in January of 1964 in Achladokambos, Arcadia, Greece, the witness, Mr. George Psychoyos (32) was returning home in his car when at the Loggaki site, a giant humanoid over 5 meters in height appeared in front of the car, crossed the road in one big step and then vanished. The witness was extremely terrified, did not stop, and did not come fully around until several days after the incident. (9)

Communication with giant humanoid:

On September 1964 around 0230 a.m. in the coastal city of Tarifa, Cadiz, Spain a man was walking back to his home alone on a path along the coast and as he neared his house on a cobbled road, he became aware of a strange silence in the area and his dogs who would normally greeted him were nowhere in sight.

As he turned a corner he caught sight of an enormous humanoid figure standing by the roadway next to a rock wall. The being was about 3 ½ meters tall. The witness was stunned by strangely did not feel any fear. The giant humanoid wore a tight-fitting scaly gray colored diving suit. It was proportionally built except for slightly narrow shoulders. The being stood there looking out to sea. The witness was not able to see any clear of the face or head area. It then spoke in perfect Spanish, asking the witness if there were any ‘fish factories’ in the area and if he was from around these parts. Both the witness and the humanoid then stood and looked at each other for a few moments and then the witness continued on to his house and did the being’s departure. He almost fainted as he arrived home. (10)

Next stop is the small village of Puente San Miguel, Cantabria, Spain on December 1 1977 at around 04:50 a.m. Emilio Ruiz was suddenly awakened by the barking of the neighborhood dogs and a clear luminosity that shone through the window. The witness then saw a gigantic being looking at him through the window, the being stood in a crouched down position. The figure was man-like and appeared to have a huge oval-shaped head, huge black oval-shaped eyes and a silvery white mustache.

It then stepped backwards several feet, looked around and vanished. The giant figure was wearing a khaki colored uniform with a white ring or collar round the neck area and a white stripe on one side; it was easily over 3 meters tall. Around the same time another independent witness, Balbina

Noriega spotted a bright white disc-shaped object rising up from the center of a nearby empty sports field. Strange tracks were found at the site the next day. (11)

For the next report we again visited the Hellenic nation of Greece land of ancient legends and Giants and Demi-Gods:

On the night of August 6 1978 on a country road between Agia Mavra and Lefkohori villages in Helis County, Peloponnese, Greece, Antonis Coulouris was driving his truck when suddenly he saw “giant humanoids” caught by the headlights of his truck. Terrified he put the truck in reverse gear to get away and drove backwards for about 60m until the engine stopped functioning. The lights went out and he felt like something was “shaking” his truck. For 15 seconds he attempted to turn on the engine but to no avail. After that the shaking stopped and the engine functioned normally. He then drove away from the area. (Unfortunately there are no additional details on the appearance of the giant humanoids). (12)

The case of the curious giants:

On February 6 1980, around 11:00 a.m. in the village of Montargil, Ponte do Sor, Portugal a 55-year old farmer identified only as Mr. Pavao, had left his farm taking his sheep to the fields. While there he heard a noise, and at the same time his dog panicked and he felt something happening behind him. He turned and was surprised to see two 8 feet tall humanoids standing close to him and staring at him.

The humanoids were described as very strong looking, and dressed in gray suits. Their faces resembled humans except that the eyes and skin were ‘different’. Their hands were hairy and very big. The beings approached Pavao and with using friendly gestures touched his left shoulder and several other parts of his body. At the same time they spoke in a strange language with a modulation similar to a human’s voice. One of the beings then pointed to the sheep and Pavao told him the type of animal it was, meanwhile the two beings kept talking and laughing among themselves. Pavao then gave an order to his dog to fetch one of the sheep. When he looked back at the beings he saw an intense flash of light, which blinded him for a few seconds. After that the beings had vanished. (13)

Modern day giant Cyclopean encounters:

During the month of February of 1989 in the city of Baku, Azerbaijan, Shamil Aliev, a local auto mechanic for the “Bakmetropolitan” (underground subway), while walking near the “Depot” terminal metro station, near the outskirts of the city accidentally stumbled upon a huge humanoid entity about 6-7 meters in height. The entity was a Cyclopean in nature, and from its only eye emanated a red glow. The frightened witness quickly fled the area.

During the same month residents of the village of Kyurdakhany, Apsheron peninsula, Azerbaijan, located just east of the city of Baku, observed a huge running humanoid entity, its height was at least 4 times taller than that of an average man, or about 6-7 meters. The entity was reportedly a Cyclopean, with only one eye below its forehead. It quickly disappeared from sight. (14)

The giants return to Greece:

On June 29 1989 around 1430 in the small village of Chrysopetra, Macedonia region, Greece, several villagers had previously seen strange flashes of light in the sky. Later that early afternoon an elderly woman was doing some household chores when she heard a loud bang from outside. She ran out and found her granddaughter in a state of shock. After she recovered, the girl told her grandmother that she had seen a large white cloud form in the garden and then the figure of a giant, almost 8 meters tall appeared. He seemed to be totally encased in mist and was slightly deformed. He suddenly disappeared in plain sight emitting a loud bang (heard by the grandmother). Large footprints were found at the site of the encounter. (15)

Staying in Greece, on September 1 1989, at an unknown time, in the Island of Cos, Dodecanese region, Greece, several area residents watched a large luminous barrel-shaped craft hovering very close to the ground. Later on the slopes of a nearby mountain called Xenos other residents saw several giant humanoid figures with light on their heads walking down the slopes. (16)

Next we visit the recently troubled region of the ex-Russian republic of Georgia. On February 3 1991 around 10:20 a.m. near the capital of Tbilisi, a local female journalist, Irina Adamashvili saw on the slopes of one of the mountains that surround Tbilisi a gigantic anthropoid figure which appeared suddenly out of nowhere. It was a massive dazzling white humanoid silhouette that appeared on the gray-brown slope.

She watched riveted to the scene as the figure which resembled that of a man wearing shiny coveralls glided rapidly above the ground in a straight line along the slope and reached a bitumen road. There it then moved in a strange gait, taking large steps and somewhat bent at the knees. The stunned witness thought that the height of the entity was at least 3-4 meters. The figure was then lost from sight behind a mountain slope. (17)

We next go to the town of Paso Lovera, Corrientes province, Argentina, on January 12 2002 at around 2030, Gabriela Lencinas, 15, and a 19-year old friend Griselda Oliveras were returning home on a bicycle when they spotted what they described as a “giant figure” standing perhaps a few dozen feet tall. The strange giant entity was allegedly wearing what appeared to be a “ski outfit”, the details of which could not be precisely made out. They were unable to make out its face, but noted that “its hair seemed to be standing on end,” as though from static electricity, and it stood with its arms outstretched toward them, as though beckoning them.

Lencinas and her friend did not think this was a friendly gesture. “It was as if the figure was trying to scare us.” At no point did they see the strange figure’s eyes or teeth, according to the report. The women, paralyzed with fright, noticed that a car drove past them along the same stretch of road, only to screech to a halt as it came to the towering figure. According to the witnesses, the driver “got out of the car, took a good look at the figure got back in his vehicle, and kept driving” until it passed right under the giant’s towering legs. The women continued pedaling toward the figure and reported that the image “began to rise” up into the air some 15 feet. After that both returned to their homes to inform their parents of the event. When asked if they thought that the giant could have been objectively real, or a “vapor image.”

19-year old Griselda Oliveras told the investigators what had occurred, ‘we were riding along, and suddenly we saw a black thing, that later looked like an ape...something really gigantic with spiky

hair. My companion (Gabriela) asked me if I had seen what she'd seen, and I said yes." "It later disappeared," continued Olivera, and we saw nothing more than black smoke." She also admitted to feeling afraid of the strange thing. When asked to estimate the image's height, Olivera pointed out that it was larger than a 15 foot tall tree that stood nearby---more like a 30 foot tall eucalyptus tree. Further research disclosed that the two cyclists had not been the only ones to see the apparition. "According to other sources," writes Omastott in his report, "the caretaker of a nearby ranch had already seen the same apparition on more than one occasion from nearby fields." A female odontologist who preferred anonymity also told researchers that a year and a half prior to this event, while driving at night toward the city of Corrientes from San Luis del Palmar, she became aware of a person waving at her from the side of the road, urging her to stop. At closer range, she realized that this figure's height ranged between eight to ten feet. This caused the driver to speed away. (18)

I want to finish the case summaries with two incidents said to have occurred in 2007.

Sometime in the summer of 2007 near the town of Cala, province of Huelva Spain, at 2:30 a.m. a couple traveling on the National highway on the outskirts of Cala noticed on the rearview mirror what appeared to be the lights of an approaching vehicle, but soon realized that it was something different, since the lights were round and much more brighter and appeared to be traveling about 1.50-1.60m above the ground.

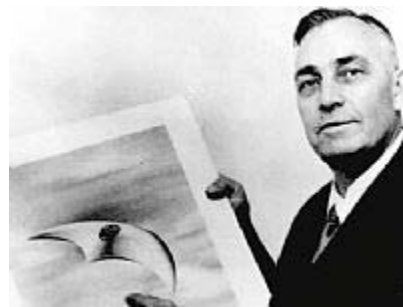

The lights approached quickly and stopped at about a meter from the vehicle. They were so bright that the witnesses could not look at the rearview mirror directly. Upon reaching a curve the driver attempted to accelerate but the lights turned with him and stopped, and did not continue to follow. The witness then slowed down and looked back but did not see the lights anymore. The witnesses then continued on and moments later spotted a very tall figure about 2.20m to 2.30m in height, very thin and all dressed in red, including red boots and a red visor which covered the stranger's face down to its mouth. The strange figure seemed to be climbing the ditch on the side of the road in a very peculiar manner since it didn't appear to be moving its arms and seemed to be sliding upwards on the ground. It moved past the witnesses completely ignoring them. The witnesses continued to drive and when they looked behind them they no longer were able to see the tall figure. (19)

On July 2007 the giants made a return visit to Ciales, Puerto Rico (first visit being in 1949). Around 2300, a witness, Raul, was on his way to his girlfriend's house when he saw at the edge of a local sugarcane field a gigantic human-like figure walking over the barb-wire fence. The giant man-like figure was wearing a white hat, had a short beard, a long sleeve shirt and black pants. Terrified the witness stood frozen staring at the figure unable to move. The figure disappeared into an adjacent field. A similar gigantic man-like figure was also seen in the same area on June 2007 around 04:00 a.m. (20)

Interestingly these cases are mostly ignored by researchers who mostly concentrate their efforts on abductions by the short gray humanoid variety. Even legendary UFO researcher Jacques Vallee ignored and discarded these cases by his own admission. I believe that all cases and reports must be considered and looked at, no matter how strange the case might be.

THE PRE-ARNOLD CORNER

Staying within the giant creature encounter premise, in the year 1900 at some unknown date and time near the village of Voltaggio, Piedmont region, Italy, in a wooded area a gamekeeper felt that he was being followed, he turned around and saw a huge “monstrous” being with ‘hen-like’ legs that apparently struck him on the face. Unfortunately there is no additional description or information on the strange being. (21)

Twelve years later on August 11 1912 in Escalante, Spain, Claudio Rey Castillo was coming home late one night when suddenly everything around him was illuminated like daytime. The light seemed to emanate from something that had descended from the sky at very high speed. Confused, the witness stepped back, turned around and was confronted by a huge man-like figure, which resembled a giant man that emitted intermittent flashes of white light. He could not see any features on the humanoid, which seemed to float just above the ground. The humanoid was all white in color and moved slowly back and stopped right under the entrance to the local church. At this point the witness noticed that the figure must have been at least 3.30m in height. Armed with a knife (and some foolish courage) Castillo moved towards the figure, which suddenly seemed to “tremble” and raised its arms up, displaying the palms of its hands. It then drifted back and disappeared into the darkness as the horrified witness watched. (22)

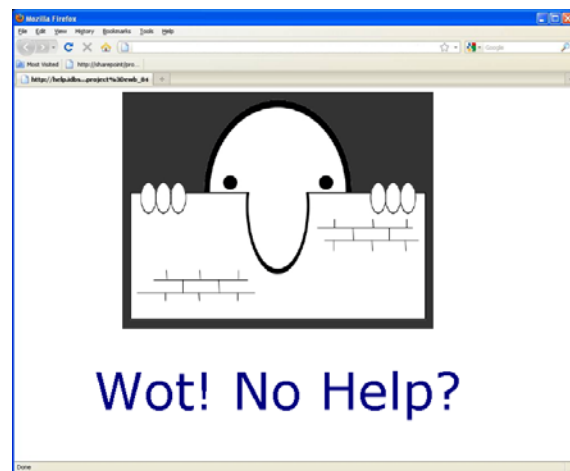

The next case is in a mountainous location in Scotland named Ben MacDhui known for numerous other strange encounters and occurrences. On day in October 1943, mountaineer Alexander Tewnion was walking along the Lairig Ghru on the look out for some game and had begun to descend the track through Corrie Etchachan's deep trough, when suddenly he became aware of the sound of long, striding footsteps just behind him. He peered through the mist in the direction of the footsteps and was startled to see a mysterious shape that loomed up

Before eating a berry, he performed an “odd trick” with it; he placed the berry in his ear, where it disappeared and reappeared at one of his triangular eyes; “repeating the process, the berry traveled to his mouth.” The children talked to this being for at least half an hour, then rushed across the golf links to tell the first man they met that they had seen a ghost. (24)

Bizarre tale indeed, possibly unique in UFO lore, I can only think of a slightly similar entity reported in Venado Tuerto Argentina in September of 1978, again by a young boy. This case preceded the fall humanoid wave of 1973 and it falls smack in the middle of what has been called the “High Strangeness era or decade”.
