THE ATTENTION PARADOX - Bob Hunter

Explores the nature of different degrees of attention, and its relationship to awareness, consciousness and self-development.

How can this phenomenon be defined? Is it an energy, a function, a power, a relationship?

The author draws on the thoughts and experiences of many thinkers and writers, including G.I.Gurdjieff, founder of the system known as The Work, and students of his teachings who have continued to develop and interpret his ideas.

THE LAMP - Ilan Amit

The voyage of a spiritual seeker: Ilan Amit tells about his youth in the 1950s and life in Israel, attempting to realize ideals. Meeting Dr Erich Neumann and Moshe Feldenkreis who gave him Ouspensky's In Search of the Miraculous. Then into Gurdjieff Groups, meeting Dr. Conge and Mme de Salzmann and others.

Ilan Amit writes:

“It has often been said that inner growth can come about only in the wake of voluntary suffering. I became blind in middle age. In my experience it is not the suffering in itself that fosters transformation, but the collapse of our carefully constructed shields that comes with it, opening us up for the infinite. My suffering would remain. What of it? Something in me is present to the immensity we are in, with all its absurdity and wonder....”

P.D.OUSPENSKY: PIONEER OF THE FOURTH WAY By Bob Hunter

Quality paperback, 302 pages euro 30.00

In 1915, P.D.Ouspensky, one of the most prominent thinkers of the 20th century, met G.I.Gurdjieff, who revealed to him the system of ideas he had been searching for in his travels. After establishing himself in England and later in the USA, he devoted his life to teaching the ideas now known as The Fourth Way. The austere manner in which he delivered lectures, in accordance with the times, won him a reputation of a severe intellectual, but, as this book shows he was also a warm-hearted man with an extraordinary insight into people, as well as history and science.

His books TERTIUM ORGANUM and A NEW MODEL OF THE UNIVERSE were forerunners to his IN SEARCH OF THE MIRACULOUS and THE FOURTH WAY. They introduce a new way of living in the ordinary circumstances of our lives.

In this book Bob Hunter sets out to give a new perspective on Ouspensky to whom we owe a great debt of gratitude.

THE TRUE MYTH

Beryl Pogson's teaching on Gurdjieff's All and Everything
New large format quality paperback edition 506 pages eur 40.00

Voilà, Beryl Pogson's talks on many of the potentially liberating messages woven so deceptively into stories that have been found to puzzle, irritate and occasionally outrage unprepared readers.

Beryl Pogson had the knack of penetrating the layers of meaning in Beelzebub's observations about Man and his place and role in the Universe. More significant, she showed how to use this knowledge in ones everyday life to nourish the inner Self.

The True Myth records in detail her instructions to groups of people studying Gurdjieff's ideas. A notable feature is her use of “the law of analogy” to translate cosmic processes into methods of human psychological and spiritual transformation.

Four CD set of BEELZEBUB'S TALES TO HIS GRANDSON

Read by Dr Welch -- MP3 Format --

Traditional Studies Press 2004 -- euro 48.00

Gurdjieff died in Paris in October 1949, with Dr William Welch in attendance. Subsequently, Dr Welch became an active member of the Gurdjieff Foundation of New York, and served as its president from 1984 until his death in 1997.

In the Fall of 1992, a few people close to Dr Welch approached him about the possibility of recording his reading of BEELZEBUB'S TALES. Reading BEELZEBUB'S TALES aloud was one aspect of the oral tradition, which Gurdjieff himself first learned in his father's workshop, and which is practised in his teaching. Dr Welch agreed to read, and the recording sessions began in the Welches' apartment. On Sunday evenings, beginning at nine o'clock. Dr Welch would read for about half an hour; these readings were often followed by discussion that would continue late into the night.
