Uncut Edition By LiberationIM.org

Uncut means it has not really been edited from being initial penned by the "author", raw from off the potter's wheel, grammar and spelling was checked though. It is also uncut because often times when copyediting the editor rewords what he thinks something should mean, while it might not mean that; especially with something as spiritually sensitive as biblical revelation. Me using scripture with bad grammar might come out to a whole different meaning when correcting the grammar by the copy editor. Though copyediting make the work flawless grammatically and other such wise, it might detract from the intended meaning and impact given from the author, who receive it from the Holy Ghost. This might not be the case for all books, but one such as this where something is delivered from the Lord (encoder) to the author (decoder) and the meaning is best preserve in its original state even if they are copyediting errors. Any errors that might be cited doesn't detract from essence or reading and what is sent exegetically is received. The publishing process is bypassed and the work uncut. Similar to having the real orange fruit as against a canned processed with saturated alternatives. The oranges can be peeled by you and you get the juice with all the 'ruffage'; as against it being peeled and manufactured for you with all the things added and done to it that give it less potency (e.g. changing tone). Take the time to peel your orange and eat your fruit. Such are the books published by LIMP, uncut for your spiritual health. Thanks for reading this.

DEMONOLOGY REVEALED

Warning: “For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow” (Ecclesiastes 1:18).

INTRODUCTION

I had great trouble writing this study to the point that I had to do an additional fast on top of what is done for the newsletter I first wrote it in; not because it exposes the enemy, but because the unstableness of the teaching and conflicting scriptures. For instance, the apostle Paul said, “I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil” (Rom 16:19). But then another verse said, “To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church” (Eph 3:10). What is it, us to know or not to know? But when taken into context, God wants us to know even more than we can imagine, as he told his disciples, “I have yet many things to say unto you” (John 16:12). However, knowing too much at a certain level can be harmful, because “ye cannot bear them now” (John 16:12); so the verse that sums up this paradox says, “But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil” (Heb 5:4). That is why he taught at different levels to different churches. He wrote to some churches that were young in faith and thus didn’t expound certain things to them; and even some things are unlawful to speak about (2 Cor 12:4).

Then there is the unstableness of this teaching, purposely orchestrated by satan. The word of God said, “But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine” (Tit 2:1). Sound here means that what is taught can transcend all times/situations and still be effective and relevant as intended. For instance, “Repent and Be Baptized everyone of you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and ...” (Acts 2:38). This transcends all times and is unconditionally sound; no newly found doctrine can replace it, you cannot work your way around it or make it non-relevant, it must be applied for salvation until Jesus comes.

But teaching on Satanism can be unsound and thus harmful to the weak and the preacher who preached it. Moreover, the preacher can be counted as mad or nobody will further listen to him, when the unstableness manifest. For instance, when an ex-satanist comes out and give their testimony with the gruesome things that takes place in secret, many will flock to this because of the unbelievable stuff; though some testimonies are a ploy by satan but some of the things there in are true which I can attest to. In an effort to counteract these testimonies of coming out of satanism, satan will switch using that method or make it so common that it becomes a way of life rather than a satanic device, contraption or props. So in the long run people will say this is a way of life, fairy tale story and “them old preachers” were superstitious. God gave those “old preachers” revelation in the thing but satan switched it, in order to nullify it. A method he uses to say a preacher with insight beyond the norm is mad. For instance, wearing a ring on your big toe was a satanic prop used by Satanists; as one ex-satanist confessed 20 years ago. But since then it has become fashionable or the norm. Now, if I had teach that if you see a woman come into your church with a ring on her Big toe she is a Satanist with intentions to use magic against you, it would have held up then. But now it would seem stupid, for everybody is wearing big toe ring. The same can be said for many things the masses do unaware; like willingly taking inserts, tattooing, even shows like “Angel”, “Buffy”, “Charmed”, “Sabrina the teenage witch”, “City of Angels”, “Small Ville”, “Genie”, “Thru Calling” and others, are meant to pacify the public that what you’re watching is not real – though the shows might vary from the actual thing. This is how teaching on certain demonology and Satanism can be unsound and cause some to doubt in years to come or when it is pacified or switched. And the unlearnt will say the one who taught it is mad or uneducated. More commonly, they’ll called it a myth, fairy tale, Ghost story or urban legend; similar to how as early as Einstein times it was a common notion that Jesus Christ was a myth, that even secular Einstein had to boldly say “I am enthralled by the luminous figure of the Nazarene...No myth is filled with such life” (The Saturday Evening Post, Oct 26, 1929).

It might also seem that fact and fiction need to be separated, but if an alleged fiction is in this book, it means that it is a fact masked as fiction to hide that fact and even deceive you. History (fact) becomes legend and legend becomes fiction. Sometimes it is crafted subliminally to speak or entertain those who can “view it” or know what it is really talking about.

Nevertheless, the scriptures are sound and its effect cannot be altered throughout the years. Not only that, it is a gauge to the unstableness of the teaching on Satanism or current demonology. For the scripture tells us, “Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor 10:5). The knowledge of God said, “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you” (Lk 10:19). So if there is a weapon or device of Satan that is formed against you, it cannot work because it violates the knowledge of God. No matter what it is, the knowledge of God said it won’t hurt you. The enemy can only set his traps but he can’t touch us, he has to use fears, doubts, unbelief, subtlety and many creative ways to get us to believe that his weapon is going to work. But God said to cast that down and let all those stupid embedded thoughts of defeat, incantations, spells, voodoo, obeahism, mind control and other evil devices aimed at you become “captivity ... to the obedience of Christ” and knowledge of God (Bible). So everything said in this study must come to the knowledge of God or else throw it out.

This is not a detailed study, references for lots more info is given at the end, but what this study intended to do is bring some closure concerning all that we see and hear concerning evil or the world of darkness; from demons and UFO’s to witches and secret agents to the preacher in some pulpits. Upon completion of reading this you should see the “manifold wisdom” of God expressed in the personage of Jesus Christ or Yahoshua Ha Mashiah.

I’m glad to have received these revelations by the hand of God; and through his leading stumble across oodles of verified information in books and on the Internet. However,

“To the only wise God [being] our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.” (Jude 1:25).

NAME NOTICE: Our concern in this book is to defend the Principles of the Doctrine of Christ, not to attack personalities. Some names have been cited in this book, but this is because these individuals have made their position known in their published and public writings/works, which have been cited for examples and references. "As much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men" (Romans 12:18). This name notice is encouraged to be on all copies.

SERIES NOTICE: They are twelve books in this Truth Series, because twelve is the number of government or foundation. They are ten books for various faiths and two books for all. The ten books outline salvation, which should lead you in becoming saved or strengthened therein. The other two books are for growth, after receiving and being grounded in Salvation; one is on demonology, for greater spiritual awareness and the other outlines your survival kit after receiving salvation. All the books are seven chapters because seven is the biblical number for completion or perfection. All except one, “The Voice...” or the version for Christians, of the ten. It has 14 exhaustive chapters (7+7), which represents double perfection, needed for the most diverse sect of people on earth. The one for Christians is called “The Voice...;” the ones for the other faiths (9 books) are called “You Believe, Now Receive...;” the one for greater spiritual awareness is called “Demonology Revealed;” and your survival kit is called “Fasting and Prayers.” Twelve books in all, undoubtedly the most profound truthful exegesis on the Bible ever. After reading it, you can't admit that you don't know how and what it means to be save, how to survive and have not gained all proficiency in all knowledge of spirituality. Let these “book[s]...shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein” (Joshua 1:8).

TESTIMONY NOTICE: They are many testimonies to this work of God, “Demonology Revealed” and the entire Truth Series, but here is just one:

“I would like to thank you Brother...God revealed unto me that two problems that I was having was caused by a familiar spirit, which would first trick me to being bitter and then I would go out and commit a Sin that I habitually did. After I read the newsletters I started to rebuke the spirit who did those things and I am free. I feel different, I am thinking different now. Jesus has freed me! I know my faith can take it, I know I can make it, because heaven is my finish line” (The Good News Journalist).

True testimonies of the actual truth being done and accomplished is a sign that you are sent and doing the will of God; though it is not to be banked on by you. "He that hath received...[this] testimony hath set to...[My] seal that God is true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God" (John 3:33-34).

DEMONS AND THE KINGDOM OF GOD

At the time this was written we had been dealing much with the Kingdom of God and its implications; that's all Christ preached about when he was teaching to the multitudes. A section that is not taught in our circles anymore is the casting out of demons and identifying demonology at work. You cannot be an effective born again believer and not have sound knowledge in demonology; because the whole new Kingdom of believers are immediately at war with demons, being ex-slaves. Even non-Christians should be aware of demonology. This is somewhat the essence of the Kingdom of God to the individual, because before this we were plagued and controlled by devils. The Kingdom of God was presented to us because of their existence; in other words, if satan and his angels weren't around, man would be able to serve God fully and keep his commandments; so to speak. This is seen with Adam, he didn't need salvation because he was always inline with God. But then came along satan to trick him, which pulled him away from God and then possessed his seed. Then came murderers, whoremongers and all evil on God's perfect creation. In essence, the whole salvation is meant to deal with demonology and casting out demons. As Christ himself said, "But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you" (Matt 12:28). Remember, the Kingdom of God is within you (Lk 17:21) and not the things around us we associate with church. So if devils are in an individual (soul not body) how can they inherit eternal life or be free, whiles the place where the kingdom of God should be is occupied by them?

However, today our churches have become so wealthy that such things are pushed aside and replaced with pretty things like "counseling," "sit in the back bench," "it's a personality disorder," "the doctor said it's a rare medical problem" and things on that line. What this does is push aside someone who really needs deliverance so as to have church as usual. Demonology is not to be pushed aside it is the essence of having church. If God wanted praises he could raise up stones to praise him. He wants people free! He wants people delivered! He wants soul saved! He wants us redeemed to him! Demonology is the root problem of this. And born again believers are commanded and given the power to cast them out (Mark 16:16). God didn't call us to build lovely Cathedrals, he called us to cast out demons – to free people that the kingdom of God might also come unto them (Matt 12:28). Counseling is good, talking out your problems is good, but commanding that devil out of your life is best. All other churchy, psychiatric, therapy cover up things we do to rectify problems are only fiddling with symptoms while the sickness go unattended.

This Kingdom is a Kingdom of Power. For Jesus the kingdom was already present in his own person and ministry, and appeared visibly in the casting out of demons, satan's power had been broken (Lk 11:17). It was also signified by the many other works that Jesus did, as he reassured John the Baptist (Mt. 11:2). This proclamation of the kingdom is also a reality offered now, not just in the future (Mk 2:11). "For now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ" (Rev 12:10).

Our churches have become too sophisticated; with elaborate conferences, ministries for this and that, banqueting, "show-bizing" and much of the similitude of the world. Not that all these things are wrong but we often miss the mark by not casting out devils and dealing with the essence of our problems. Our medical field has gotten too fine-tuned, conjuring up new diseases and sophisticating demonic oriented problems under new medical terms. Even the cures today bring more sickness (side effects), when a problem could be demonic.

Often times when asking another saint “why don’t you cast out devils?” The reply would be, “that’s not my ministry I work in the music ministry.” WRONG! Casting out devils is everybody’s ministry as Christ said, “these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall...” (Mark 16:16).

Are you a born again believer? Then Christ is saying, “Why are you not casting out devils?” “Why are you not delivering people and saving souls by commanding that foul spirit to leave?” Even further, “Why are you not commanding the squatter (devil) off your body and free yourself?” Casting out demons is every born again believers business, to others and themselves. The week when I wrote this I was coming from classes at BCC and this foul spirit, whether from there or while commuting, came upon me. It started to act on my body without my will; I got angry and began to pray in transition to cast it out. Suddenly it leaped out through my mouth before I could cast it out directly. I sense that it was afraid. Reason being, these devils dread going to the place of torment before their time, because I often cast out demons strait to the abyss or torment permanently; as against Jesus who had mercy on some by sending him into the pigs. Born again believers have this authority to send them anywhere, even to the abyss before their time. Believers are not immune to attacks, but have the power to “kill, destroy and beat down any devil” according to your faith. If this is you, born again, you have great power and authority in Jesus name.

“Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you” – Jesus (Lk 10:19).

It’s time we stop trying to be cute, nice or politically correct. Here’s a scriptural outline before proceeding into this book:

God’s initial solution for Demons:

“And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Jude 1:6).

“And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually...Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven” (Gen 6:5 and Gen 19:24).

“And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous” (Gen 18:20).

The Law’s solution for dealing with Demons:

“If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them: Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear” (Duet 21:18-21).

“A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them” (Lev 20:27).

However, because “we wrestle not against flesh and blood,” but against spirits, when the host or its enfleshment is dead it just finds another host to cohabituate or some other means of having an earth suit (flesh). So then Christ came with the only true solution.

Christ’s solution for dealing with Demons:

“I am the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6).

“For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law” (Matt 10:35).

“I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left” (Lk 17:34).

Christ solution in Action:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised” (Lk 4:18).

“And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit” “For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit” (Mark 5:2, 8).

“When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him” (Mark 9:25).

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth” (Matt 28:18).

“When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick” (Matt 8:16).

Our solution for Dealing with Demons:

“The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master” (Lk 6:40).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you” (Lk 10:19).

“Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover” (Mark 16:15-18).

Our solution in Action:

“And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven” (Acts 2:1-5).

“And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour” (Acts 16:16-18).

“But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive. And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord” (Acts 9:40-42).

“And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him” (Acts 28:8).

Caution with our solution:

“And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye” (Acts 19:15)?

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world” (1 John 4:1).

“Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not” (1 John 3:1).

“But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matt 12:48-50).

“Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting” (Matt 17:21).

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” (Hosea 4:6).

Assurance of our solution:

“We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not” (I John 5:18).

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (I John 3:2).

I like the last caution above, which reads, “My people are destroyed for lack of Knowledge.”

The word knowledge there is the same word used for knowing someone intimately, as in “Adam knew Eve.” So the correct rendering of that text should be “my people are destroyed for lack of knowing me.” It’s kind of sad that the word “knowledge” was used to deter greatly from the meaning. Knowledge is too vast of a word because you can’t know everything and knowing doesn’t necessarily guarantee not being destroyed (Terry Lawson, ‘How To Study The Word’, given by Evang. Graham).

However, what that scripture meant to say is herald in this verse, “the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits” (Dan 11:32). In other words, it’s after having an intimate relationship with Jesus through his spirit and word then you can do great things, like casting out devils. No wonder some of them cannot go unless one “fast and pray” (Matt 17:21); which greatly intensifies your relationship and thus faith.

Saints of the most high God I implore you to not only “contend for the faith that was once delivered unto the saints” as it relates to being saved, but in all doctrine and authority.

MANIFESTATIONS OF EVIL

One of the scripture that was highlighted in Chapter 1 was Luke 10:19, "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you." Then another scripture translated the essence of what are the "serpents and scorpions:" "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph 6:12).

So in essence, every war a Born again believer fight (daily) is spiritual; even though natural, mechanical and people props are used. They usual manifest through these open doors:

Eastern Religions, runes, fears of all kinds, pride and self-deception, compromise, self-hatred, insecurities, lying tongue, horoscope beliefs, unbelief, spiritism, unrighteous competing, sexual impurity, visiting cult houses, satanic temple, obeah house, voodoo house, New Age clinics, using ouija board, stepping on charms for power, karate or martial arts, Yoga exercises, demonic computer games, demonic board games, reading demonic literature, Palmistry, Handwriting analysis, planchet, crystal ball, levitation, water witching, black magic, white magic, false angelic visitation, witchcraft, Santeria, ventriloquism, satanic inserts, Rod and Pendulum, demonic television shows, wearing satanic Jewelry, listening to satanic audio messages and songs, evil fellowship, TM, UFO, ESP, mind control, necromancy, alien abduction, spirit guides, joining or affiliating to secret organization, theosophy, psychics, gypsies, tarot cards, witch craft, wizardry, enchantment, consultation with familiar spirits, charmer, self mutation, and many many many more open doors; some listed at demonbuster.com.

As believers, not one of these things should be named among you. The Lord warned us, "When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD" (Deu 18:9-14).

Nevertheless, most of the above-mentioned are only 'props' for the spirits to work through. Tarot cards, ouija boards, pendulums or psychics have no power of themselves; they are just props for spirits to work through to ensnare your lives. They are so many variations today that all of them cannot be listed or be easily identifiable. But the real essences of it are spirits to which we wrestle against.

SATAN AT WORK

Though the devices of satan are constantly changing and it's hard to teach on it, the essence is still the same. That is, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy" (John 10:10). It might have been through a witch back then, but now they are working under the guise of secret agents backed by spirits with mechanical devices and mind control tactics, for the sole purpose of destroying, killing and stealing. It varies from region to region but the most used props of the enemy are people. Spirits can bound a person and any born again believer can cast it out, but wresting indirectly with a person given over to satan control is another thing; because the essence of the fight is not the person but the spirits, who had influence the person. They themselves might not be possessed at the moment, though having a bedroom inside for spirits, but through years of manipulation they have been brainwashed into doing what they do; and all Satanists conjure spirits to carryout attacks. That's where they get power from. Plus what many call demonic possession can be easily misinterpreted for demonic suppression, demonic oppression or demonic obsession.

“Suppression is an act of forcefully (in the spirit realm) pressing down somebody from carrying out what he or she wants to do towards success; or even for them to do evil, unknowingly. Oppression is an act of inflicting pain, bodily, socially, mentally or emotionally, on an individual. Obsession is an act of been wrapped up in a certain wrong thoughts; oppression is the pain inflicted from somebody to another, but obsession is the pain inflicted on oneself - even suicide” (J. Awojobi).

A Christian writer identified three groups of satan empowered agents, which have also been verified by ex-satanists. They are 1) Intelligent Corps 2) Beauty Corps 3) And the wicked Corps.

INTELLIGENT CORPS

“Intelligent corps are brilliant cult members. They could be future tellers, e.g. psychic and cult seers. They could tell you what you have been going through and the conditions you are in. The Israelites were warned by God never to consult them (Deut 18:10-12).

Some of the intelligence corps are scientifically minded that they invent things that could be used to ensnare the minds of men and women, especially young people. I strongly believe that some computer games on our screens and things like ouija boards are the handiwork of this corps. They are also creative and always using their brains to think on things that could bring destruction to people or bring people closer to demons. Many have been possessed by mere playing of games and participating in demon-influencing activities. This corps developed power of information collaboration through the use of animals like dogs, cats and black birds. They monitor people to know how to attack them. Let me give you a clear example of how this is carried out. A girl of about thirteen years old with a demon of familiar spirits was well known for stealing. Everyone that dwelt in that house was being affected with this act of stealing. Different methods of keeping cash had been used to prevent her from knowing where money was kept. It was still discovered that nowhere seemed to be too secret. What the girl used was the power of information. A demon of familiar spirits could be transferred into a dog, a cat or any domestic pet. Through the animals, she was able to discover where cash was kept. It is important to cast out demons of familiar spirits in animals suspected to be agents of the members of this cult. Make sure that your pets are not influenced by demons of familiar spirits lest you and your household be in danger of demonic attack.” This sect is much more advance and as I said before, fluctuates in appearance and attacks.

BEAUTY CORPS

“These are cult members who possess tremendous seducing spirits. A look at a man could easily confuse that man. One of them told me that their targets are preachers and active church members. The demons that influence seducing spirits are the sex demons that induce acute masturbation, unusual sexual urges, sex diseases and uncontrollable sexual activities; e.g. having sex with unknown persons and animals in dreams.

A man of God was touched by the situation of a lady in this group of the familiar spirit. He honestly invited her for prayer. Mistakenly they closed the office door just to make the discussion very private. The preacher lost control of the situation. He had sex with her. Unfortunately, when a man of God falls into this mess, the 'church' usually fails to realize that we are wrestling against forces stronger than us. Many Christians instead of helping such persons trod on them and destroy them further. May God open our eyes of understanding."

THE WICKED CORPS

This is the most terrible of the three. "Mary was a grade ten student at school. She was the head of this corps in that school and surrounding area. One day, a student offended one of the popular cult members. The student's case was handed over to Mary. Mary directed the boy (the offender) by evil spirits into a nearby bush. She followed the boy and physically tied him to a tree. For two days both the parents and the school community searched for the missing student without any success. It was on the third day that Mary decided to release him – with a warning not to tell anybody where he was. Fortunately, some of the Christian teachers discovered that it was an act of Mary. The case was made known to the principal who was very angry at Mary and decided to expel her. The principal fell sick to the point of death. He was prayed for. God healed him. The natural man cannot fight demons.

One of the activities of familiar spirits, especially the wicked corps is to cause road accidents. Since they drink human blood, the common way they get blood is through accidents. [and even more common is them in the guise of 'mobile blood donation banks' at your church. Get rid of them].

After my preaching one Sunday morning at a church, I was receiving hand shakes from the congregation members. I was an invited guest speaker. Among the people who came to me was a little girl of about nine years old. I thought she wanted to shake my hand but she refused. She requested that she have a talk with me. I told her to give me a few minutes and I would be with her. It was good I did. During our discussions, she confessed to being a member of the familiar spirits cult. She was in the wicked corps and she needed to be delivered. She claimed that she hated to do the evil things she was doing but she could not help herself. I demanded from her to know where she kept her tools or instruments of operation. She claimed not to have any but after rebuking her for sometime she confessed that she kept them near a river. Though the river was about four miles away I decided to follow her, along with a brother. On getting to the riverside, she stopped and refused to go further. We assured her that she was safe and secure in the hands of Jesus. After a while she came along until we got to the scene. Then she pointed to a tree and said we should dig the ground to the side of the tree. We dug the ground to about one and half feet. Then we started to discover some strange things. There were four things that we saw. I will mention them along with what they use them to do.

- a) An old knife. This is used to cut the flesh of victims immediately after accidents caused by demons of wickedness.
- b) A strange little cup. This is used to fetch the victim's blood.
- c) A piece of stove burner. This is used to cook the blood and sometimes human flesh.

We enquired of her why they used those old instruments because the items we saw were old, rotten and broken. She said emphatically that that is how we see them, but they are brand new to her. The devil only pretends to love his agents. God is love. I pity ... others who are devil's agents." Many kids are lured into this through books like Harry Potter and their parents, being so busy, have no clue of their child's occult involvements.

(Quotations of the 3 groups from 'Basic Secret Of Satanic Forces').

HUMAN OPERATIONS

Previously, we dealt with props and people that satan works through. We dealt with the devices and victims of the devices; and because these devices are constantly changing, purposely, this teaching on demons can be unsound. However, the essence of the teaching is sound – “The thief comes not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy” as previously mentioned. And also previously stated was the verse that tops it all, “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

Satan in mimicry has orchestrated a well-organized Kingdom to counteract the Kingdom of God. In Chapter 2 we cited only three groups: - Intelligent corps, Beauty corps and the wicked corps. But the Kingdom of darkness is so diverse that they are many groups, mostly working under the guise of things, places and people we see every day. But I’ve divided them into three groups: humans, fallen angels and fallen angel human offspring or production. I’ll only deal with the humans in this chapter, though some satanist have ceased to be fully humans and are “half-spirit”.

WITCHES

“Traditional witchcrafts are more often inherited. An Old witch transfers the craft to a daughter or someone very close to her. One can also be initiated into witchcraft through food or the use of an object that belongs to a person (Num 16:26). For example, the use of somebody’s shoes in the contact with a demon of wickedness can be used to influence the person into witchcraft. This is contagious magic. Children can be initiated through the use of sweets, eggs and other items depending on the geographical and cultural settings of the people involved. The witchcraft activities include: a) Flying in the night to attend meetings or attacking people. Their usual meeting hours are 1:00 a.m. – 3:30 a.m. Again, it depends on the location. Nevertheless, they are most active at nights. b) They are the enemies of progress and their goal is to kill people who are progressive. c) They mark their victims so that other witches can witch hunt them. d) When they cause disease in a person, the doctor cannot diagnose the disease though the person is actually very ill. e) They use mediumistic power to carry out Satanic attacks on persons. f) Some of them eat human flesh and drink human blood to gain more power” (Pastor Awojobi).

SATANISTS

“Satanism is the modern witchcraft. It combines worship of Satan with magical powers. Like the witches, Satanists sold their souls as slaves to Satanism; some for rewards or in search of love. Satanists are commonly found in the Western region while witches are common in the African Diaspora. Satanism, sometimes organize ‘churches’; [this is where it gets diverse as some members of satanic churches have no clue of the wicked magical side of it – ‘satanic dabbling’.] The common slogan in the service is the common slogan of Black Magician Aleister Crowley, “Do what thou wilt.” The traditional witches do not force people into the cult, but Satanism does. Satanism today uses the method of injecting drugs in the victims. While under drug influence, they carry out a form of implanting in the victims. This will allow easy demonic communications. Besides, it creates a form of avenue for easy follow-up of the member. The member is empowered for aggressive attacks on whomever offends them. They are given power to kill most times by the use of the first and second finger of both hands. This is similar to traditional witchcraft practices. Satanists are empowered by demons to cause sicknesses, diseases, arguments and discord. Churches and Christian homes are primarily their targets for these. They could see demons face to face and talk with them. They are, however, warned against revealing their secrets. Death could be the consequence of the disobedience.

Characteristic of Recruited Satanists:

1) Many people are recruited into Satanism due to their former contacts with evil practices like voodooism, contact with Magicians, obeahism, diviners, Talisman, etc. This contact may be from the wombs, during childhood or at any age in life. 2) Recruited Satanists are often abused sexually. A form of demons of sex rest on them. In some awful situations, mentally ill and other demon possessed men have sex with them. This is a means of transferring higher demons into them. 3) Some female Satanists are often promoted to high priestess. They are married to Satan. 4) Satanists are marked for identification and most times inflated and left with broken bodies. Satan pretends to love his followers while indeed his ultimate goal is to destroy them. Strange things are buried in their bodies for the purpose of contact, communications and attacks. 5) Astral-projection, where the soul departs from the body temporarily is often practice. This may be for protection against attacks or departure to attend meetings. The body is left while the soul is lifted up for spiritual activities” (Pastor Awojobi).

Also, I once thought Witches and Satanists were for other organizations, but here’s what a former Satanist saw on his trip to a dimension beneath the earth’s surface: “One day I went to a hidden place in the bush, made some incantations as stated in the books and commanded the ground to open. The ground opened and the demons created steps immediately. I stepped in and went right inside the ground. I saw a lot of things that are hard to explain. I saw some CHURCH LEADERS who came for powers, powers to say a thing and it is accepted without questioning the ‘church’.”

Regardless of the guise or organization, like satan, all satanist come to kill, steal and destroy.

MUTANTS

Paul taught us, “For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Rom 8:39). Paul didn’t rule out the fact that they are other creatures not mentioned in this verse and unknown to most people. “Any other creature” here was placed with “angels,” “principalities” and “powers,” so he meant intelligent creatures and not creatures like lizard, horses or monkeys.

Mutants can be described as humans with abnormalities, most often super-humans. Shockingly enough, mutants have always been around. They are either satanists, fallen angels in flesh or scientific experiment on men by either a scientist or a scientist and a devil. More than often it is devilry and satanism. Here are quotes from a former Satanist to prove that:

“A month after my chairmanship, a meeting was called. We attended that meeting as birds, cats and snakes.”

“I had now become a part and parcel of the spirit world and could [go] at will to any part of the world [Teleport].”

“She took me to a corner of the barbeach, used something like a belt and tied around us and immediately a force came from behind and pushed us into the sea. We started flying on the surface of the water and straight to the ocean... these happened in my physical form!”

“One night, I woke up in the dead of the night and found a boa-constrictor beside me. I wanted to shout but could not. Some nights I would wake up to see Alice's body as transparent as a cellophane bag. Some nights, she would disappear and reappear.”

“I would like to give a testimony of a minister. When he went on his knees there would be confusion among us. We therefore sent these girls to him. But this man would even feed them but would refuse to be enticed... I then changed to a woman and went to him and by words and actions tried to entice him but he was adamant.” (E. Eni)

Now, aren't these characteristic of being a mutant? In fact, he said all Satanists at his level had to give up being fully human to become part spirit; whereby they could fly (bodily), change to male or female (morph), change to animals, teleport, become like shadows and many other mutant stuff. Some shows like X-men, mutant X and some marvel comics super-heroes are then only glorifying satanists and subtly making us passive to them or be enticed. They are enemies of God and agents to target born again believers, as seen with the last quote above about changing into a woman. If they are humans who were blindly mutated by someone they'll think they are doing good; this quote from the series “Mutant X” typifies this, “we fight for a real world that don't even know we exists”. Most real satanists are aggressively known for doing this, by forcefully inducting relatives and friends into satanism.

This attempt to empower humanity is God's intension in the long run or from the beginning. Man was probably made to live in our earth suits (flesh) forever and manipulate it at will; for instance, molculization, as seen with Jesus walking through the wall in flesh (John 20:26). Or even reconstruct it if it decays, as seen with his resurrection. However, all this, along with the essential relationship with God was lost.

Jesus himself said so, “they [humans] which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead ... they are equal unto the angels” (Lk 20:35-36); in other words, equal in nature to angels – “flying,” going through walls and other stuff. However, anything outside of God is evil, devilry and eternally harmful. Surprisingly enough while watching X-men the movie for the first time in 2003 I heard magneto with similar acclaims. He took the senator (human) and exposed him to radiation in order to mutate him, but what he said in his speech before branding the radioactive machine was startling; he said that “God was too slow” in evolving man. So even satan, through “Hollywood”, recognizes God's intension for us and in mockery, mimicry, control and deceit has attempted to upgrade many human beings who are Satanists; and others too.

Not saying this photo is real but mostly for example purposes.

If a mutant “might” look like this, they are either Satanists who got stuck in a morphing process; or more commonly, devils and/or scientists experimenting with human embryo. As we advance in technology we will have more abnormalities because of radiation, but again this is a satanic plot; and some honest people would have become victims of mutation. When I wrote this in the newsletter, X-men 2 had just been released that weekend and many young people flocked to the theater to be deceived. A month later, the Incredible Hulk was released, and who could forget the Box Office recording breaking film, Spider-Man, in 2002. Though these movies seem innocent, to the point that an ardent follower of Christ like myself is greatly enticed to watch them, they are laden with underline satanic themes to brainwash the public. Pray for your children and families, because “the days are evil.”

EXCHANGE CHILDREN

“The trespassing of demons of wickedness in the life of a person could initiate such a person into any of the groups [Intelligent, Beauty or Wicked corps]. One may become a member from the womb. The power of familiar spirits can exchange the fetus in the womb and replace it with a powerful “demonic Baby.” This is hard to explain because it goes against human biology. I was told that a close relative of mine had a baby. I went with joy to see the baby. On getting to the house, I realized that the parents and relatives of the baby were not really enthusiastic about the child. I was invited into the room to see that baby. When I saw him, I saw immediately that the child was an exchange child, the head was completely bald, and the face looked as if he was a middle-age man. When he saw me he changed his countenance. He seemed not to welcome me at all. I decided to take him and with the parents we prayed. Our prayers was that the “baby” will not live but die. He died very shortly. The purpose of the familiar spirit baby is to cause the parents to have financial difficulties and unrest. They become sickly and unfriendly. They frustrate the parents and ruin their lives totally. Many hospitals are packed with children who are exchange babies” (Pastor Awojobi).

They are like mutants with supernatural abilities, most often hidden from their parents; or some times covered up under terms like ESP, Gifting, in born psychic abilities and others. They could also be fallen angels in flesh (Gen 6:4). The same author gave another account of a child who he suspected was an exchange baby; the parents had ask him to help them because of the odd behavior of the child. He decided to sleep in the room where the baby slept for a night. He said he was awakened in the middle of the night to see the baby girl climbing out of the crib as a full-grown woman. He got up and had to pacify the situation through Jesus name. The child later died. This wasn’t a dream, but an actual event. The scripture said, “the wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they are born” (Ps 58:3).

Then they are forces of evil that breed hybrid children. Hybrid means they are not naturally born or matured in the womb, more than likely in a lab. For instance, I once heard that KFC because of high demands for chicken has to grow them genetically in a lab, in order to meet those demands. When I told Bro. N. White of this, an evangelism friend of mine, he exclaimed with disdain; but both he and I still went to KFC to eat after that, especially as there was one offering a buffet for $5.99. Today I try to avoid most fast foods. Back to the study...

Many women who have had miscarriages are victims of hybrid mutation, unknowingly. What happens is that these forces of darkness can impregnate a woman with a certain sperm. The baby then grows in the belly for a while then removed and finishes its development in a lab; or given over to pre-selected families to be later inducted in the Monarch Mind Control – via taking the fetus and switching it with the pregnant woman in the pre-selected family. They can do this to women who are sexually active while they are sleeping; they are then given anesthesia to wipe the experience from their mind. The woman would think she had sex with her partner, got pregnant and then had a miscarriage. Devils often do this under the guise of alien abductions, as many abductees have reported. "The idea is that via black magic a perfect soul can be captured. The belief in reincarnation, which is prevalent among the Illuminati and Satanic groups, lends itself to the belief that souls compete for a particular embryo. On page 107- 108 of "Moonchild" the idea is expressed, 'To produce a man who should not be bound up in his heredity, and should have the environment which they desired for him'" (The Illuminati Formula Used to Create an Undetectable Total Mind Controlled Slave).

Apart from traditional satanists, witches, mutants and exchange children, what will also spring up are cyborgs!

"In August 1998, a silicon chip was implanted in my arm, allowing a computer to monitor me as I moved through the halls and offices of the Department of Cybernetics at the University of Reading, just west of London, where I've been a professor since 1988. My implant communicated via radio waves with a network of antennas throughout the department that in turn transmitted the signals to a computer programmed to respond to my actions. At the main entrance, a voice box operated by the computer said "Hello" when I entered; the computer detected my progress through the building, opening the door to my lab for me as I approached it and switching on the lights. For the nine days the implant was in place, I performed seemingly magical acts simply by walking in a particular direction" - Prof. Warick

Haraway on the Cyborg:

A cyborg is a cybernetic mechanism, a hybrid of machine and organism, a creature of social reality as well as a creature of fiction. Social reality is live social relations, our most important political construction, a world-changing fiction. The international women's movements have constructed 'women's experience', as well as uncovered or discovered this crucial collective object. This experience is a fiction and fact of the most crucial, political kind. [Simians, Cyborgs, and Women: The Reinvention of Nature. Routledge, 1991, 149]

The cyborg is a cybernetic organism, a fusion of the organic and the technical forged in particular, historical, cultural practices. Cyborgs are not about the Machine and the Human, as if such Things and Subjects universally existed. Instead, cyborgs are about specific historical machines and people in interaction that often turns out to be painfully counterintuitive for the analyst of techno science. [Feminism and Techno science. New York and London: Routledge, 1997. 51]

Cyborgs Are Already Here:

1. Cyborgs actually do exist; about 10% of the current U.S. population is estimated to be cyborgs in the technical sense, including people with electronic pacemakers, artificial joints, drug implant systems, implanted corneal lenses, and artificial skin. A much higher percentage participates in occupations that make them into metaphoric cyborgs, including the computer keyboarder joined in a cybernetic circuit with the screen, the neurosurgeon guided by fiber optic microscopy during an operation, and the teen game player in the local videogame arcade. "Terminal identity," Scott Bukatman has named this condition, calling it an "unmistakably doubled articulation" that signals the end of traditional concepts of identity even as it points toward the cybernetic loop that generates a new kind of subjectivity. [Katherine Hayles, "The Life of Cyborgs: Writing the Posthuman." Cyborg Handbook, 322]

2. This merging of ... these systems of dying flesh and undead circuits, and of living and artificial cells have been called many things: bionic systems, vital machines and cyborgs. They are a central figure of the late Twentieth Century. . . . But the story of cyborgs is not just a tale told around the glow of the televised fire. There are many actual cyborgs among us in society. Anyone with an artificial organ, limb or supplement (like a pacemaker), anyone reprogrammed to resist disease (immunized) or drugged to think/ behave/feel better (psychopharmacology) is technically a cyborg. The range of these intimate human-machine relationships is mind-boggling. It's not just Robocop, it is our grandmother with a pacemaker. [Chris Hables Gray, Steven Mentor, and Jennifer Figueroa-Sarriera, "Cyborgology: Constructing the Knowledge of Cybernetic Organisms." Cyborg Handbook, 322]. I once saw a new excerpt of a new cell phone implanted under the skin, connected to your nerves and answered by the tap of two fingers – you just speak and listen.

One of the high themes of this New Age is technology: Man versus Machines. A well orchestrated plot by satan and his forces to deceive many.

The plot is to prove that machine is greater than man and therefore man will become dependent on it or integrated with it; making it an idol or god by which we would have to succumb to, being dependent on it. Though, what we would have become dependent on is not the machine but the fallen angel masterminds behind the machines. In other words, though we seemly control it, "machine" is meant to control us. I too am somewhat a techno geek, but being a born again believer I cannot allow myself to be deceived or conform to this world. It would be easy to be deceived by it, because full cyborgs will be used to fight wars, rescue people and do humanly impossible tasks; making it very enticing. Exemplify by the movie Robo Cop.

As professor Warwick mentioned, by becoming a cyborg you must have several computer chips implanted all over your body, even though it might not look that way; like these cyborges on www.theborgcollective.com. Therefore, we will inevitable be controlled by it or its operators (satanic regime); somewhat like how satan plans to control everyone by putting an insert in their forehead or hand. Don't be fooled by the drama-Hollywood masks, my history teacher once told me, "Life follows art." Much like how in the beginning was the word and then... So what you see in theatrical art is exactly what satan and his cohorts are up to. By using Hollywood we become enticed and less sensitized by it, as it is slowly introduced. Most of what you see now was presented on television years ago. This, on the other hand, has already move from the theatrical to real life legislature. One reporter noted this about the computer chips placed in humans today and the early stages of this battle to make it become mainstream, "Technology has a way of moving faster than legislature, and if it comes down to a race between cyborgs and Senators, guess who will win? Resistance is futile."

Not only willingly becoming a cyborg will take away one's freedom, but also openly flying in the face of God in assumption that he has fallen short. It's a direct rebellion on the creator. Satan would have used the same enticement he used on Adam, "ye shall be as god." When in fact, they already had godship of the earth; but through this trickery he had pulled them away from it and from God. We would have side stepped the more powerful baptism of the Holy Ghost (becoming born again) and substitute it for technological innovations. In other words, throwing God's plan for us in his face and using our own.

This is not human evolution, but satan's cunning deception to control humans; to rob us and keep us from the true image of God. In doing this, he also attempts to discredit the bible and Christianity.

We are bigger than cyborges. We are spirit beings and its truest potential can only be realized by becoming born again and then caught up with Christ. Technology is not bad, it gives convenience. But it becomes bad when intended to use against us under the guise of help.

THE INTERNET

It might seem far-fetched to you but the Internet is the methodological idea for the cyborg machine takeover. I didn't know this, haven't been so involved in the internet, but later found it out.

The internet is the last Mass Mediums we are going to see in this age. You might say NO. For instance, when the T.V came about we thought that was it until the internet immersed. But if you say NO, it's because the meaning of the Internet is not clear. Typing www.something.com is not the internet. Let me quote from the experts on what is the Internet:

The Internet is a global networks' system that consist of the millions of local area networks (LANs) and computers (hosts). The WWW [or world wide web] is only one of the ways of practical implementations of the Internet.

Some of the other ways are the following ones: gophers -- the dispersed system of menu driven subject oriented databases; ftp -- the remote files' exchange system; email systems, and so on...

The WWW (that was born 5 years ago) is a method (and system) that provides the members of the Internet's community with historically new opportunity to create and permanently develop the global field of the texts (as well as images, animations, sounds, etc.), all parts of which are able to cross connect with each others.

Gregarory Gromov, 1996, Netvalley.com
"The Roads and Crossroads of Internet History"

So then, the Internet is a connection of computers; while WWW, email systems, ftp and others are the practical implementations. Seeing that everything will be computerize soon, including TV (web TV), then everything will be connected on one global network. Connected in the sense that you'll be able to stay at your work place and type or voice a command on your desktop computer that opens the refrigerator door or turn on the stove at home. I was watching or re-watching "Lost in Space 2" August 2003, having just received this insight and this movie gave a great example of this. It's a futuristic film that depicts a highly computerize world. For instance, they kept calling on the computers that operate the ships and everyday systems (doors, monitors, lights, etc.) as being online. The command, “computer online,” was the voice command to turn on the ships or a monitor in the house. This is the same as a practical implementation of the Internet, they didn’t type in WWW.something to go online, but they were, because the computers were inter-connected. This movie and another called “Demolition Man” clearly shows the intent of the Internet; and also brainwashes the viewers to be enticed by it or accept it.

This can also be seen in things like the cars of the future, fully computerized to be even remoted. For instance, I saw on news sometime ago that there is a new system placed in cars when you finance them. What it does is track wherever you are (GPS) but not only that, if you miss a payment it remotely shuts off your car and defect it from starting up so as to be easily repossessed. Another instance was depicted when I was at the New Building on Central Campus of my School (BCC). I went to the bathroom and remarkably the toilet flushed itself and the pipes turned on themselves, plus my hands were blow-dried. At one instance on the toilet the device malfunctioned and I didn’t know what to do to stop it. This depicts how easy simple tasks can be used to manipulate us when computerized, if someone chooses to. Having an alarm system in your home is another stage of getting you fixed to be controlled – notice the ADT adverts, where all the wall were covered in computer language under the guise of protection; which really is making your home a big computer that can and will be monitored and monitor you. I remember in a building and I lifted my hands to praise God and the alarm went off. When the Pastor came over, I was told I triggered off an invisible thing called motion sensor which he forgot to turn off.

This was even clearly seen in a recent “Black Out” in America; where most of the Northern States and Southern Canada lost power. I was startled to know that the power supply was also inter-connected on what they call a ‘grid.’ Dividing the United States into three inter-connects on the Grid: - East, West and Texas, plus the Canadian Interconnects. One malfunction in the North Eastern Grid knocked out power to over 50 million people over several states and Canada – all because the power is inter-connected. Also remember that most of this power system is computerized, so already a system epitomizes the total computerized control. One reporter noted that some public restrooms didn’t work because the toilets were run by electricity (online) as described earlier. Plus there were many untold problems that occurred, which simply show how the American Public have relatively become dependent on technology and thus when fully computerized (especially with the ‘chip’), dictatorial control will be inevitable (Rev 13:7).

Sounds like a well orchestrated plan to melt the world in one and control it. Melting personal control under the guise that you will have more control with computerize technology – having everything accessible by the click of a mouse, if that is still used. Imagine the control a dictator (anti-Christ) will have with this system. He would have control of every home, office, power supply, water and even down to the very car that you drive, all by the click of a mouse or inter-connected computers. And if everyone has a chip implanted in them, then they have a computer on them and he’ll be able to control them as well; especially if demonic spirits are used to enhance this.

For the Internet to become effective it has to be widespread, the most perfect way is to entice shark eating hungry businessmen to a new income opportunity. When they learn that money can be made by the click of the mouse, they’ll flood your computers with banner ads, pop-ups and all the annoying advertisement you see when you surf the web. They will develop incentives to make sure every home has a computer, so they can make money from you. Unfortunately, they do not know and many of us also, that the ultimate web of deception is being weaved – as previously discussed. For instance, take this quote from the inventors of the World Wide Web:

How can I help?

There are lots of ways you can help the development of the World Wide Web says w3c a founding organization of the WWW, directed by Tim Lee, one of the master minds behind the creation of the WWW at [CERN].

Put up some data

There are many ways of doing this. The web needs both raw data -- fresh hypertext or old plain text files, or smart servers giving views of existing databases. See more details, etiquette, style guide.

Suggest that someone else does

Maybe you know a system or some information that you would like to see on the web. Suggest to the person involved that they put up a W3 server.

Manage a subject area

If you know something of what's going on in a particular field, organization or country, would you like to keep up-to-date an overview of online data?

Write some software

We have a big list of things to be done. Help yourself -- all contributions gratefully received! see the list.

In other words, webmasters, unknowingly and innocently, contribute to this end time mechanical agenda. I know it might be hard getting out of the web, but if you don't, the spider (Anti-Christ) will get you! As with every spider's web, he is never usually around until the prey is entangled in it.

MODERN TECHNOLOGY

I saw on an old GNC discussion board, "why do Pentecostals have techno Phobia?" It is not a Phobia, but the spirit of the Lord is pulling them from it but they don't why he's doing it or that he is doing it. Technology is good, because windmill is technology; it aids in a difficult task, human fleshly task. But when the technology is threatening occurs by inter-connection of computers (internet) or you being the technology (insert, cyborgs, techno garments) or you in the technology (control environment); then it becomes dangerous and wicked. This is the intent of Modern Technology. It will look, feel and sound good, plus give convenience, but it's meant to entrap and ensnare the soul. It made you independent (advancement) in one area to make you dependent in another. By interconnection your privacy is gone and you're affairs are constantly being monitored; by you becoming the technology it automatically make you its slave and the democratic dictators (devils) at the other end controls you; by you in the technology automatically makes you entrapped in the slavery. The dangers are:

1. Interconnection: Internet, networking devices and others. This was briefly dealt with in the section on the Internet and can be fully seen in the ICI document found here: <http://www.threeq.com/pages/internet.html>.

But here is a little more from Larry Gosshorn. Larry Gosshorn is a man who surmounted to the highest levels in computerization and robotic engineering. He has a company named 'Robotics International'. In other words, this man is a genius in the computer industry, which is clearly shown in his alliance to the universal program called SWIFT (Society for Worldwide Interbanking Financial Telecommunication). Through it, the entire police departments and financial technologies of the world were to be linked to Europe and the Super Computer. Here are his exact words from an audiocassette, "I went into heavy rebellion [as a youngster]. I had seen the movie The Devil and Daniel Webster, where Webster gave his soul to Satan in exchange for the wealth and power of the world. I decided that that was what I was going to do. I made a contract with Satan to exchange my soul for the wealth and power of this world. In my teens, I was traveling with the number two family of the Mafia of America. By the time I was in my early thirties, I had achieved all of the objectives that I had set out to achieve. The chairman of the Bank of America was on my board (Robotics International)... In 1973, we received the contract for the World Banking Organization to set up the super computer of Europe called SWIFT. We started building the system in conjunction with Burroughs. One day, two Christian men came into my office and said to me, 'Do you know what you are doing? You are building the system that will be known as the Mark of the Beast. Are you going to build Satan's system to control every person on earth with the number 666 and the Mark of the Beast?' I replied, 'I didn't know that that was what I was doing.'" With this last reply, the same can be said of most webmasters.

2. You in the Technology or control environment: The very alarm systems in your homes, schools and church are leading up to this; one ADT poster said, "a sign of the times". The best example of this is an old movie called Colossus or a modern one call Fortress. The technology does everything for you so it's inevitable that you'd be dependent on it. Spin offs from this might be even weather control, holographic systems or what is seen in the movie matrix on the surface; that's why in the ICI document I'd touch on the delusion of avatars – your personal holographic you in cyberspace. Larry Gosshorn continues, 'In the new smart programs you will have three dimensional graphics. What does this mean? They can bring an image through your television set, using holograms and place a life-sized person in front of your television set by the bending of light beams, and you could not tell if that person was alive unless you would place your hand in the light beam. "This could also be how the Anti-Christ will do it, seeing that the word image as in image of the Beast is translated from the Greek "eikon", where we get the word icon from – check your Strongs or Crosswalk Greek interlinear. Gosshorn continues, "'An image of the Beast...' It will have a ghost-form of life. The technology can take on spirit' ... these systems will have knowledge bases. This means that you can talk to it and ask it questions. It stores the knowledge of the experts...knowledge is now doubling every three years...There is no way mankind can keep up with the doubling of knowledge like this. So they are building knowledge-based systems... You can buy the product for your home computer and eventually this image system can be plugged in and you can talk to this knowledge. You will also be able to interact with it. Larry Gosshorn continues, "In January, an article appeared in The Wall Street Journal. The article revealed that the first product is now hitting the market. It is called "artificial reality." You put on gloves and glasses and interact with this system. You become a part of the system. Timothy O'Leary said, "This is further out than any LSD trip you can ever imagine." There is one that is porno where lust comes out of it so great that people could interact with these images in a lust activity." This sick computer devilry will not only make you be in connection with A.I or other human spirits, but devils; it would have evolved in what is seen in the Matrix but your soul disembodies into a computer generated environment coated into your avatar interacting with other disembodied beings.

The movie "Demolition Man" portrays this sex holographic contraption when Sylvester Stallone, having beam into the future by cryogenics, decides to have sex with the co-star. She then got out some equipment for them to have sex with the mind. He asked in utter confusion what was this, she said that's how we do it now. He frustratingly asked why, what about the old fashion way. She said that they were countless STD's now out there that people stop having sex the normal way and did it this way. She then said to him that in your time it was Aids, gonorrhea, etc, but after a certain period then came this and that until it was too risky to have sex. He asked how then do you have babies. She replied that it was done by going to the hospital and carry out a procedure similar to test tube conceptions. This was a movie, which usually patterns what they want to do. How far it gets I don't know but by this simple rational you see that it can seem feasible and with the babies, they simple want to grow them rather than have you have them – another long story away from immediate technology. Larry Gosshorn concluded about this coming techno environment by saying, "All they will be packaging up satan's way in a new form which will deceive all mankind." You are always at the mercy of the one who controls the house or more precisely, the environment.

3. You become the Technology: This includes cyborgs, which we dealt with earlier. But it also involves computer inserts, which might be the mark of the Beast. Then there is a new trend that is introduced, which many don't realize will ensnare them – that is, techno clothes or wearable technology. One person describes this as, "technology will fuse with the human form." This article by David Pescovitz, a talented writer for several magazines, will shed some light on what this is. This article also indirectly suggests that this could also be or is apart of the mark of beast – though the scriptures clearly states that we shall receive it in our hands or forehead, but not how; because they also a device that can digitally tattoo a number to your skin. David Pescovitz writes:

"BODY TECH"

"Less than 30 years later, cell phones are practically comparable with Dick Tracy's wrist radio, and handheld personal digital assistants have nearly made the Filofax obsolete. Meanwhile, Levi Strauss & Co., Nike, and even IBM are putting a fashionable face on totable technology.

Combine wireless Internet access with a just announced full-blown PC the size of a matchbox and new eyeglasses rigged with a tiny video display, and you can search an online restaurant guide to find the best vegetarian dim sum as you see the sights in Chinatown. Or comparison-shop online while you're browsing in a brick-and-mortar retailer. Or add a tiny video camera and stream your child's fun in the park to your spouse stuck at work. And that's just what you can do today. In the foreseeable future is technology under development at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) Media Laboratory that enables your body to act as the conduit for your own Personal Area Network. Imagine, you shake hands with someone and instantly exchange digital business cards, which are stored in tiny computers hidden in the soles of your shoes-the data streamed as low-power electricity right through your body. Inspector Gadget, meet the Six Million Dollar Man. "Instead of intelligent highways, smart rooms, smart floors and smart television sets, we should consider having 'smart people,'" says Steve Mann, a professor at the University of Toronto and pioneer of wearable computing. I briefly met Mann in person several years ago; his reputation preceded him. I had heard tales of a small group at the MIT Media Lab, where Mann studied, who nearly all their waking hours wore headgear rigged with small screens and cameras controlled by bulky belts packed with sensors, microprocessors and batteries. They were exploring issues of constant connectivity, electronic surveillance, and what they called "augmented reality," online information continuously streamed into their field of view. Mann told me that he was designing "second-brain devices that were true extensions of the mind and body." In casual conversation with me, Mann seemed chronically distracted-either I bored him, or he was checking his e-mail, or both. Ironically, he came across as more machine than, well, Mann. And the feeling of alienation I was flooded with when we spoke was certainly something to reckon with. Today wearable-computing contraptions have shrunk tremendously, yet the issues of techno-etiquette, privacy and human-computer interaction that Mann and his colleagues have raised are bigger than ever....

So it's interesting to think about how the design of future devio could be less intrusive." One way to do that, Donath suggests, is to take a step back from technofetishism, in this case technology for technology's sake, and ask basic psychological questions about how we use the devices we already own. For example what is it about a wearable computer as simple as a cell phone that we find so annoying? Answer: people talking on them. And therein lies the irony. The very act of withdrawing from the public space in order to take a call is also an act of intrusion. Chatting on the go is one thing, but running into an on call mobile worker at a party is a whole different story. Quite simply, you can't have two conversations at once. Or can you? Text messaging, where short missives are fired back and forth wirelessly via pagerlike devices or cell phones, is extremely successful in Europe and Asia, Donath notes. Handheld e-mail devices from Motorola and Research in Motion are available in this country as well, and make use of tiny keyboards and small LCD screens as interfaces. On the recent crop of Web-enabled cell phones, you input text by scrolling through the characters on the keypad. The practical beauty of these devices is that during your down time in public spaces you can keep the channels of communication open without tuning out the world around you. The design challenge then is to develop the ultimate input device for wearable computers. Michael Jenkins, Xybernaut's vice president and chief technology officer, foresees scenarios like a homeowner reading instructions for building a deck via an eyeglass display instead of running indoors to rewind the home-improvement video. But he's quick to point out that "you're not going into a bar on a Friday night wearing this thing."

You would though-if the gear weren't too geeky. Instead of uploading the directions to your deck, envision accessing a digital address book complete with digital snapshots to your wearable device. You run into someone at the pub who seems to know you quite well, but you're drawing a total blank on their name. A tiny video camera built into your eyeglasses snaps their mug and the PC scans your database until it matches their face. Instantly, a secret reminder pops up in the corner of your eye with a reminder of who you're talking to and how they know you. But before video cameras and eyeglasses with onboard screens become hip fashion accessories, product designers must destroy the stigma associated with wearing your technology on your sleeve. That's one idea behind ICD+ {which stands for Industrial Clothing Division}, a new line of clothing from jeans giant Levi's and Philips Electronics that merges utility wear with wearable computing. The ICD+ line launched four jackets for on-the-job urban nomads. Each style which are sort of Mad Max meets Carhart is tricked out with a cell phone, an MP3 player and a chest-mounted remote control enabling easy operation. The devices are linked by wiring in the coat's lining so that each bit of electronics works hand-in-hand with the rest. For instance, when a call comes in, the volume of music from the MP3 device automatically lowers. Each coat is targeted to a specific industry-the all climate Producer jacket, with numerous pockets, is aimed at on-the-set Hollywood types while the durable Beetle jacket is custom-built for scooter couriers on delivery trips. The clothing is planned for modularity: The jackets could link with yet-to-be-announced garments like shirts with keypads in the sleeves, for instance. Dry-clean only? Nope. The devices are removable; the wiring impervious to water. Currently, the first jackets are undergoing ER, beta-testing in Europe. Only 2,500 of the $1,000 coats were produced. If the jackets catch on, mass production paired with the ever-dropping cost of mobile electronics will likely lower the price of the ICD+ line. Regardless, the big barrier to U.S. introduction is the incompatibility between European and U.S. wireless communication networks. "Levi's is famous for developing the first workwear, the first denim jeans for the gold miners in the 1850s," says Peter Bas, Levi's brand manager for the ICD+ line. "Now with this new line we are pioneering new forms of workwear, for the new modern worker, the new gold miner." Make that data miner, the 21st century counterpart. While Levi's is using the ICD+ line to target "millennial workers"-road warriors of one sort or another-other companies are going directly for the mainstream with fashionable wearable technology. Nike is integrating MP3 players into its sportswear, and Sallsonite launched their Black Label Travel Wear line, rigged with simple devices like reading lamps and alarm clocks. Even IBM, the quintessential example of corporate geek doll, is dabbling in computer couture these days. While one division of Big Blue is collaborating with Xybernaut on the next generation of wearable computing for commercial applications, IBM's future-forward Almaden Research Center, in the heart of Silicon Valley, is developing a line of digital jewelry created by Denise Chan, a recent graduate of Stanford's School of Engineering, who hooked up with the company at a job fair. As legend has it, the idea was sparked by an out-of-character comment from Almaden Director Robert Morris, who muttered that he'd be willing to pierce his ears if it negated the need to wear a headset for mobile communication. The result? Demo devices like earrings with tiny onboard speakers and a ring with a built-in Track Point, the nipple-like cursor controller found on IBM ThinkPads. Further along are the elegant offerings of Charmed Technology, a Los Angeles firm that spun out of the MIT Media Lab to commercialize wearable-computing couture. Indeed, the CTO of the company is Thad Starner, who, along with fellow Media Lab alum Mann, the first cyborg I closely encountered, are arguably the preeminent envelope pushers in wearable computing. Currently, the company is best known for its successful series of Brave New Unwired World fashion shows which merge spacey runway fashion with wearable technology from numerous developers, including Xybernaut, Motorola and others. Their first two signature products, due out this month (2000), include the Charmed Communicator, a PC in a belt buckle with a display inside sunglasses; and the Charmed Badge, which automatically transmits its wearer's electronic business card to other users via infrared. Katrina Barillova (who formerly worked in the security surveillance industry) is the 27-Year-old Czechoslovakia born chief operating officer of Charmed. "People are afraid to look like cyborgs," she has said. "Our goal is to make technology fashionable and to incorporate these items into everyday lifestyles." While Charmed, along with Levi's, IBM and other comies, is racing toward making aesthetic improvements of today's wearable computing, the social impact of the technology's far-future applications remain largely unresolved. And the annoying symphony of cell-phone rings is just the first cue encouraging us to consider how wearable technology can become as banal as it is empowering. Extrapolate a scenario from this example: the impressively inexpensive yet conceptually advanced key-ring computer, the Japanese Lovegety. Users enter into the Tamagotchi-like device whether they're in the mood for "love," "chat," "drink" or "movie" and the Lovegety beeps whenever they're within 30 feet of another Lovegety carrying individual with whom they're "compatible." Now expand the Lovegety's preference possibilities (foreign films, loves kids, etc.) along with its range, so it can cover entire neighborhoods or even towns. "At its worst, it turns every city into a giant singles bar," Donath says. A next-generation Lovegety could bring the "Buddy Lists" of virtual chatrooms into the physical realm, providing a pleasant surprise by alerting you that your best friend happens to be the next cafe over, or tracking your child if she's lost. The key for designers is to incorporate a host of custom-control features into the product, enabling you to block what information you'd like to broadcast and to pick and choose who receives it. "Wearable computers are not handcuffs," Pratt says. "No one forces you to wear them."

True, but even if you're not wearing one they still can make you feel like a prisoner of the datasphere. Take the research of ph.D. candidate Bradley Rhodes at the MIT Media Lab. Rhodes has designed a system he calls a Remembrance Agent, a program that continuously "watches over the shoulder" of the wearer of a wearable computer and displays one-line summaries of notes, files, old e-mail, papers and other text information that might be helpful to the user at any given moment. The benefits of having a Remembrance Agent in your peripheral vision are enormous. Picture wandering around a museum and having background on each artifact you see automatically pop into view. Or the notes from a talk someone gave that you saw several years ago displayed in your peripheral vision the instant you shake that person's hand in real life. Now imagine meeting a person wearing a Remembrance Agent system at a dinner party. As soon as your name is entered into his wearable computer, either transmitted by the likes of a Charmed Badge, or entered manually, a full web search of you begins. The problem (actually, not a problem), is that a person is much more than their home page, resume or list of favorite films. "The physical world around us has lots of information in it that we are subconsciously picking up," Donath says. "When we add a whole new data-stream, we really need to think about how we control it, especially when you could be paying attention to it later. Otherwise, you may lose a lot of subtle, hard-to-articulate information if you're looking at a person's Web site instead of into their eyes." Turning off the Remembrance Agent may be akin to dispensing with a built-in bullshit detector. But you can always do your Web search after the party ends, instead of missing out on the very things that make us yearn for real-world interaction to begin with. "I'm curious to what extent people are going to adapt to these new devices as opposed to the devices' adapting to , our existing mores." Donath adds. And, lest we forget, there's always the "off" switch." [Who will control that is the Anti-Christ and his forces, be careful you're not deceived. The mere fact you have a "real" cell phone suggests that you have already begun in the deception.]

All three aspects of technology are working together, complimentary to each other or even vital to the other. The purpose is to deceive and ensnare the soul. We will later find out that the UFO phenomenon is a ploy by satan and his angels. I said that because I want to make a quote by Jaques Valle about Modern technology, he is the most renowned astro-physicist. He said, "I believe there is a machinery of mass manipulation behind the UFO phenomenon...they are helping create a new belief system...they are designed to help change belief systems, and that the technology we observe is only the incidental support for a world-wide enterprise of subliminal seduction." Or, in essence, deception. My suggestion is that "having food and raiment let us be therewith content" (1 Tim 6:8).

Because gain is not godliness but “But godliness with contentment is great gain” (1 Tim 6:6). Another thing, this is a great distraction from God and the techno fad chasers are ensnaring their own souls and others unawares. Remember, most things around us that are demonology will never look that way, that’s why the bible keeps telling us that the devil “deceive the nations” – that is, masked the evil with convenience and benefits.

SECRET AGENTS

You’ll notice many secret agent movies in the cinemas; popularized from the early days of James Bond. Unknown to many is that from the time of their induction, satan has used this to cover up his secret agents and subtly plans. One ex-satanist confessed that he was assigned to start many secret agencies and fraternities to fight Christianity; they were to look normal on the outside that even Christians would join them. Shows like MIIB or Agent Cody Banks are another such contraptions, the inductee will feel special and honored (elitism) upon joining; as if to say it’s a special privilege you were chosen to serve. Sooner than later they will begin to do things they have no clue they are doing, all in an attempt to ensnare men’s lives. They’ll be led to think that a person is the enemy and a danger to society, when in fact they are a born again believer or a threat to a satanic agenda; much like the show “Big Momma” with Martin Lawrence. One commercial for a federal agent movie herald this theme when an older agent had this to say to a new questioning inductee, “I was paid to... not to ask questions.” In other words, most go blindly into these agencies not knowing that they are ‘fronts’ for forces of evil. Hollywood plays a major role in diverting the public from believing these things aren’t harmful because the devil knows that “nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad” (Lk 8:17). So like the woman with the familiar spirit who mocked Paul with the truth (Acts 16:17-18), he has to subtly bring it out so as to pacify it before it is revealed or made manifest.

This sect use a lot of technology and gadgets, many of them aren’t on the market. Here is a sample of what one ex-satanist saw in the underworld as an outright satanic agent, “I went into the scientific laboratories to see what was happening. I saw psychiatrists and scientists all working very seriously. The work of these scientists is to design beautiful things like flashy cars etc., latest weapons and to know the mystery of this world. I moved into the designed room and there I saw many samples of cloth, perfumes and assorted types of cosmetics. All these things according to [satan] are to distract men's attention from the Almighty God. I also saw different designs of electronics, computers and alarms.” Secret agents technologies are similar to that of outright Satanists, which can be seen in their mind control systems and mechanical inserts.

MIND CONTROL

Many prominent Christian and world figures are mind control victims used for satanic agendas. Even Billy Graham confessed he is a “captive.” My prayer goes out to him and many like him, because they don’t know what they are doing out of sincerity or configured to be sincere. They can hardly break free from it because they were in the program from a baby and their life script was written to that end: from the schools they went to, to the person they should marry. Believe you me, it would take forever to explain this program but two men adept in it wrote this book “The Illuminati Formula Used to Create an Undetectable Total Mind Controlled Slave,” check the references at the end to see how you might obtain it. But Notice the word “undetectable,” meaning, most times the victims doesn’t know they are programmed. For instance, most NASA employees are victims of this (if not an angel), cited here from a quote in the book:

“By tearing down the muscle fiber by overexertion, the body rebuilds the muscle stronger. By scarring the brain stem, it -was discovered that geniuses who had photographic memories could be created. Brain stem scarring was used to create the whiz kids that the NWO needed to run their big computers. For instance, the computers that just NASA alone uses require people who can work in ALGOL, BASIC, COBOL, COBOL 74, MULTICS COBOL ver. 4.4, COBOL Cb.4, COBOL CP-6, BOL, EULOR, FLIP, FORAST, FORTRAN, HAL/S, Illiac 4, JASP, JOSS, JOVIAL, /LYAPAS, LISP, LISP 2, /MAP/, NuSpeak, PASCAL, PEARL, /PLACE/, PL/1, PL/1-APAREL, PLANIT, Praxis, SA Machine Language, SEMANOL, SNOBEL, UNIX, WANG, ZBIE. It takes a good memory to remember computer languages and programming. These whiz kids, who were both programmed with Monarch Mind Control programming and had their brain stems scarred can be seen in some of the University computer departments and the intelligence/military agencies’ computers rooms. The CIA, which has had an ongoing project to create them, has called them “Compu-kids.” Another example of where compu-kids (slaves with scarred brain stems) work on big computers (incl. a Beast computer) is at Area 51 (Dreamland), NV.” Doing this to them is actually making them mutants with superhuman intelligence; much like the character “Beast” in the X-men cartoon but without the outward beast mutation.

HOPE

Monarch Mind control started years ago, much like witches, mutants, Satanists, agents, exchange children, to a lesser extent cyborgs and coercive technologies. In the bible we see King Nebuchadnezzar capturing the brightest of the Hebrew children. He enrolled them in the school of the Chaldeans and magicians to brain wash them in Babylonian culture and sorcery (Dan 1:3-5). Then he would set them up throughout his kingdom as puppets over his providence. But God had four Hebrew boys among them who did not conform to Babylonian idolatry. That is, Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. These men or boys stood in the face of the wicked forms of persecution and were victorious, all because they believed in God (Dan 6:23).

Though the methods are different today, with inserts and shockers placed in the groin and even implants in the brain, God still can do it again as he did with these four Hebrew boys. The mere fact I’m writing this to you proves that, because I’ve been a victim of one or more of these category yet still I’m still lifting up the name of Jesus. Have you ever bare killer pains in your groin to try and prevent you from lifting up Jesus? Have you ever had these forces try to split your mind to make even a ping drop maddening? I’ve been through all this and more and even now experience some of it, yet still I’m lifting up the name of Jesus! God promises to give “Love, power and a sound mind,” to those that are born again. Something having health, wealth, stability and education cannot replace. Something that is bigger than all the evils mentioned and surpasses their greatness. Something all of us need to escape the much evil that is around us. Something you need! And something that you can have, call to him today!

FALLEN ANGELS IN ACTION

So far we have dealt with the devices and props of the enemy mainly through people, especially humans that have given themselves to satanism. But where did it all start? What is the essence of it? As stated before, "we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph 6:2). So as emphasized strongly, this battle is spiritual and therefore originated with spirits. That is, with satan and his angels. But who are these angels? Didn't God bind all the fallen angels who sin with women (Jude 1:6)? Obviously not all of them were bound and probably not all of them at the time sinned after this manner. But one thing is for sure, Satan doesn't work alone; and the devils that are mentioned throughout the Bible are referring to fallen angels.

Devils are spirits with greater intelligence than humans, as even Jesus spoke with them (Mr 5:9). Which other being beside man did God create with intelligence, much more, greater than that of men? Angels! However, 1/3 of them fell with satan and some are still with him; and as the Bible said, he and them that deceived the nations will be cast into the lake of fire at the end of time - Revelation 12:9. By that verse alone you should know that devils or fallen angels are the spirits working with satan (2 Cor 11:15). It's hard to associate the word devil with the word angel, because to us angels are brilliant wonderful creatures. However, the word devil means "accusers;" nothing more. To have access to do their evil, they send their representative, satan, to accuse the brethren before God (Rev 12:10). In Job 1:6 we get a glimpse of this political scene in heaven; "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." When God said, "Whence comest thou" he was saying, 'where are you coming from, give your report (including accusation).' Satan then answered that he was in the domain of the earth. So his report would be about humans. If he was in another part of heaven he would give his report against angels. He and his brethren were like a bad case of 'tell tale.' And most often, to make his accusation he had to cause the brethren to sin, as seen with Adam.

The problem that preachers have is that while in heaven these angels had ranking and they were also different kinds - cherubim, seraphim, arch angels and others. When they fell the ranking and variations didn't change. That's why Paul listed them as such "principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." And that's the reason why Jesus said, "this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting"(Matt 17:21), indirectly recognizing the different rankings of spirits. These groups of ranking are diverse and they are possibly more ranks than we know. They are the leaders of the human groups mentioned in the previous chapters: that is, satanists, witches, wizards, mind control victims and all wickedness on earth.

It might seem hard to visualize these glorious creatures dropping from heavenly abode to dwell amongst men. However, for clarity, take this fallen cherub; not a mere angel but a cherub. He was the ruler of a nation (as many are) and he is most often confused with satan in scripture. But the Bible makes it clear that they are "princes of this world" (I Cor 2:6-8), suggesting many high ranking devils like satan who dwell with men in prominence and power; both physically and spiritually. It reads, “Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee. Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee” (Eze 28:12-18).

What God had Ezekiel to do was to prophesy against a few nations and their rulership in Ezeiel 26 and onwards, indirectly speaking of the coming terror by Assyria and especially King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. A good length was taken to prophesy against Tyrus, because it exalted itself against Israel and its rulership exceedingly magnified itself against God. Its rulership wasn't merely a man but it consists of the angelic beings. Remember, the verse did say, “Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD ... Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God.” This particular head ruler of this rich island city was a cherub. Cherub are greater in might to angels, they have four faces, four to six wings, wheels and eyes all over. This particular cherub corrupted himself by the richness of Tyrus and even opts to allow his prince (his fleshly form) to declare himself a ‘God’ (Eze 28:2). It's not a strange thing for God to use men to prophesy against angels; even though the knowledge of them was more known then, than now. For instance, after this particular Cherub was vehemently prophesied against, the following verse said, “All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more” (Eze 28:2). But they are angels and mighty, that's why God in the Commandment laws said, “Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people” (Ex 22:28). Not in regarding them, but like saying don't tease/trouble the lions. He himself said in a few verses later, “make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth” (Ex 23:13).

In other words, they were humans who knew that angels and cherubim ruled as gods and men in the earth. Today we are too distracted to see that the affairs of the earth are greatly influenced by angelic forces. It's still puzzling to see a cherub, of all God's creatures, to fall and corrupt himself with the merchandize of the earth; makes you wonder, could men like Ted Turner, Bill Gates, Proctor and Gamble, Meryll Lynch, Jack Welch, Donald Trump, Larry Ellison, John Rockefeller, Ross Perot, The Waltons, Phillip Knight (owner of the goddess named company Nike), Warren Buffet, Oprah Winfrey and all great men of merchandise or influence in the world be one of these fallen beings. Remember, if cherubim manifests themselves as is, you could not look upon them; they having four different faces, four wings, wheels and eyes all over. So then, they would have to be in a normal human form. In Gen 6 when angels first corrupted themselves with mankind, they were men of renown.

Also, the King of Tyrus is not isolated; Roman Emperors like Caligula and Domitian proclaim themselves to be God also. Domitian called himself “God and Lord.” Caesar himself declared himself God and people were to offer him incenses. Polycarp choose death than saying Caesar is Lord (Martyrdom of Polycarp, 8:2). Another source stated, "Christianity is to be regarded as a rebellious and disintegrating movement, and so it was regarded by most of the emperors...the persecution of Diocletian (303) was indeed the growing struggle of the old idea of the god-emperor against the already great and powerful organization that denied his divinity...the test in the persecution was that the Christian was required to offer sacrifice to the emperor" (The Outline of History, pg 516, H.G Wells, Macmillan Company, New York). Here we see the fallen angels as men again, but being rebel angels often attempt to bully men to worship them, directly as in the pass or indirectly somehow, to the point that possible all men/women of influence, fame or power in the world are angels in flesh. According to Kenneth C. Davis in the book, "Don't Know much about the Bible," he wrote, "the biblical passage then calls the offspring of these angelic-human marriages, the Nephilim, the 'heroes' that were of old, warriors or renown. Mentioned only once again in Hebrew Scriptures, the Nephilim, which literally translate as 'the fallen ones.'" In other words, proving that these are fallen angels in flesh, clearly recognized by Jews and persons living in that time, unfortunately, like the word Yahovah for God was masked as Lord and God, Nephilim is masked as giants, "Sons of God" and others. With the masking, the truth of the matter can't easily be seen. These perpetrate themselves as gods in the earth, whether as a human in flesh or in spirit form.

However, it must also be noted that God commanded us several times to "not fear other gods" (2 Kings 17:35-38), regardless of how terrible they may come across. "Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell" (Matt 10:28). "Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows" (Lk 12:7).

PRINCIPALITIES

"Principalities are second in command to Satan. They are Satan's lieutenants. Principalities are fallen angels who were very close to angels like Gabriel and Michael before the fall. They are powerful and intelligent creatures before and after the fall. Among top principalities are Demons of Death and Demons of Hell" (Pastor Joseph).

POWERS

"Powers are demons next in command to principalities. They are also powerful and carry out the activities with a profound deceit. They have the serpent's wisdom but not a dove's peaceful nature. The powers are assigned to men and women in authority since they are also authorities. They try to control the head of nations [or be it themselves]" (Pastor Joseph).

RULERS OF THE DARKNESS OF THIS WORLD

These "control human minds and use human beings as agents of destruction. The demons of power use economy, intellect and policies to fight people through their government or rulers. The rulers of darkness use force, violence and physical destruction to fight people through their rulers. Rulers of the darkness of this world use three areas of man's life which were used on Jesus during his temptations and on Adam...'the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye and the pride of life'" (Pastor Joseph).

SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES

"The most wicked in operation. These demons are highly powerful because they use human beings as agents of operations. Spiritual Wickedness operates directly through human beings. They are indeed wicked" (Pastor Joseph). They form and lead all the human arms of satan: satanists, witches, spirit mediums, illuminati, masons and more. Their most common appearance is what is referred to as familiar spirits. "Familiar spirits are demonic forces operating through human beings who are their members. They imitate the dead and make predictions. They include necromancers and ventriloquists." What people refer to as Ghosts are actually familiar spirits who have shown themselves in an attempt to deceive or cause hazard through fear.

GHOSTS

When persons have recorded that their relatives who have died has visited them, it's most often these familiar spirits imitating the dead. Familiar Spirits "(Fallen angels) can take on any form they please, even appearing as angels of light. The deceptive rebel angels often appear to humans in SEEMINGLY benign guises: as the enlightening angel to Mohammed, as the angel Moroni to Joseph Smith, in disguise as the Virgin Mary in apparitions, and disguised as Enlightening Alien Space Brothers" (David Flynn). Just from the term "Holy Ghost," which is referring to the Spirit Of God, we see that Ghost simple means a spirit; not necessarily dead people or some monster TV portraits. However, there is one instance in the bible where human spirits or Ghost walked among men, "And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose ... and appeared unto many" (Matt 27:52-53). This happened when Jesus was crucified and only saints were released at the time. But generally, when someone dies they go to a holding place awaiting the final resurrection. They can neither communicate nor appear unto the living. Therefore those who manifest as Ghost or appear as dead relatives are really evil spirits or fallen angels. TV Shows like "Beyond" with spirit mediums trick people in thinking they are communicating with dead people when devils have them wrapped up in Satanism. Another such evil manifestation is reincarnation. This is said to first come from the eastern religions who worship many deities or fallen angels. If they came in flesh to dwell with their adherents or for any reason, when the flesh grows old and dies, seeing that they are spirits that live on until judgment, couldn't they not come in the next generation as they often do? So reincarnation is only an angel carrying on their fleshly existence. When a human dies he goes straight to the grave unable to surface the earth (Lk 16:19-31).

So, in the light of these four groups, when Paul said we wrestle against "principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness of this world and spiritual wickedness in high places," he was saying we wrestle against fallen angels; those that dwell in the heavenlies and those that dwell on earth.

"WATCHERS" AND "HOLY ONES"

Daniel 4:13 records, "I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven." In other words, two beings or angels descended from the sky. One was distinct from the other in that one was a "watcher" and the other a "Holy One." If one is Holy it meant that the other is not. Who could this other type of angel be that is not Holy but descended from the sky? Believe it or not, "watchers" are fallen angels. When God kicked them out of heaven, he kicked them out of his abode (in what some call the first heaven) to the outer skies of the earth (in what many refer to as the second or third heaven). They aren't holy any more because they aren't inline with God, but they still are powerful beings; who by tricking Adam have assumed our place as gods of the earth (2 Cor 4:4). One ex-satanist visited this domain and as I presume many other satanists have. He wrote, "I had now become a part and parcel of the spirit world and could at will [go] to any part of the world. According to the books I brought, spirit beings are living in space... I came out of my house, made some incantations and called the wild wind and disappeared. I found myself in space and saw these spirit beings" (E. Eni). Which other being in the heavenlies would relate "favorably" with a satanists? "Watchers" or Fallen Angels. This verse, speaking of Israel, gives us why they are watchers and not holy ones, "the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil" (Jer 11:15). So then, they ceased to be holy when they rebelled with satan; as even the Lord said this to a fallen cherub, "Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee" (Eze 28:15). In other words, sin is what made them unholy, it separated them from God and they became watchers.

The only other book with frank reference to watchers is the Book of Enoch; which is the only apocryphal (Pseudepigrapha) book to be quoted in the New Testament. The Book of Jude tells us in vs. 14 that "Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied..." Jude also, in vs. 15, makes a direct reference to the Book of Enoch (2:1), where he writes, "to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly..." Therefore, Jude's reference to the Enochian prophecies strongly leans toward the conclusion that these written prophecies were available to him at that time. However, to prevent us from gleaning from its content, it has been severely tampered with; laden with many inconsistencies and what some call occultic. This and many other books became discredited after the Council of Laodicea. But sifting through garbage to find content can be attained. The quotes from it I want to give reads:

"Enoch, thou scribe of justice, go, announce to the watchers of heaven, who have left the high heaven and the holy, eternal place, and have contaminated themselves with women from now on ye will not ascend into heaven to all eternity, and upon earth, it has been decreed, they shall bind you for all the days of the world...bind them under the hills of the earth...till the day of their judgment and of their end, till the last judgment has been passed for all eternity."

"The Holy and Mighty One, the God of the world: Who will hereafter tread upon Mount Sinai; appear with his hosts; and be manifested in the strength of his power from heaven. All shall be afraid, and the Watchers be terrified" (Chapt 1:3-5).

So then, watchers are fallen angels. How is it that they seem to be in harmony with the Holy Ones? They aren't really. Why they seemed to be in harmony was because of Nebuchadnezzar's prideful ness. He was exalting himself above measure. Everything must be done "in decency and in order," even in realms we don't understand. That's why God rebuked Job and said, "Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven?" (Job 38:33). In other words, there is an order to the heavens and most of the wrestlings and conflicts are more political in nature at first. When God decided to cut down King Nebuchadnezzar for his presumptions, he did it in order. He gave the word to the Holy Ones, the Holy Ones gave the order to the watchers (fallen angels in Adam sted) and the watchers decreed it on earth and it is carried it out. This verse in Daniel expounds on it, "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men" (Dan 4:17). Though the Holy Ones are greater in might to the watchers because they dwell in the present of God, they had to demand it. God have always indirectly used the watchers (Ps 78:49) and will indirectly use the most rebellious of them in the future (Rev 9:14), but as seen throughout scriptures, they know their time and end (Matt 8:29, Lk 22:53, Jude 1:13).

Nevertheless, from the watchers were kicked out from the first heaven there has been contention in the heavenlies. This was greatly heightened when John began to preach, because Jesus was coming. By this the Holy Ones in heaven would have no accuser against them before God in the Heavenly type of Sanhedrin; as Luke said, "peace in heaven" (Lk 19:38). The watchers also knew that this savior was coming to mankind to redeem them of their position in God as Holy "Sons of Elohim" or rightful gods of the earth (Ps 82:6); making watchers lose whatever godship they had of the earth and its atmosphere. In other words, God was sending a replacement for Adam, who would have been the first human god, hadn't he fall. And that's why Jesus is not only the second Adam but as the scripture said "the Last Adam." Meaning, he came and recreated humanity by us being born again, making us no longer subject to watchers (satan and his angels) but rightful rulers of the earth; which will be soon realized on his second return!

FALLEN ANGELS AS gODS

"Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service [slaves] unto them which by nature are no gods. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years" (Gal 4:8).

"By nature are no gods," means they weren't legally initiated as gods; God didn't directly give them this authority as "god of this world" (2Cor 4:4). They stole it by tricking Adam to sin and through our ignorance want us to give them reverence. That's the reason the Lord had me expound on the pagan Holidays in the newsletter (Christmas, Easter, Valentines Day, etc), which are glorifying these fallen angels who are mystified as Greek gods; also preserved in things like the horoscope (the stars), New Ageism and Neo-pagan culture. By celebrating these holidays you are honoring gods who "are no gods" that shall perish; gods who are the "work of error" and in due time God Almighty shall deal with them for polluting humanity. Jeremiah 10:11 & 15 explains this: "thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens...They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish." Isaiah himself alluded to this in prophecy, "all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host [watchers] shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. For my sword shall be bathed in heaven" (Isa 34:5).

Then they are watchers who further sinned by mingling with men. The bible said the sons of God came unto the daughters of men (Gen 6:4). Sons of God here, refers to Angelic beings most commonly known as fallen angels or "Sons of Elohim." "This has been a highly disputed passage for many years now, although it apparently was not originally. To the early Jews, this was referring to angels. For a few thousand years this was the favored interpretation, and it was not until only a few hundred years ago that rationalism and the modern mind have ruled this out as being impossible" (W. Arnold III).

Now, Angelic beings are not like humans that have reproductive organs to have human sexual relations (Matt 22:30). So it is safe to say they genetically incarnated themselves into human beings through the womb of a woman. That's why the Lord said, "My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he [fallen angels] also is flesh: ...There were giants in the earth in those days" (Gen 6:3-4). Notice why he couldn't tolerate men any longer, because these fallen ones had become them and mingled with the true seed of Adam. According to Gen. 6 they were men of renown; giants (mutants) who did evil continually. So much so, that when God saw the evil state humanity was in, He decided to send a flood. Only Noah, his wife, his sons and their wives survived. One would think that would rid the earth of them. Unfortunately, these spirit beings are souls that cannot die as Christ said in Lk 20:36. So if you kill their enfleshment they will come again in the next generation, unless both parents are truly born again; remember they don't reproduce naturally. And even though the initiators of this were bound in "chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day" (Jude 1:6; 2 Pet 2:4-5) other watchers still came and did the same thing.

We see them popping up again when the Israelites went to Canaan and saw giants. They have gotten smarter now, for to survive physically they must remain hidden, especially because of what Christ came and did for mankind (Tit 2:14). That's why the word 'occult' means hidden! Here we see two kinds of watchers, those that were kicked out of the first heaven and remain where God kicked them to (outer skies) and those that were kicked out and further rebelled by dwelling with men (Gen 6:4); that is, "the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation" (Jude 1:6). Many of the Greek Mythologies are actually stories of these two groups interacting with themselves and men, presumptuously. Things are not different today, but as the days of Noah were when this corruption was heighten, so it is now; only the outlook of it has changed.

For instance, the most renowned fallen angel is "Superman," or a type of it. He plunging to earth from another planet is symbolic of watchers falling from heaven. He keeping his identity a secret to blend in and expressing his mutant powers when he wants is symbolic of fallen angels amongst us unawares, but are actually "men of renown;" as it was back then. Movie stars, Singing stars, Diva's (or devils), Rock stars, Rap stars, Sports stars and most stars or celebrities of the earth are all fallen "stars" from heaven and you idolize them by becoming fans or fanatics to them; which is similar to worshipping them. Shows like 'American Idol' help this along greatly. This same thing was done in the bible to these same fallen stars, "Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven...Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them" (Acts 7:42-43). I saw one People magazine of an American Idol contestant they rave about and said deserving of "idol worship." The facades are changed but the intent is still the same – worship of them. At the beginning of the Movie "High Lander," I re-watched the other day, the opening song typified who some of these immortals are and what they want, "I am immortal...here we are, born to be Kings...come to be the rulers of your world."

Some even have their own bobble head dolls, posters, pin-ups, cards, statues, etc., - all "figures which ye made to worship them." No wonder "that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God" (Lk 16:15). The word abomination literally means "disgusting." Most of these stars live in 'Los Angeles' or in my interpretation, 'Lost Angels.' And with their Hollywood deceptions, "hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2 Co4:4).

ALIENS OR UFO's

Satan is Prince of the Power of the Air, Lord of those that Fly, Interdimensional intelligence behind UFO manifestations and alien encounters. You don't even have to have spiritual insight to know this. Jacques Valle, the world's most renowned astro-physicist said, "UFO's are real but probably not physical: they are apart of some evil scheme for the victimization of humans and one of their major purposes is to manipulate human consciousness to program mankind for some ultimate deception." Here are three other quotes that echoes the same thing:

"[The occultist] is brought into intelligent communication with the spirits of the air, and can receive any knowledge which they possess, or any false impressions they choose to impart...the demons seem permitted to do various wonders at their request." - G.H.Pember, "Earth's Earliest Ages and Their Connection with Modern Spiritualism and Theosophy" (1876)

"UFO behaviour is more akin to magic than to physics as we know it... the modern UFOonauts and the demons of past days are probably identical." - Dr. Pierre Guerin, FSR Vol. 25, No. 1

"The UFO manifestations seem to be, by and large, merely minor variations of the age old demonological phenomenon..." - John A. Keel, "UFOs: Operation Trojan Horse"

Much of the UFO activity in the public forum has been designed by the beings pretending to be "aliens" to convey a seemingly benign agenda. Conspicuous UFO sightings occurred at the advent of our atomic age. Further sightings occurred at air force bases with nuclear capabilities in the 1970's in which all control of the weapons was lost, and trajectories were reprogrammed. These encounters were staged to show that nonhumans were in control of such weapons of destruction. Conceivably, having such capabilities, if they were going to destroy humans or take over the earth, they would have done so already. By feigning a disinclination towards domination, the nonhumans are promoting a seemingly peaceful agenda, fitting in to the New Age Globalist "Star Trek" paradigm.

In their dealings with humans, the beings disguised as aliens have offered several convincing rationalizations as to why the upper echelons of government should befriend the extraterrestrials. They claim to be a physically weakened race that merely needs to join their DNA with more integral human DNA to survive, that they are refugees from a dying planet who need the help of sympathetic earthlings.

Currently, the group of beings referred to as "aliens" are portraying themselves as disparate elements of the paranormal; though some portray them hostile. Aliens, walk-ins, ascended masters, the hidden hierarchy, spirit guides, channeled beings and natural forces like Gaia, are all imparting a similar message of impending disaster and a need for all of humanity to unite. The "aliens" claim to be preparing the earth for a massive evolutionary shift of consciousness, a paradigm shift, while also continuing the education that they maintain is crucial if the human race is to be spared destruction. The nonhuman intelligences are feigning good intentions by warning humans of their potential fate, and the offer to assist humans is all but altruistic in that it is designed to unite mankind under a global authority, with their candidate on the Throne of the World.

The beings disguised as "aliens" have a plausible explanation as to why, against the odds, they evolved to look humanoid, why they would take such an interest in helping humankind, and why the government should support their plan to live in underground military bases for now, conducting secret experiments and gradually getting the public used to the idea of aliens, so as not to cause mass panic and hysterical backlash.

The beings pretending to be aliens have had thousands, even millions of years to implement their deception. Ingeniously, these nonhumans have used that time to insinuate, into every culture, references to an elder race who have long been guiding humans (Nephilim Genesis 6, Annunaki, White Brotherhood, etc).

CLONES

Another deception of these fallen ones is cloning.

Cloning like the UFO phenomena is a hoax and creation of the devil. Yes, on earth it would seem to be run by humans. Who else can be an intelligent host? Cloning is underline with satanic conspiracy written all over it. Its deception is possible and it's meant to discredit creation, the bible, Christianity and thus God.

Cloning provides necessary earth suits for evil spirits (fallen angels). Devils, imps, fallen angels, Beelzebub or whatever you might call them, cannot operate or have legal access to earth without an earth suit or human body. Even worse, these spirits are quite fed up with the Christian remnant that has continued to cast them out of occupied bodies. Sounds bizarre, read on.

Jesus in one of his narration likens the body to a house. He said, "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none" (Matt 12:43). In other words, devils live on earth through humans. Their kingdom is in the air and satan is the opposition ruler of that kingdom or the "prince of the power of the air." When Satan and his friends were cast down to earth, they weren't necessarily cast down to land, for the sky and air space around the globe is considered apart of the earth; many angelic scriptures in the bible put their kingdom above the earth but not in the heaven of heavens where God lives. Some theologians call this the second or third heaven.

God gave man dominion over the land area of the earth, but reserved the outer skies for his own purpose, which is not known fully. For he himself said to job, "knowest thou the ordinances of the heavens? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?" (Job 38:33). The word "heavens" here, from the original language usually mean sky, in this case it does. Not only that, but the two rhetorical questions ask by God shows two different realms of kingdom: "heavens" and "earth."

Through Jesus Christ, man has regained the dominance of earth, fully realized upon his return. Therefore, since kings (born again believers) have regained their kingdom, we have all power to kick out our unwanted guests; not just in others but in ourselves also. It is written, "In my name shall they cast out devils" (Mr 16:17).

Because of this Christian virus spreading dilemma to the devil, cloning has become like "butter on toast bread." Instead of co-habituating with rebellious humans who can be delivered, they would have a fresh breed of bodies to do with as they like. Remember, only God can breathe the breath of life or create a soul (Zec 12:1). So all cloning does is create a fully functional body for a spirit to operate. Where will that spirit come from? From satan, his cohorts or his captives; I don't know if A.I's will work but who can tell. It would be as if man created life, when in fact, by devilish ingenuity they have copied God's creation and place a devil in it to make it look and feel like the real thing.

Cloning then fosters an all too deceptive plan engineered by devils. Hollywood again plays a leading role in this development as it will entice and lessen the reality of the evils of cloning. When this plan culminates and humans are less needed for earth suits, we would then see the real "Attack of the clones!" Or "'Star' wars"; that is, fallen stars (angel) in war.

Someone might cite the scenario of Sodom and Gomorrah where the two angels were in bodily form. Notice, that they were God's 'good' angels. In other words, if God sent them, could he not make a body for them or give them that ability or right. Paul also encouraged us to entertain strangers, just in case we might entertain an angel. Again this points to God's angels, because Paul would not encourage us to entertain devils. Nowhere in the bible it stated or implied devils (fallen angels) having their own bodies to function on earth "legally." It either has to be borrowed, stolen, fused in the womb or cloned. And I believe cloning has been going on by the devil for years. You would be surprised at the testimony I read of a Satanist who gave graphic details of his visit to Satan's kingdom in the air and his laboratories under the sea. I would rather you be less reserved to this evil. Be Careful you are not deceived.

THE MOVIE MATRIX

Many movies and programs typify fallen angels and satanic themes subtly; for example, mutant X, X-men, Super Man, Star Gate, City of Angels and many others. But no other movie do it so subtly and enticing as 'The Matrix'.

I watched this movie late 2002, wasn't really a fan of television and still isn't. However, my cousin kept nagging me for months to see this movie and so one day in his room he showed it to me in his play station 2. When the opening scene started I laughed him to scorn as he really felt ashamed, but I couldn't help it, "this is what you wanted me so bad to watch, a woman in a black tight suit thinking she can do Kung Fu." However, I settled down and he convinced me to watch the rest. I then became hooked, I thought what ingenuity, who devised this plot. I didn't get much from it then, except that I knew something was behind it. Being fascinated, I watched it another time later, probably early 2003. But it wasn't until I watched it the third time in May 2003, as every T.V station was carrying it because part 2 was coming out, then I realized the many deception that it holds. This was the conclusion that I shared with many:

As with most Television programs, we are forced to choose a bad guy and a good guy – between mutant and mutant, gunslinger and gunslinger, bad cop and good cop or as it all boils down to between thief and robber. This is a spy versus spy (mad magazine) delusion, a T.V programming where the viewers are psychologically forced in choosing between evil and evil and thus govern their lives through this way of thinking; by their choice. This is also the delusion with the matrix.

Neo is actually a representative of the Neo Paganism or New Ageism. New Agers world wide are all looking for and working to bring about this New Age Christ; much like Neo. Here's a quote from its stalwart Alice Bailey, "To enable Him today to walk among men requires a world which will have in it enough effective workers and spiritually-minded people to change the atmosphere of our planet; then and only then, the Christ can and will come." [You can find more at <http://homepages.ihug.co.nz/~newlight/roc/quotes.htm>]

But what they don't know is that this New Age Christ will be the Anti-Christ. As seen with one of the opening remarks from the guy who came to buy stolen software from Neo, he said, "You are my Jesus Christ." Or more matrixy, the chosen one. The very word Matrix is a biblical word for womb. It is found here, "That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD'S" (Ex 13:12). In other words, according to the bible usage, the first-born male who breaks the womb (matrix) of his mother is dedicated to the Lord and becomes a priest unto him. Similarly, Neo beating the matrix is symbolic of him being divine or the 'chosen one.'

Other biblical themes are used throughout the movie to fashion it perfectly for satan's deception of us accepting this New Age Christ and mimic God's plan of salvation. Morpheus naming his hovercraft Nebuchadnezzar is a representative of modern day Babylon, which is a representative of the end times. He stating that he doesn't know what time they are living in, but giving reference to the sun loosing its light is also a sign of the latter times and true Bible prophecy; Jesus said, "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light" (Mr 13:24); plus our present calendar are off-course, we literally don't know what year exactly we are in.

They, Neo's gang, calling the earth's core or central city of hope Zion, is a mimicry of the Christian's Zion. For Zion is situated in Israel where as prophesied in the Bible, a New City shall descend from the sky where Jesus shall rule the earth visible. The born again Christians shall enjoy that ruler ship with him in perpetual joy, peace and ecstasy beyond imagination. It reads, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Rev 21:4). Nevertheless, Zion can be where the heart is or where true born again Judeo-Christian believers gather.

Tank in the movie said, "if this war is over tomorrow, Zion is where the party will be." Similar to the Bible scripture above. However, notice where the Matrix's Zion is – the earth's core, where fires of lava flow. This could very well be referring to the place in the Bible as the "lake of fire;" a place of torment reserved for satan and his angels after the last war is fought between God and his saints and satan and his angels. It reads,

BEGINNING OF WAR: "And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him" (Rev 12:8-9).

END OF WAR: "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever" (Rev 20:10)

The devil and his angels know their time and know that at the end of their deceiving they will be going to the "lake of fire;" as expressed in this verse, "What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?"(Mk 8:29). So then, Neo and his gang are representatives of fallen angels or devils who awaits the "lake of fire" or the matrix's Zion.

The Bible also said that nearing the end, satan and his angels will be cast to the earth (Rev 12:8-9) and there they will fight against Israel and the church. It reads,

PRIOR TO END OF WAR: "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman [Israel] which brought forth the man child...And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed [Christians], which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Rev 12:13-17).

In other words, God kicked them out of heaven to the outer skies (Rev 12:8-9), but sometimes later near the end God kicks them out of the outer skies and bound him on earth (Rev 12:13-17); where he has no more access to the heavens. In his anger he goes after Israel and the Christians as seen in the verse above. His anger is then heightened where he bounds man under a system whereby man is forced to receive the mark of the Beast, possibly a computer chip, to enslave them to a system. But those that escape are those redeemed by Jesus, that's why he went after them. The Matrix Movie tries to portrait these redeem ones that escape the system as the rebels in Morpheus' army, but as written earlier we see that they are just fallen angels, under the spy vs. spy T.V programming for you to subtly accept the New Age Christ and accept them through technology.

During this time he will also set up his anti-Christ and/or satanic Trinity. The three agents in the movie represent this satanic Trinity that rule the matrix or world. However, as you might realize, this is where the paradox comes in; because the New Age Christ (or anti-Christ) is to be apart of the satanic Trinity. But here we see the T.V spy vs. spy programming coming into play again, where you are forced to mental choose between evil and evil. That is, Neo (New Age Christ) and the Agents (Satanic Trinity), where the New Age Christ should be apart of the Trinity. But then the paradox unravels itself when Neo raises from the bullet wounds, like Jesus' resurrection or more fittingly like the coming anti-Christ prophecy; "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast" (Rev 13:3).

Then the unraveling epitomizes when Neo jumps in Agent X and becomes him or a number in the satanic trinity. When the other two ran away is a reflection of the 'revealed Jesus Christ', who is the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Not three persons but one (Due 6:4, I Tim 3:16). But for us to grasp the mystery of the Godhead and salvation, Jesus spoke of the father as a separate person who was really him as he told his disciple Philip: "Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?" (John 14:9).

In addition, the A.I or non-human intelligence that came and supposedly took over humanity is actually representing fallen angels and satan; who were kicked out of the outer skies to earth, as even the Bible pity us earthlings by saying, "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev 12:12). That's why, through the writers, we see satan popping this statement to Morpheus strapped to a chair, "I hate this place [earth];" Morpheus strapped to the chair represent his state on earth. All of that speech, which was orated to Morpheus, is typified satan mumbo-jumbo hatred. So down to the very plot, scene, actor and actresses are all deceptions to us, in this master piece film that utilizes spy vs. spy programming to let us choose between the A.I and the rebels who both represent fallen angels or devils (or a mixture of fallen angels and their human progeny – satanists. Satanists usually become half man half spirit; real satanists and not the ploy they put up front in 'satanic churches.' They are represented by Tank and his brother, who can't do the things Neo and others can do, as they are said to be born in the matrix era.); which also ushers us in anticipating a false technological Christ. Alice Bailey certify this corruption, "His coming in the air 'in the clouds of the air' (Matt.24,54) might be interpreted literally to mean that at the right time He will come by plane from the place on earth where He has been for many generations, watching over the sons of men; the words 'every eye shall see Him' might mean that by the time He comes television will have been perfected and He will then be seen, by its means, from even the most distant spot on earth. Why should it be blasphemy for Him to use modern methods?" (The Externalisation of the Hierarchy. p. 575)

This movie is hard to resist because it's really well done. In fact, I love the special effects, but now have to try and avoid getting into it all together; as we can be drawn away by our lusts and entice and be ensnared, not knowing that all the parties involved might be influenced by satan; even unknowingly. I saw Neo in an interview with Access Hollywood May 10, 2003 for a premier of Part 2 and at one point answering a question, he flashed a satanic sign. Go here to see how it looks <http://www.exposingsatanism.org/signsymbols.htm>.

Beware of this film, because it is very deceptive on the mind, with catchy special effects. "Come out from among them and be ye separate saith the Lord..." If you truly want to break free from the matrix and enter eternal life, "ye must be born again!"

In addition, I mentioned in the introduction how the teaching on Satanism can be unsound, this is because evil spirits could have known this writing would come about (Chapter 5 will show you how they can know this) so to pacify it they could make adjustments in Reloaded and Revolution; I haven't seen them yet. It's now Dec 2005 and I wrote that last line 2003 and since then have watched both films and my suspicions of adjustments was correct. Nonetheless, what is written above stand still and truth can never be shaken!

REVELATION 12 – MAJOR EVENTS OF FALLEN ANGELS

Revelation 12 is vital to this chapter, because it reveals the major order of events concerning fallen angels. Here is the synopsis of it:

1. "And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:"

Israel, the twelve stars representing the twelve tribes of Israel.

2. "And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered."

The Messiah is to be delivered. Satan thought that it was Moses or a mediator when he had all the Israelite babies killed. He did the same thing through Herod (Matt 2:16), but like Moses, Jesus escaped.

3. "And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads."

Representing the satanic end time government where the Anti-Christ should rise.

4. "And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born."

Now of course the Dragon is satan. The reference that he drew a third of the stars of heaven are the 1/3 angels that fell with him. The reference to the tail shows that it was a pass event according to the present time of the prophecy; suggesting a prior war had taken place, that is, when they first rebelled.

5. “And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and [to] his throne.”

JESUS CHRIST or from the original, Yahoshua Ha Mashiah.

6. “And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred [and] threescore days.”

Israel dispersion and gathering.

7. “And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,”

A war in heaven sometime after Christ has risen and before the end time event at Armageddon, “her child was caught up unto God, and [to] his throne.” Not the first war that kicked them out of the ‘first heaven.’

8. “And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.”

They had enjoyed godship of the earth by tricking Adam and so ruled from the outer skies, but now Christ is made the last Adam and has redeemed man and so they are kicked from that domain and bound to earth, unfortunately “Woe to the inhabitants of the earth ... for the devil is come down unto you.” Satan angels especially lost their position as watchers.

9. “And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.”

Them now dwelling on earth or more like bound on earth, which will lead to the end time systems which consist of the Mark of The beast; possibly some insert.

10. “And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.”

His position of accusing you and I are taken away. It sounds simply, but with the accusation comes the stealing of the position and abilities in God. In fact, as previously discussed, that's why they “were” the gods of this world, because they stole it from Adam. But thank God for Jesus Christ, because “The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch [watchers] for iniquity are cut off: That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought” (Isa 29:20). So, not only did they accuse the brethren, they were the ones who set them up in a snare to violate the word. This nasty case of tell-tale accusation wasn't just for men but he did it for angels too. For instance, Florida sends a rep to congress; the report and relay to this congressional type meeting by him would be about Florida. However, because he has that audience and airplay he can snitch on other states and accuse Idaho for having a governor who bought a ‘ho’ (prostitute), and he should be removed. When he was the one who hired the Pimp and girls to undermine him. After Christ was resurrected, satan lost this seat in heavenly congress and Christ now sits there; hence verses 7 to 9.

11. “And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.”

That is, Born again Christians are redeemed through Jesus Christ; which is a great personal price, because to be a genuine born again Christian comes persecutions and the only way to survive is because “they loved not their lives unto the death,” counting the cross much more precious.

12. “Therefore rejoice, [ye] heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

Not only are humans redeemed but angels are set at liberty too, for satan accused them before God night and day too, he having access to certain parts of heaven. In Job 1:6 we get a glimpse of this political scene in heaven; "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." When God said, "Whence comest thou" he was saying, 'where are you coming from, give your report (including accusation).' Satan then answered that he was in the domain of the earth. So his main report would be about humans. If he were in another part of heaven he would give his report mainly against angels. Plus there were mounting contentions since satan decided to rebel with his angels.

13. “And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man [child].”

When satan and his friends saw that he was cast to earth and bound there, he went after Israel, from which Jesus came; “which brought forth the man [child].”

14. “And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.”

Could be the gathering of 1948, it suggest a place where Israel is settling or has settled away from their enemies. Actually, “into her place” suggest being reinstated in Israel as a nation since satan, through many Princes, tried to exterminate (genocide) all of them because they brought forth the savior that cause him to loose his seat and influence in heaven, and be cast to the Earth; not to mention preventing any other mediator to rise from Israel. However, the eagle came to their Aid, Epitomize with the overthrow of Hitler in 1945 then two years later gave them a place back in their place as a nation, as prophesied; Hitler was possibly satan in flesh. To this day the Jews are clueless to why genocide was attempted at them those many years since Rome, when many of them don't even believe in their own savior. However, be it known that a possible 3rd Jewish temple is not necessarily the will of God or of the eagle and blues.

15. “And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.”

Many diverse persecutions sent to Israel to cast that settlement and gathering to perish.

16. “And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.”

But certain nations decided to help Israel.

17. “And the dragon was wrath with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

His anger is then turned to us Born Again Christians, where he persecutes us through various measures but namely the Mark of The Beast.

THE USE OF INSERTS

I could go on about the use of insert and the computer chip, both generally and personally, but Cutting Edge Ministries did a detail look at it; under the topic “The Mark Of The Beast Might Just Be The Ultimate Satanic Insert!” It’s the best satan and his angels could do to mimic the one and same Holy Ghost in all born again believers. It reads:

"Inserts are just about anything that gets inserted under the skin or into the body that has a demon, and sometimes, physical poisons (the most common is cyanide or mercury) attached to it." ["Becoming A Vessel Of Honor In The Master's Service", p. 103]. Let us stop here for a moment to consider the shocking information we have just received from this doctor who has ministered specifically to people coming out of Satanism through the glorious work of Jesus Christ. Prior to an insert being placed into the body, it has received an incantation or a spell that attaches a demon to the insert! Thus, when a person receives such an insert, they have just received a demon into their body, somehow magically, supernaturally attached to the insert! If Antichrist used this type of insert, placing it into the right hand or the forehead of the peoples of the world, he would have a most powerful tool by which to control all the people from that moment on! Perhaps this is the major reason people worship Antichrist so completely, and resist the Divine Judgments designed to bring them to repentance. Suddenly, I more completely understand the Great Tribulation Period a whole lot better.

For many years, I had struggled with the concept that, when Antichrist arises, the huge majority of the peoples of the world shall follow him like lemmings follow each other over a cliff. How can this be, especially in a technologically advanced country like the United States, Canada, Australia, or Europe? Now, I can better understand this dilemma; if huge numbers of people, in every continent in the world, possess Satanic inserts in their body at the time of the appearance of Antichrist, they will be under the influence of at least one demon, if not more. These demons could then exert a powerful force, or influence, over the thinking and the emotions of the person in whom they cohabit. Thus, the demon(s) inhabiting tens of millions of people worldwide will rise up to demand that person follow Antichrist; or, more likely, the demon(s) will cause that person to have tremendous feelings of love and devotion for Antichrist, thus making their loyalty that much easier. [sounds similar to the previously discussed cyborg and Internet dilemma]

"I think it is no accident the gay movement has popularized ear rings for men. What effect does the placement of such ear rings have in a non-homosexual young man? I would be very concerned about this if I were a young man. I am not saying that all jewelry is demonic. However, some of it is." If the person performing the piercing of the ear, or the eyelids, or any other part of the body, is a Satanist, he could have previously "blessed" each "insert", so that, unbeknownst to the recipient, demons are ritually attached to the insert. That young man or woman could then be under the influence of the demon, without realizing it!

"Also, I heard from some higher craft members who have just recently come to Jesus, that these computer chips will be placed in driver's licenses and credit cards in the near future ... Are these micro-chips the 'mark of the beast'? I think they very well could be ... Please note, Scripture says the mark shall be received IN the hand or forehead, not ON. Could this be because the Lord knew an insert would be used rather than a simple surface mark? I suppose you could say that the 'mark of the beast' is the ultimate insert."

Once again, we can see such great evidences that our society is being conditioned to accept the Black Magick Satanism of Antichrist. It seems like we see "inserts" everywhere in our society today. We see earrings galore, plus rings in the nose, the eyelids, the tongue, the bellybutton, and some even in the private parts. If the person who is inserting these devices is a practicing Satanist, you could very well be at least afflicted and maybe demonically possessed without even being aware of it. Anyone who gives assents to be pierced gives Satan and his demons the "legal ground" they need to come on in and possess you.

Finally, remember that demonic possession does not generally give a person that uncontrollable falling down and writhing behavior most people associate with demon possession. Most possessed people act very normally most of the time. However, at the time of the demon's choosing, the possessed person will suddenly come under the control of the demon. I think the prime time in history for this sudden control to occur will be when Antichrist arises, and will factor very heavily in the vast majority of the peoples of the world accepting him. At that moment, all possessed people will suddenly be under the control of their demon masters.

Thus will be fulfilled the prophecy, "and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" [Revelation 13:3-4]

Now, I understand how it is that so many billions of people will fall all over themselves to worship Antichrist. Many will be possessed by different means, but possessed nevertheless. And, when the demon inside says, "worship him", the poor deluded and unsaved human being will comply.

I also believe the controversy over whether the Mark of the Beast will be IN or ON the skin may now be resolved. The Mark of the Beast will be just the last in a long line of "Satanic Inserts", and the most effective. Further, it will be backed by the ultimate in Satanic Black Magick power. This use of inserts can be truly seen in a Movie called "Fortress." Truly, the End of the Age is very close.

TIME TRAVEL

Angels

Time and death are two of the only things that are not variable or cannot change, no matter what you do. However, with fallen angels I've only touched on the surface with them in this book. I could go on into mind boggling things they can do. As it pertains to time travel, we have to remember that they were created out of time as we know it and therefore not subject to it; they probably can jump in and out of time, as it pertains to entering the earth's atmosphere. Which such greatness and radiance in these beings made by God, it then becomes damaging to us earthlings to have them as our enemy, which they are; no wonder God's Angels said this when they were bound here, "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you" (Rev 12:12). It can then be said that when they were finally cast to earth, it doesn't necessarily mean they were confined to land but could also mean they were confined to Time. This could compliment and give reason to the verse "because he [satan] knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev 12:12) after being bound here. Could it mean that fallen angels could have travel in time being made out of it? Well, angels are spirit beings and thus light. That's why the scripture said God is the "father of spirits" (Heb 12:9) and the "father of light" (Jas 1:17), because spirit beings are light or made like light. The reason I mentioned that is because the most popular theory of time travel is that if you travel at the speed of light or faster you automatically travel in time. If Fallen Angels are light, can they not travel at the speed of light or faster? Would not this make them able to travel in time since time spans in light years? There is actually one verse that describes that they can move really fast, perhaps at light speed, "And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning" (Eze 1:14). Therefore, according to physics isn't the devil then able to travel in time, seeing that he can move faster than light, being an Angel. If so, wouldn't he and his allegiance of Angels cause more havoc on earth, like destroying Paul before he was converted or even destroying the Virgin Mary before she was born?

"In Princeton, N.J., physicists sent a pulse of laser light through cesium vapor so quickly that it left the chamber before it had even finished entering. The pulse traveled 310 times the distance it would have covered if the chamber had contained a vacuum...Wang said, "our experiment does show that the generally held misconception that 'nothing can move faster than the speed of light' is wrong." Nothing with mass can exceed the light-speed limit. But physicists now believe that a pulse of light--which is a group of massless individual waves--can" (Time-Travel.com, 2001, NEC article found in "Journal Nature").

The only living mass less organisms with intelligence and will, that is capable of traveling this fast, are spirits. Spirit beings are angels: cherubim, seraphim, arc angels, and possible many more types. The sad part is that some fell and in their fallen nature spirit form, can cause havoc if they by being able to travel faster than light travel in time, according to physicists. Not that I'm lifting them up, because even the least of born again believers have power over them through Christ.

Men

One notion given by a site through Steve Preston was, "As the boundaries of physics are pushed back and back it is becoming clear that whoever understands the laws of physics best will be able to travel through time and space, easily gaining a dominant position in the known Universe. Indeed that race which can move from universe to universe will get to control all universes! We must therefore double our efforts to ensure that it is we and not some other race who gains understanding first! Or we will end up playing second fiddle for rest of time!"

To him and anyone in this field, be it known that such capacities of quantum leap in so-called physics will never be by man's ingenuity alone, but only through God or his rebellious fallen ones that now resides on earth. Their very nature gives them the ability to travel faster than light and as physicists have compute that means they can travel in time. If so, they would now "control all universes" or would be ruling mankind rather than God; which of course isn't the case, though they have some autonomy in the earthly realms. The mere fact God can bound the chief of these rebellious ones in a prison under the earth by another angel for 1000 years (Rev 20:2), means that no being can do as they like regardless of their capabilities. What we should rather do is look to God who said, "Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD" (Jer 23:24); that is, fills all time and space, thus consumes all existence and resides everywhere in every time at the same time without being subject to time. After all he is God.

There are generally seven types of time machines (theory) that have been around since Einstein's theory of relativity. They are Godel's Universe, Van Stockum space-time, Kerr black holes, Gott's time machine, space-time foam, Morris-Thorne Wormholes and Alcubierre warp drive, according to New Scientist article dated September 2003, newscientist.com. All seems hopeless, except breaking the light speed barrier in general theory. This theory of time travel shows that if a machine were to be built that could travel to other planets it would have to travel faster than light and thus travel in time. But of course this theory is just a theory and has great problems

For instance,

Imagine an imaginary journey to another planet, some 2.2 million light years away. For the time being ignore the problems of propulsion (like they do in all Sci-Fi films!). Firstly, let's assume a Newtonian Universe and we'll ignore the effects of gravity and friction (not much of this in space anyway). The first problem: how fast do we accelerate? Well, if we could accelerate at an infinite rate we could reach an infinite speed instantly and reach our destination in no time at all! Unfortunately, if we were to do so we would experience infinite acceleration forces and be crushed to an infinitesimally thin film instantly. Not much use. The gravitational field of the Earth of 1g is however a comfortable acceleration to subject us to, so let's assume the acceleration of our spaceship will be 1g.

So how long to this planet at 1g using Newton's theory? We will add the condition that we wish to stop when we get there, if only to turn around and come back. The best time we can make is achieved by accelerating for the first half of the journey and decelerating for the second. The total time for the trip can be calculated to be some 2,065 years. Rather a long time really. Consider the same journey in an Einsteinian Universe. We now have a limited maximum speed (the speed of light), which at 1g is reached in 30,000,000 seconds, or a little under 354 days. After we reach this speed, how much longer will it take to reach this planet? The answer is no time at all! For the distance to this planet will have shrunk to zero for the spacecraft. However to the people back on Earth a considerable length of time would pass: some 2.2 million years.

For practical reasons, such as having no way of navigating in an infinitely thin universe, we would stop just short of the speed of light at the halfway point and reverse engines to come to a halt at this planet. The entire trip would have taken a little less than 2 years at a comfortable 1g. The same is true of a trip to anywhere within the Universe. We can get literally anywhere in a little under two years: four for the round trip. The main problem is the ageing of the rest of the universe while we are traveling.

The second problem of time dilation means that when we return from our trip to this planet we would have aged less than 4 years while the Earth has aged around 4.4 million years. One or two changes would have undoubtedly taken place back here on Earth!

The idea of traveling from world to world, having strange and exotic adventures with even more strange and exotic creatures, and then dropping back later for the odd chat about old times, is just not on. The old times would be just too old for those left behind to survive the wait! The galaxy is, after all, about 80,000 light years across, and this immediately converts to a minimum travel time of 160,000 Earth years. So travel as we know it is just not possible. Sailing off across the depths of space on five-year missions is all very well, but whose five years? Obviously sub-light travel puts severe restrictions on what we can reasonably expect to do.

The other problem is that the mass of the spacecraft rises greatly as it approaches the speed of light, so an enormous power source would be required (crystals have failed). What about power? For the Newtonian case the power requirement is enormous, even assuming perfect efficiency. The energy required would be 5.1×10^{26} Joules for a 10 tonne spaceship. This is rather a lot. NASA's space shuttles are not really up to it I'm afraid. Plus traveling even faster than light requires an infinite amount of energy (<http://freespace.virgin.net/steve.preston/Time.html>).

Besides, no man has been able to create a machine that travels at the speed of light. They have created ones that travel at the speed of sound, which was once deemed impossible. But sound is much slower speed than light and if solid particles go that fast they would probably break up or create a friction so dense that life ceases to exist. Even though at faster speeds motion can be stilled as seen in planes that travel fast yet the motion is like being on earth walking on the street, at faster than light speed it might be stilled to stifle out life itself; regardless of an air vacuum system. Nothing with mass can travel at the speed of light.

They are far greater and innumerable problems that could occur. For instance, “the commonest are the so-called paradoxes. For example, if we could travel through time, imagine what would happen to a time traveler if he (or she) traveled back in time and killed his own grandmother at birth. In theory the time traveler will therefore never be born, so the journey could never have been made in the first place; but if the journey never occurred then the grandmother would be born which means the time traveler would have been born and could make the journey ... and so on and so on. This is a paradox” (Steve. Preston).

Now notice an actual event that took place during the reign of the Babylonian Empire. Daniel, a Jewish prophet went on fasting, approximately 21 days. Then Gabriel, an Angel of the Lord appeared to him. This experience show that Angels or spirit can indeed travel faster than light because it took him 21 days to get from heaven (outer space) to earth. Notice also what he said to Daniel, “from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.”

Daniel 10:13, “But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days” (Dan 10:12-13). In other words, he could have gotten there faster, not only that, but he actually traveled from one point to another. It simply means that Angels, including the fallen ones, have the capacity to time travel according to the faster than light theory.

But what is time? One site said “The Oxford English Dictionary defines time as ‘a limited stretch or space of continued existence, as the interval between two successive events.’” If that be the case, time has an ending and rightly so. When Gabriel, that angel that traveled faster than light to answer Daniel’s prayer, came to earth, he revealed the entire sequence of time from the then Babylonian Empire to when time is completed or finish. It is one of the most accurate pieces of blue prints to date for the sequential order of events leading to the end of time. So much so that Sir Robert Anderson, head of the Scotland Yard (Equivalent to being the Head of the CIA and FBI) stated, “Either this is an imposter, or it is God-breathed.” Sir Anderson was one of the most Brilliant detectives throughout all the British Empire and even Knighted by the Queen. He was overwhelmed to know upon investigation that what Daniel had recorded from the Angel Gabriel was exactly what has happened and is happening. How could the Angel know the exact things that shall come to pass in the near and distant future, not necessarily because he can travel faster than light, but simply because time is a fixed mechanism used by God. In other words, the entire faculties that make up time from the first successive event (God created man) to the last successive event (final judgment) was ordained by God and is fixed. No wonder at the end of time he said, "It is done" (Rev 21:6). In other words, all that he had created time to do from one successive event to last will be completed; "it is known that it is man" (Ecc 6:10) and regardless of the grand things humanity shall do in the last days, he cannot alter time, "neither can he contend with him that is mightier than he" (Ecc 6:10). Nevertheless, after this completion our nature shall change to that of the Angels and possible with the ability to travel faster than light too, as Christ even said that we will be "as the angels of God in heaven" (Matt 22:30). However, what good would time travel be if there is no time?

One of the reasons for mentioning this topic is this quote found on a time travel site, "One of the largest financial backers of this type of research is the church. It is no good trying to pretend that scientific advancement is detrimental to religion. We believe that one day Science will either prove the existence of God or totally disprove it. We are pleased that the church is embracing scientific research and by making money available." In other words, groups representing the church (probably Roman Catholics) are giving money to a research that proves futile to do and not necessarily God ordained. Though one scripture said not to oppose "science falsely" (1 Tim 6:20) this is going too far as to aid this research.

Men Cannot

So what we have seen is that time travel is impossible with men. But with God, man can manipulate time. For instance, "Then spake Joshua ... Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day" (Joshua 10:12-12). In other words, Joshua paused time to finish a God commanded mandate. The writer of the book Joshua clearly said how, "the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought..." (Joshua 10:14).

So then man is able to manipulate time with God's help, for God's purpose. Even progressing your mind to travel in the future; that is, seeing in the future possibly through dreams, visions etc. So much so that the word of God encourages us to do it, "covet to prophesy" (1 Cor 14:39); but not through metaphysics as Some have opt to explain it with Einstein's theory in relation to energy. But of course besides God we can know nothing and attempting to do outside of him is devilry. God is the creator of time and thus can do anything with it. But his Angels are great, because at the end of the ages, one of his angels was mandated to take away time from the present earth (fulfill the mysteries of God), "And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer" (Rev 10:6). That is, this time couldn't be fulfilled except the mysteries God intended come to pass, it would go on and on until they are done. That's why one verse said, "That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past" (Ecc 3:15). So only angels would more properly understand time; time to them might be like reverting to the back-up copy of your harddrive (or registry) on your computer or changing the date of a clock a month later, relatively speaking. But to us it's much more complex. For instance, God said that he would shorten the days, not days as in years directly but days as in the hours thereof. He said, “except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened” (Matt 24:22); which has come to pass because these days are shorter, yet we still have 24 hours; not an hour less on the watch even though the day is now shorter. How? No mind will be able to figure that out; though theories have been developed. People always have to remember that theories are just theories.

Einstein's famous equation, $E=mc^2$, states that mass and energy are interchangeable. In other words, the flesh on your body is equal to the light beam that radiates from the light bulb, if altered. Einstein himself said, “the equation $E=mc^2$ showed that very small amounts of mass may be converted into a very large amount of energy and vice versa” (aip).

“Any mass, no matter how small, would require infinite energy to reach the speed of light. According to modern physics, this is not possible and light-speed is a real limitation for any object. However energy may be a different story. Pure energy can travel very easily at the speed of light.” The only way mass can be broken down into light according to Einstein's theory and experiment by Cockcroft and Walton is if the smallest particle in your body is split – atom -- producing alpha particles. “Alpha particles have a velocity in air of approximately one-twentieth the speed of light, depending upon the individual particle's energy” (epa). That means all of the atoms in your body would have to split at the same time, varies in speed depending on “the individual particle's energy,” and also maintain life and then reconstruct to bodily form. You see how complex this is?

If that be the case then all substance on earth is pure energy and thus pure light. If it be pure light or energy why can't it move at the speed of light? I could say that only in the present state it cannot be at that speed, but if altered it may; much like how liquid cannot move as gas moves (ascends), but gas is simple liquid in another form and so is solid gas in another form. Nevertheless, things such as physics are only fiddling with small tenets of a greater whole; going in circles with a fraction (e.g. 1/billion) of what really is. You cannot separate things such as this from God; no matter how hard we try some things are too vast for us and thus the intervention or heavenly bodies. The only problem is that not all heavenly bodies (fallen angels) seek good though they pose as good. For instance, take these two quotes,

“Some nights I would wake up to see Alice's body as transparent as a cellophane bag. Some nights, she would disappear and reappear.”

“I had now become a part and parcel of the spirit world and could at will to any part of the world.”

Many Satanists (humans) can travel from one part of the world to another in the snap of a finger and do other paranormal things, by sorceries. Therefore, if a human ever travels through time, it would have to be by sorceries – devil aid – and even the highest level of magic have yet to record time travel. Though we have this record of Alice, which means she became like light, similar to the nature of Angels. Does this enable her to travel at the speed of light? I personally couldn't tell, though she disappeared and reappeared, which means some traveling might have went on

These are quotes from a former Satanist who himself by various incantations was able to travel to outer space and meet with these heavenly bodies. The first quote was with a girlfriend he shackled up with being destitute then later found out by experiences like these that she was a Satanist. He later became one, inevitably. Notice that Alice did exactly what I said was impossible earlier – “That means all of the atoms in your body would have to split at the same time, varies in speed depending on “the individual particle's energy," and also maintain life and then reconstruct to bodily form." Some of the other stuff he recorded would blow physicists away. Because they are driven by the power of human reason, which is the greatest enemy of anything superb. For instance, science tells us that for this earth to survive having plants and animals, there must be seas. However, at the end of time the scripture says, "there was no more sea" (Rev 21:1), yet there will be plants and other life form; not only in the New City where water runs from the midst of God. Or, Christ walking through a wall yet alive and able to eat and drink with his disciples (Lk 24:39-43); and hinting to us that we will be able to do the same thing in the resurrection (Matt 22:30). Now can physics figure these out, of course not. There is simply a greater order to things that you have to leave human reasons to see, take part in and believe. "Stephen Hawking, one of the most brilliant theoretical physicists in history confessed that the reward of understanding the universe may be a glimpse of 'the mind of God' " (Time Travel Books). Unfortunately, some of the things like morphing, teleporting and others have been done by people who have eternally ensnared their soul by becoming satanists, witches, shamans and other abomination unto the Lord. Nevertheless, born again believers have also defied science with many wonders that cannot even be recorded.

Indeed man shall accomplish some wonderful things throughout time. However, just the simple demonstration with the angel Gabriel coming to the earth's atmosphere in less than a day from deep outer space is enough to show you that we are no where near the reality of this thing called time travel. We can fiddle here and fiddle there and satan will help along with his delusions but simply put only assistance from God can achieve such an event and tell me why would God authorized such things, especially seeing that time is almost ended as we know it. In the sequel to this book, "Demonology Concealed: Strange New World," I might expound on how men can seem to time travel by virtue of demons playing upon them through their minds or human mind travel – where things are cut, paste and erase. Often times giving memories, cutting memories, implanting certain future events, etc.

Angels Cannot

With fallen Angels and time travel there is one thing that blows this theory out. The Bible said, "which things the angels desire to look into" (1 Pet 1:12); that is referring to prophecies or future events, especially Jesus Christ. If they could travel in time it would mean that they could go into the future and unravel these things they desire to look into and even attempt to tamper with them. So already time travel into the future is almost impossible for them; because "none of the princes of this world knew [about the crucifixion]: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory" (1 Cor 2:8). So if an angel before A.D 1 traveled in time after A.D 1 they would have known not to trouble Christ because they would have heard about the event that took place on Calvary and the worldwide effects it has. Nevertheless, they can definitely see into the future to an extent and even give some insight to psychics who are really their props. That's why they tried to have Jesus killed as a Baby through Herod, because they knew what he would do, but not exactly how. But what about traveling into the past to alter the present? All things have to be allowed by God, and even spirit beings can't do any and everything they desire, regardless of ability. This was shown in the book of Job – satan had the power to utterly destroy Job but couldn't because God wouldn't allow it. When God gave it to him, to prove a point, we saw what he did,

"And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee” (Job 1:13-19).

In other words, in less than a day or even an hour, satan possessed men to steal and kill, sent fire to burn up livestock and men, plus sent a storm to blow down an house and killed the inhabitants. It's not to note the speed of these evil angels, but the fact that they have the ability to do great things but only God can allow or disallow any being from carrying out any act (good or evil) regardless of their capabilities.

If God allowed devils to travel in the pass to alter the future, one of the first thing they would do is stop Christ's crucifixion and erase what has destroyed them ever since (Col 2:15). Therefore, if satan and his angels were allegedly bound in time as stated earlier, with this ability, it would mean they are doing it – messing with the pass to alter the future. In other words, it also is an incorrect notion.

That doesn't say they don't have the ability. They might have the ability, but God can prevent them from executing it, similar to the people at the tower of Babel. This goes to show the type of beings we are wrestling with.

What satan and his Angels can do is cause strong delusions to make people actually think they can limitlessly time travel or have; whether through a machine or other means. If mere magicians (demon props) can cause simple illusions, how much more satan. In the last days, as prophesied, he will do many lying wonders and delusions, hence the verse “deceive the nations.” Amongst those shall be UFO's, cloning, others and possible time travel. Also, by virtue of another evil by fallen angels, suckry (will explain later), time is sort of altered by them and has proven hazardous to the earth. They not traveling in time, but capturing the future in the now or pass by suckry and have created “time bubbles” - pockets of the future in the now and pass (not necessarily an invention but existence); hence all things are out of order so to speak, as all things are set before they come into existence. Fortunately, life is not linear but cyclic. Redeeming the times that is so called passed, would be like mopping up liquidity in Economics, this time, mopping up the time bubbles.

All in All

There is a set time for everything. In other words, time and all its faculties – death, life, woes, sorrows, etc, were all set by the maker of time. No wonder one verse said, “To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace (Ecc 3:1-8). So no matter how hard any being tries, time is and cannot change. If you were to tamper with time in the past to alter the future, God would simply render it to fit his purpose. If I travelled back in time to kill a descendant from my direct lineage to alter my existences, then he would have me born to another. However, before anyone is born they pre-existed in the mind of God and he can make them enter life through whichever womb he pleases; that's why he could have said to Jeremiah, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee" (Jer 1:5). The only exception is Christ; it was prophesied years before of the precise womb he would enter through and the exact time. Therefore, if we could alter time outside of God, it would not change God's purpose or plans. God plans shape us, we cannot shape God's plan. If you travelled back or forward to avoid a certain catastrophe, it would come another way. So regardless of how sophisticated we become in our thoughts towards time travel, we cannot and will not change the course of time. Because Ecclesiastes 3:14-15 of the Bible states, "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past."

That basically sums up the time paradox. It is set and cannot be altered, "That which hath been is named already" (Ecc 6:10). What this should do is cause you to fear God knowing that he alone controls time and thus controls your destiny, "Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked" (Ecc 7:13)? In other words, it is not of him that wills, "the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all" (Ecc 9:11). So then a man having wealth and the poor begging bread is not because of any faculty of man – wisdom, education, knowledge, up bringing or association – but simply by time and chance; which God controls.

Time can only be manipulated with God through faith (Joshua 10, 2 Kings 20:6, Matt 27:45, Mark 13:24-25, Rev 10:6). That's why Paul said to the believers, "Redeeming the time, because the days are evil" (Eph 5:16). In other words, take hold of the time that is yours, even if it has passed or stolen. You might be going, "what the ...!" The next chapter will explain this and many more other difficult things to grasp.

FALLEN ANGELS CLOSEST TO US

This particular section is "hard to be understood" (2 Pet 3:16); in fact, the first time I wrote on it some years ago, my 'church' leader blasted me. ▼ Pastor Mac shouted at me with such rage, I had no idea he could get that angry, so pray before proceeding.

We found out those Principalities, Powers, Rulers of the darkness of this world and Spiritual wickedness in high places are fallen angels. They are the devils behind the human group (Satanists, witches, mind control handlers/programmers, etc) and they are the reason we are wrestling in the first place, after tricking Adam. They are the watchers of heaven, spoken of in Daniel; and regardless of modern studies they are not Holy Ones and it spoke of two separate beings.

To get the right to do their evil they must have access by their accusation against you to God. But like Adam, they are the ones that enticed you to sin and also the ones who accused you before God. They both watch for sin and lay the snare to make you sin. They not only use this to torment you, but also steal your position in God. In fact, as previously discussed, that's why they "were" the gods of this world, because they stole it from Adam. But thank God for Jesus Christ, because "The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch [watchers] for iniquity are cut off: That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought" (Isa 29:20). In other words, "angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation" (2 Pet 2:11), it has to be true. Therefore, they have to well organize it to make you actually sin, being greater in power and might it's easy to cause you to sin. But Thank God for Jesus Christ and Justification. By it, even if you have sinned you're not charged with it, because Jesus Christ paid the price on Calvary. This caused havoc in the camp of the watchers, because they couldn't legally destroy anyone that is converted. Nevertheless, they are many that don't go by God's ordinances (Ps 119:85); some of them are in your home and church.

The previous chapter must be read to grasp what is written in this section. So if you haven't, go back, and then come back here.

FALLEN ANGELS IN OUR CHURCHES

Unaware to many, though the bible stated it plainly, satan and his evil regime have invaded the church as ordained Ministers, Prophets, Pastors and every prominent position in the church. I wish I could explain it to you, but when I start to think about it my heart becomes saddened. Even seeing assemblies deceived by these "grievous wolves." They are sometimes the most Charismatic of Preachers and Pastors and without a trace have an assembly falling away without them knowing. You see, the scripture says "who is it that will harm you if you be the followers of that which is good." This is not a command, but a principle. If you, as a fallen angel, go into a church to destroy it from within, to survive you must be philanthropic, kind, sincere, loving and possess other good characteristics on the outside. Through discernment the true prophets can know them, but by their 'good works,' are intimidated to speak out against them, where there is no evidence to speak out against. Even Christ

▼ That was written in the early stages of this book. It's now I might possibly know why the irritations, explained in the section, "Fallen Angels in our churches." Though the last line of that section warns of identification.
Uncut. Brought to you by LiberationIM.org voiced this principle, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves" (Matt 7:15). Then they are other fallen angels who are not so careful, by their fruits you'll know these as Jude said, they are "Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering 'stars', to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever" (Jude 1:13). This was not talking about Human beings, but stars that fell with satan, now in disguise as men in your churches. One verse said, "And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time" (Matt 8:29)? The spirits knew there is a time of torment for them - "torment us before the time." In other words, these are "reserved the blackness of darkness forever." Reserve means that it was built for them and they cannot escape it, only humans can be going to hell today, repent tomorrow and change their eternal residence to glory; so to speak, for there is no dispensation yet for fallen angels. Jesus himself said that this "everlasting fire, [was] prepared for the devil and his angels" (Matt 25:41). He correctly said the Devil and his angels, possibly not necessarily all of the 1/3; a possible twist will be seen in the last installation of the Demonology books, "Demonology Appealed: The Fallen Race." These fallen ones are reserved and they are in your church to get some permanent house guests through deception; remember, "the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever" (Rev 20:10).

That part above was written in the newsletter series "Don't Compromise" and the part that I was sadden about is truly hard to explain. You see, the gifts and the calling of God are without repentance so no devil can stop it. But they can know the end from the beginning as you will too when we shall cease "to see in part." They knew who Jesus was, as he had to shut up one of them over it (Matt 8:29). They cannot stop it so throughout the years they have devised this most evil thing of sucking it before it comes to pass - spiritual abortion. The very word that should come off your lips, the very songs that you should write and sing are all sucked and they steal it for themselves. Imagine sitting in the pew watching a preacher going at your message, weaving their made up lies around your testimony and producing your songs. No wonder Paul could have said, "Redeeming the time, because the days are evil" (Eph 5:16). When Paul taught us that "the days are evil," he meant E-V-I-L. Remember, God knows all evil and from the dawn of creation they have always been evil. But what Paul wanted to emphasize is that they are some evil that have never been done before.

Now, when he says to "Redeem... the time" it literally means to buy back the time. Or to redeem means that the thing is already yours, you're just taking it. In other words, buy back those stolen messages, lyrics and moments when you should be feeding and serving the flock. Why? These fallen ones have populated our churches robbing the people blind of their moment of glorious servitude and when your actual time comes to give it, you simply cannot because it is gone. Coupled with this is audio video capture (tapes, etc.) to seal what was sucked, in an attempt to prevent it from ever coming to pass from you at the time intended and when taken ceded with delusions, directly or selected omissions. So when Paul says redeem the time, its not always that the time has passed for you to do what God says to do because "your time is always ready" (John 7:6), but seize the moment because these fallen ones in times pass had "sucked" it.

That's the reason we have so many zombies in church. In the pews but dead, not going up, not going down, sucked, robbed and taken advantage of by things unexplainable. It's really hard to explain and the only thing I can liken it to, is the movie "The Matrix", as it is seen on the surface. To the point that predestined preachers and ministers of God are spiritually bound to be sucked; many of these televangelists are fallen angels preaching your messages and sucking your ideas. If necessary I might share some personal experiences; nevertheless, the mere fact I writing this to you is a witness and all the words that were probably stolen and lost somewhere by some messenger of satan pretending to be a minister of light are redeemed. Nevertheless, it's so hard to explain that Paul didn't even bother to get into it, he just said, "Redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Especially as he knew many of his letters were already hard to understand (2 Pet 3:16). My tearful caution to you, as you receive me as a fool, ask God to personally redeem the time; then, regardless if your moment was stolen before, still do it, still say it, because nobody can do exactly what God meant for you; "All that ever came before me [YOU] are thieves and robbers" (John 10:8).

On the other side, it is sometimes done through the same method they used to trick Adam and assume godship of the earth (Matt 25:28). That's the reason for the verses before and after the redeeming the time verse in Ephesians 5:16. That is, verse 15 and 17; "See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise" and "Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is." Nevertheless, because of Christ, you can redeem it.

As for the fallen Angel Ministers/Pastors, except God reveals this unto you it is impossible to know them, though they are loopholes; so don't attempt to. It has become so pervasive that an entire church can be dominated by them, from the Pastor, elders and all leadership to "yes men" in the congregation. As I said they bound true born again believers who have much potential to these churches; where they are sucked of their moments of glorious servitude. Not knowing a thing, much more how great God intended them to be. If they try to leave that congregation these devils will do everything to try and pull them back to these churches. If they try to teach and speak truths they'll be held down and evil worked against them to let people avoid them. Even causing rude odors and lack of self-worth to present a displeasing decorum (outward dress). Even causing people to believe they are mad, yet still attending church. As I said, by the spirit of the Lord I've seen them in action and have had things stolen, but as God promised, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me" (John 6:37). These bastard lavish themselves with God's gifts to you not just for exploitation but mostly to try and stop it from coming to past as it should. For instance, holding down an apostle in a small church in Florida, robbing him of his 'moments' and releasing it to a church of 400 when it was meant for the world and the saving of many; they'll even put words in your mouth to try and corrupt what you're going to say if they dive and saw that God revealed it onto you and you're going to speak about it; even "pregurgitate" this before I write it. These fallen ones have become so good at it that they term themselves like "divers," and are rated by it. Who can dive into a soul and go the furthest to bring out the exact manifestation of the God given word, song or innovation. Some can only do it at the moment, 1-2 days in the future while others can go years on end, the best traveling minister of darkness pretending to ministers of light in our circles are the best at this. It's really hard to grasp, but don't over worry about it; as suggested by Eph 5, just walk holy, seek, know and go after your purpose, fast often, pray often and constantly ask God to redeem the time!

The only reason I'm not calling names is because Christ personally warned me to let the wheat and tare "grow together until the harvest" (Matt 13:30); though names probably have been indirectly mentioned already. I prefer simply leaving such an assembly (1 Cor 15:33), if I recognize it. Because while uprooting tares by identification, some wheat can be uprooted as well, "lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them" (Matt 13:29). Moreover, with a network of them woven in our churches it's hard to not allow "through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ" (1 Cor 8:11-12).

IN ADDITION TO “IN OUR CHURCHES”

In addition to the fallen angels in our churches, God also sends his angels to do special service in the Kingdom of God. Being ministers to the heirs of salvation (Heb 1:14) means that they can get involved. That's why the book of Revelation was first written first to the Angels of the churches (Rev 2:1,8,12,18; 3:1,7,14), not the Pastor or Bishop necessarily. Jesus himself said, "I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star" (Rev 22:16). Who knows, sometimes they 'might be in the flesh' too, that's why Paul could have said, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares" (Heb 13:2). A lot of this would be unseen or unknown to many, if not all. For instance, the two witness of Revelation, they were also present at the building of the second temple through Zerubbabel and constantly stand by the God of this world (Zech 4:11, Rev 11:4). In other words, the two men spoken of in Revelation are not human beings but pre-existed as God's angels; and great ones too, because they "stand by the Lord of the whole earth" (Zech 14:4). Now, on earth if you see them will you know that they are angels? No. Their appearance alone could be looking less in statue. The same could be happening day to day in our lives, hence a reason for Paul's note to entertain strangers. Nevertheless, they are other angels in flesh preaching. If so, to differentiate them would be difficult to those who can recognize them. But like all true sons of God, by their fruits ye shall know them and especially what is preached. That's why Paul could have said, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed" (Gal 1:8).

FALLEN ANGELS IN OUR FAMILIES

The root purpose of these fallen ones is control, perversion and to ignite rebellion. When they live in your household as humans who are most times your brothers, sisters, cousins, nephews, nieces and other relatives, they do the same thing. It's even worst in these last days because they will be forced to live here as Revelation 12:9 recorded; "neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." In other words, the watchers lost their domain of the heavens and it's woes on top of woes, "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev 12:12).

If we recall in the last chapter, the sons of God came unto the daughters of men. Of course angelic beings are not like humans that have reproductive organs to have human sexual relations (Matt 22:30). So it is safe to say they incarnated themselves into human beings through the womb of a woman. According to Gen. 6 they were men of renowned, giants and did evil continually. So much so, that when God saw the evil state humanity was in, He decided to send a flood. Only Noah, his wife, his sons and their wives survived. One would think that would rid the earth of them. Unfortunately, these spirit beings are souls that cannot die. So, if their 'enfleshment' is destroyed they will come again in the next GENERATION, unless both parents are truly born again.

God is not the author of confusion (1 Cor 14:33) so why then is it recorded, "And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death" (Math 10:21). Again, it's not because some are saved and some are not. But, in many families are the seed of a man, satan contraption of a seed and the devil's angels, the duty of the latter two is to stop the first from realizing who they are in God; epitomize by Cain and Abel or Esau and Jacob. Even the man recorded as possessing God given unattained wisdom said, "the brother is born for adversity" (Prov 17:17). Another proverb said, "He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster" (Prov. 18:9). Slothful means that you're late for church, school and work, regardless how early you get up. Such a person would be characterized as slothful in relationships, business and always falling short - unprofessional. This proverb said one of or more than one of their relative is a "great waster." When the reference "waste" is used in scripture it usually relates to a person that causes shame. But how it is used in this verse shows the "great waster" as a human angel embryo genetic corruption or a fallen angel presumptuously in flesh.

As stated before, witches, satanists, warlocks and other agents of evil are all enemies of progress. How much more the ones (spirits) who empowered them? If you're slothful at one place where your "great waster" isn't, how comes this could mean a natural fight. Only a spirit being with superhuman abilities can cause a human much shame and harm without physically being there. Can't wonder why you're spinning in the house for one hour at 8:58 when you should be by the convention helping out at 9:00. This verse said satan tied a relative to you who is a great waster (or fallen angel) to prevent you from progressing into the image of God, much more the work of God.

To not be alarmed at this overwhelming fact, the very next verse says, "The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe" (Pr 18:10). In other words, after God through Solomon gave this undisputable fact about fallen angels, he says that by being righteous (born again) you can run into my name and you will be safe from them and all evil; God knows that it can be very perplexing so he made sure that popular verse is put right after it. Even a psalm said, "God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land" (Ps 68:6). Where was this solitary confinement "with chains"? "In families." But to them that run into his name "he bringeth out."

It can also turn out to your good, because in their rage, wickedness and plot to waste, God can use it to cut the unnecessary things that conflict with his purpose for your life. For instance, chasing a dream of being a basketball "star," when you're a preacher. God will allow these 3 wasters to waste that dream or ambition. Then God through his spirit will cause you to run into his name by becoming righteous (born again) and your purpose as a preacher, teacher and author can manifest to the saving and edifying of much souls. These "wasters" in their heat to destroy something good, as seen with Jesus Christ and the mystery of the cross, most often fulfill God purpose in us. And that's why he could have said, "I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper" (Isa 54:16-17). [In 2003 when this was first written I said 3, but it is actually 4, as most of this is personal. It is now 2005 making this addition. A reason why I couldn't see the 4th is wrapped up in their encoded prophetic expository to me in Prov 30 (15-33), "three things...yea four things say not it is enough" - verse 15. Those of the other fold will understand, especially verses 30-31; and those learning suckry should understand the first line of 33, which reference churning of milk.]

Because of the regeneration power of Jesus Christ, which was absent in the days of Solomon, this fallen angel scenario will now erupt in feuds among family; "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household" (Math. 10:34-36). Jesus said this out of his very mouth, which sounds strange to our current theology. And he didn't say it because some are saved and some are not, for He wishes that all men be saved (1 Tim 2:4, 2 Peter 3:9) and for that to happen, we the saved must mingle with the unsaved like Jesus did with the publicans. So then, He was simply stating the fact that in many families, unaware, are fallen angels, hidden with the essential purpose to destroy or waste. Yes this is a hard saying. Moreover, this was for your general information, if one tries to find out who is who around them there would be a potential for insanity and an uncomfortable case of paranoia; we are called unto peace. It was for our good that God had Moses say, "the secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us...all the words of this law" (Deu 29:29). However, now available if you ask by being born again; but certain spin off comes with certain knowledge.

Fallen angels or Devils in flesh really has no power if one believes in God; actually devils have no power except through our ignorance, neglect, lusts and intimidation. So, if one makes up their mind to be saved, anointed and radically charged for God, nothing can by any means stop such a person. Actually, your godly purpose on earth was set before you were born and they are trying to stop you from fulfilling that purpose by infesting your family. Now, it cannot happen if you seek and know your purpose in the earth.

Rightly so, in the book 'In Pursuit of Purpose' we find, "Abuse occurs whenever we don't use something according to its creator's intentions...if you don't know the purpose for something (or you choose to ignore that purpose) you can't do anything other than abuse it. No matter how good your intentions may be, they are canceled by your ignorance." Someone also said that a notorious gang leader is only a good leader or pastor off course or a drug pusher is only a good sales man. Similarly a psychic, gipsy, witch, wizard, obeah man, necromancer, soothsayer (or whatever it's called in your community) is sometimes a God ordained prophet or sign and wonders deliverance evangelist, who has not a clue of their purpose on earth; therefore they are controlled by devils. Even a few famous persons are God's children controlled for the devil's use.

THEY AMONGST US

Christ said, "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple" (Lk 14:26). This seems like a hard teaching, which could easily be tied in with the 'fallen angels in flesh' school of thought. However, the second clause of that verse said that we are to hate our selves too. This could be summed up that we should not put any of the above before God, which is true; nevertheless, look at this scenario:

"Steve sold his eighty-employee company two years ago to a large national concern. In the course of the transaction, he decided to stay on as branch manager, even though he didn't have to. Most people never even knew there had been a change of ownership, because there was no visible change, but the change in authority structure, reporting relationship, and goals was total and complete. His role changed sharply. What Steve did parallels the central idea in one of Jesus' parable (Luke 14:31-33). When a king decides to fight, he must recognize that if he loses, he dies. But when a king surrenders, the opposing king leaves him in place. Just like Steve, there is no visible change, but the authority structure is completely different" (Man in the Mirror).

Steve gave up the ownership, but he became the steward. The company was not his, but it looked like it was.

Similarly, when Jesus speaks of a man hating his mother, father, sister, brother and other relatives he is not saying you are to literally hate them. But give up the ownership! They are not your brothers and sisters anyway. Your own is "whosoever shall do the will of my father which is in heaven" (Matt 12:48:50). Love them (and everybody) as it is required of us, similar to Steve controlling the business, but the ownership is different; thereby being good stewards of the planet. We don't need to form monasteries or be totally separated in housing schemes; the kingdom of God is within us, that's why we are persecuted.

Also remember the Bible did say, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds." They initially fight you with the same age-old mind weapons of:-

Doubt	(of who you are, and where God is taking you, etc.)
Fear	(the Bible said where there is fear there is torment, etc.)
Unbelief	(in the Bible and it's promises)
Lusts	(insatiable desires and deadly habits)
Vain imaginations	(Occupied with mental fantasies to the point of being detached from reality)
Pride	(thinking of yourself too highly than you ought to)
Unrealistic goals	(distraction of chasing the wind)
Lies	(that you are unsaved, poor, defeated, unsuccessful, everyone is against you, wrong pursuit of purpose, etc.) and others.

They also work through psychic commands (a voice in your head), false dreams, false visions, special visitations and so-called divine interventions and manifestations. Not all dreams come from God. Every dream, vision, special visitation or words deemed from God must be verified by the word of God, otherwise throw it out!!! God is not the author of confusion and will not do anything contrary to His word.

One doesn't have to fret about this awareness of clear and present dangers; they cannot do you any harm. Rightly so, the Bible says, "For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruits" (Jer. 17:8). In other words, one doesn't even know the danger that is around them, even in your households, yet still God "counsel shall stand" and he will do all his "pleasure" (Isa 46:10). If God spoke your purpose in the earth it must come to pass. "Ignorance doesn't stop purpose it only leads to abuse, misuse and waste of time" (In Pursuit of Purpose).

As it concerns the fallen angels within the family and church, this verse comes into play, "Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered" (Pro 11:21). Though the wheat and tare are together it shall not be so when Christ comes. Though some of you are married, work with and have families with them, most times unknowingly, this shall cease and they shall be punished while you the righteous seed shall be delivered and inherit the earth with access to the heavens. Nevertheless, that's why the scripture taught us, "be ye not unequally yoked" (2 Cor. 6:14); you might not know whom you are soul-tying with (not just marriage). There are some "wolves" in sheep clothing that solely come to suck you dry and if possible, render you powerless. Moreover, God always desire a godly seed. Much of what has already been discussed is, as I said, hard to be understood. However, Hollywood has been used by the devil to either pacify, entice or mask it. That's the reason for the next section, "watch that T.V."

“WATCH THAT T.V”

At the start of the summer of 2003 I made it a special duty to watch a few Media Programs to see the embedded programming behind it. Media programs can be transmitted or televised through the TV, DVDs, Video Cassettes, Cinemas, Computers, Palm Pilots, Cell Phones, PSP and other hand held devices. The most common Media programs are Movies. Not that the theatrical art is evil but it is greatly used for evil; to the point that it has become all evil (99.9%) under the pretext of entertainment and education. For instance, an instrument used to carve sculptures isn't evil, but it is a weapon in the hands of a murderer. Television is a weapon against the soul or more precisely, this is mind control in its subtlest form; that's why T.V shows are called programs. It is meant to program you to a way of thinking. If the devil controls the thought process or mind, he's control you. It's a simply process God instructed the Israelites to use, recorded here, “And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes” (Deu 6:6-8). In Catholicism this is called rote and catechism, as taught by my sixth-form History teacher. But it becomes bad when what is instructed is incorrect, satanic, not the word of God and leave no room for application to all (commandments of men). The mass media thrive on this godly principle and the satanic business tycoons control it, therefore, most often evil control the mass media. It then becomes inevitable that evil would flood the airways with deception under the guise of entertainment and education. Remember, satan is not coming up to us and present evil as evil; he's much smarter than that. That's the reason bible prophecy states that “he...deceive the nations...” (Rev 20:3); a deception is usually hidden, which is the meaning of the word occult. Cartoons/animation are best used because children are the best to program. As Hitler once ‘related’, give me a generation under 20 and I'll control the world. That's why this generation grew up on Television, forming a well-programmed mind for a paganistic “great falling away” New World Order conspiracy people. That's why the subheading is “watch that T.V” in quotations; in other words, be careful of this evil called Television and the programs it outputs. Here are just a few:

Andromeda

August 24, 2003 I watched 2 sci-fi series, so happen I was eating late and the T.V was on. I don't know if these shows come on that late regularly, but probably someone wanted me to see them. The shows were Andromeda and another called Star Hunter, first I was seeing the latter.

In Greek mythology (devils history) Andromeda was the daughter of an Ethiopian Queen and King, but the literal translation means, "ruler of men" says Geoffrey Cornelius in The Starlore Handbook found on a website October 2003. So already it has devilish roots.

Andromeda is a Star Trek type out of space film. But this episode is so satanically real I was really startled. It was called, “Vault of the Heavens.” What had happen was that the ship's captain had gotten a distress call from a planet's moon. Upon arrival it was an ambush and some spirit type creatures captured them. These creatures had no ethnic descent but was white as wool, bright as lighting or cellulite as water. But they had the ability to form as humans with skin and everything, for a while. Apparently it was a multitude of them and they needed to procreate, as they do periodically or suffer extinction; in other words, they needed a host to live in or suffer what the Queen says we call “death.” Much like how Christ says when the spirit is gone out of a man it seek a place and findeth none returns to the former host (Lk 11:24); in other words, citing the need for spirits to have a body to live in whilst dwelling in a different atmosphere. So they captured the captain of the Andromeda in order to mate with him and they all would become humans; as the Queen said that whomever she mates with that's the species they become. My thought was how were they going to do this as even the Captain asked and later the ship's doctor couldn't figure it out. They kissed, he laid down with her on top, she climaxes (breaking up; going between light and solid) and then vanishes. The captain clothes was on him whilst this was done and he's still wondering what happened. Next you know when they left the moon planet, the ship's scan showed that the place was flooded with humans. At first he was unwilling because she tied him down with her magic to rape him, smoothly saying she has no other choice because no other life form was around for light years away. He had managed to slither out then agreed because she sweet talked him and showed him how they would be extinct without the pro-creation.

I was startled when I watched it because this was exactly what happened in Genesis 6:4 and has continued since, that's why God could have said, "for that he [devils] also is flesh" (Gen 6:3). In other words, devils or fallen angels or evil spirits procreated as humans. Genesis 6:4 told us that the Sons of God (fallen angels) saw the daughters of men and came unto them or translated, have sex. Spirits don't have reproductive organs like humans, so what they did is genetically mutate as humans or procreate – like how "Andromeda" puts it, though the human in this case was a man. In other words, this episode is enticing, upholding and indirectly deceiving the public as to the reality of extraterrestrial human mating – DEVILRY. As stated by Gen. 6:4, God despises this corruption and they'll suffer the Lake of fire for it. Also, note that they forcible rape humans to procreate and for enjoyment or torment. These bastards are doing the same thing today. I could give detail experience of being raped by spirits and remember occurrences where People wrote Pastors in newspaper columns to give their dreaded experience of being raped by Ghosts or "duppy". I thought that was so stupid and whacked, until one night on my bed I felt this presence over me and my Penis began to burn and enlarge rapidly, to the point that the only way to relieve the pain was to fly my pants for it to touch nothing, because the slightest contact hurt. I didn't want to because I felt this presence over me, but I had to because I felt as if my Penis would explode if I didn't free it. I'm not saying some fallen angel wanted to procreate, but it's obvious it wanted something sexual. Dead people are bound in a holding place (Lk 16:19-31), so the only beings that fool people that they are ghosts are fallen angels and their human props. When the fallen angel has a body (or a human prop does it) they could astral project – spirit leaving the body – witches travel that way at nights. This happened to me a few times. Many preachers who deal in warfare specifically, call them incubus and succubus. But the truth is incubus and succubus can't be everywhere at the same time, so it is obvious that any spirit can do this, even the ones that live in your household as relatives. Then they are people stupid enough to entertain this and some go as far as to want it, when I was living in the islands 1999 I read a column "Tell me Pastor" and one person writing said she liked it; that is, spirits having intercourse with her. Then in 2003 at a publix on Sample Rd, Coral Springs, Fl, I read in another paper where a woman was advertising that she wants to have an Alien baby. She said, "I'm tired of human men." Not knowing that Aliens are fallen Angels contraption and therefore would be having a devil's baby.

Port Charles The Gift (or some soap opera I saw with that flashed at the bottom, could be one life to live*)

As with Ancient times under the pretext of Greek Mythology, these fallen angels are coming to the forefront again. In fact, one movie called "Underworld" (theater or DVD released fall 2003) says, "we have been fighting for centuries blind to the eyes of humans but now..." (Paraphrased). It's a Werewolf and Vampire movie that is more sensitive than the ones in the pass, because it shows whom these beasts really are – fallen angels in human form mutated. By being in flesh and transforming when they feel (also, they're human props can do the same) it is inevitable not to have human feelings of sexual needs and platonic communication. I saw this epitomize in an episode of Buffy the Vampire slayer sometime August, probably a rerun. Another girl had taken over command, after seeing "The One" (or "The First") she was then comforted by her other male slayer friend. They then had sex, but it was like a routine she said, "it has been a while." Then two other female members of their house or gang went at it in another room. I then pondered, if Fallen Angels (spirits) have no reproductive organ and are neither male nor female then are these evil ones homosexuals? Meaning, if two spirits – Fallen Angels – are close or good friends before human incarnation, but when they entered humanity they ended up with the same sex or can change at will, then having sex with the same sex (homosexuals) could have been started by them. Remember, when God gave the homosexuals Laws in Leviticus 18-20, homosexuality wasn't a new thing but he made plain it that, "for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you" (Lev 18:24). These nations or people were Fallen Angels with their off springs. Deuteronomy chapter 2 from the Bible clearly stated that "these ... nations ... I cast out before you" were giants, also seen back in Gen 6:4 when fallen angels first became flesh, they were giants. That's why God probably had Israel and other nations at the time annihilate them for their genetic corruption (Due 2 and 3). Even Joshua 11:21-22 states, "And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains...Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. There was none of the Anakims left in the land." That was over 31 kings and kingdoms in the middle east that they possessed. That is, these Anakims or sons of Anak, giants, fallen angel corruption as this verse states, "And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants" (Num 13:33). Here's some interesting info:

47 inch Human Femur

In the late 1950s, during road construction in south-east Turkey in the Euphrates Valley, many tombs containing the remains of Giants were uncovered.

At two sites the leg bones were measured to be about 120 cms "47.24 inches".

Joe Taylor, Director of the Mt. BLANCO FOSSIL MUSEUM in Crosbyton, Texas, was commissioned to sculpt this anatomically correct, and to scale, human femur.

This "Giant" stood some 14-16 feet tall, and had 20-22 inch long feet. His or Her finger tips, with arms to their sides, would be about 6 feet above the ground.

The Biblical record, in Deuteronomy 3:11 states that the Iron Bed of Og, King of Bashan was 9 cubits by 4 cubits or approximately 14 feet long by 6 feet wide!

GENESIS 6:4

There were Nephilim (Giants) in the earth in those days; and also after that when the sons of God (Angels?) came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

From before the flood until now they haven't ceased to do this and as the days of Noah were so shall these days be. Somehow they have learnt to manipulate the human genes as not to appear as giants, but still existing amongst us with other hidden mutate forms – vampires, slayers, werewolves, supermen and others, as portrait in these modern films. Nevertheless, some of these names (e.g. vampire) are derived from things that are far from the meaning associated with it or its origins.

Port Charles the gift, affectionately called, is the human typification of this fleshly corruption. Of all the things my eyes glanced at on the television I had to see an actual “Soap Opera” about outright Fallen Angels relationships. I could hardly believe this. Shows like Buffy, Angel, Blade and others are action series which can fit into the mainstream television delusion, but an actual love story drama about these fallen one under the guise of slayers, vampires, werewolves and other names; showing love, wanting love and family, basically doing everything and experiencing everything humans do under the banner Soap Opera. Greek Mythology come alive! Extremely deceptive, because devils come only “to steal, and to kill, and to destroy” (John 10:10) and even the word slayer means murderer. Even worse, innocent humans are mutated in their love battles. Much like the allege myth about hermaphrodite, where a fallen one name Aphrodite merged with a human who it fell in love with as not to have it escape out of it's love lock. That's why the term hermaphrodite is used for people born with two sexual genitals – male and female.

I haven't watched another episode of Port Charles the Gift, I think it comes on ABC, but it is obvious that the hidden evil Super Men (Fallen Angels in Flesh) of the world want to stop being Clark Kent and show the world who they are, starting subtly. It might seem far-fetched but with Television programming anything seems possible.

Sixth Sense

The show “Sixth Sense”, starring Bruce Willis (a doctor), gives a most deceptive message to viewers and epitomizes what most spirit mediums go through. What this show does is teach the viewers who have familiar spirits attached to them to accept them and the insight/instruction they give – making the person a spirit medium (psychic, shaman, gypsy, etc.). This is done through emotional appeal and a fake sense that they're helping someone. The movie starts with an adult killing himself, because even though he got treatment from Willis it didn't help, showing the outcome of not following them or their leading. This also show that a natural doctor cannot help them, which is true, because this calls for spiritual intervention by them that are authorize spiritually (Born again). Then it ends up with Bruce Willis counseling a young boy with similar problems. His counsel, unlike the first, was to now accept the spirits. Then it culminates with the boy solving a “would be” murder and giving messages from his dead grandmother to his mother – where she breaks down in tears. With such a well crafted film, anyone would be fooled into thinking people who do this are actually speaking with dead people, legitimately helping someone or that they themselves are gifted, if it happens to them. Other shows and series help this theme along greatly; example, “Thru Calling,” “Yu-Gi-oh” and others. But God will speak about this, “There shall not be found among you ... a consuler with familiar spirits... For all that do these things are an abomination [disgusting] unto the LORD” (Due 18:10-12). He earlier said, “Regard not them that have familiar spirits ... to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God” (Lev 19:31).

Yu-Gi-oh

This, like Sixth Sense, sensitizes the youngsters to want to have familiar spirits and that it is okay. I've only watch this thrice in length. But one episode that I watched clearly showed the evil behind the whole thing – co-habitation of and use of familiar spirits. Yu-Gi-oh does holographic duels with others in this card game. But what helps him to win is this ancient Egyptian spirit that lives in him. It talks to him and advise him on almost all matters. This particular episode that I watched created a story where “the spirit,” as he is called, was looking for his Egyptian identity. It so happened that Yu-Gi-oh had to let him take over his body fully to walk about in this present world, as advised by his female friend. It so happened that “the spirit” lives inside Yu-Gi-oh’s head but only speaks to him and was afraid to come out – yeah right so it walked about and even went dancing and gaming with Yu-Gi-oh’s female acquaintance. When I watched that I became so disheartened and sighted greatly. I just could not believe what they were teaching the kids. This is a great upgrade of familiar spirit association in Pokemon (pocket demon) or Digimon (“digital demon”). Then guess what? The makers of Yu-Gi-oh have a new cartoon deception that is even worse that came out the summer of 2003. It is called “Shaman King.” Notice the name, shaman as in Witch doctor; the word processor synonym says, “Spiritualist, Medium.” The theme of this cartoon is that the person who is best at controlling spirits – not the typification of it in Yu-Gi-oh’s holographic card monsters, but they said actual spirits – will become shaman king. They could have just said “Champion Witch.” According to 4kidsentertainment.com, “Shaman King made its Fox Box debut in fall 2003. Brought to the U.S by the same team that introduced ‘Yu-Gi-oh’ – TV Tokyo and 4 kids Entertainment. Introduced in 1998 in Japan, Shaman King has sold over 20 million comic books and 165 million trading cards in Japan; the No. 1 selling comic magazine in Japan. Toys, trading cards, video games schedule to roll out in the U.S in 2004.” All anime imports are full of this, seeing that they come from a culture who reverences more than one deity (devils, fallen angels, evil spirits).

If you’re a parent do not let your children watch these so-called harmless entertainments. It’s a program, and according to Mind Control thesis, a program is meant to control the person by controlling their minds. In other words, your whole thought process is controlled, what you deemed bad or good, etc. In this case, “spiritism,” spirit guides and demonology is okay. Obviously slipping this generation into outright paganistic devilry, unknowingly. Again, God will speak about this, “There shall not be found among you any one ... that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD” (Due 18:10-12).

Captain Planet and the Planeteers

If you’re a cartoon watcher as I was you would love Captain Planet, but like all the deceptions, I found out it too is more deceptive than I thought; under the guise of ‘good,’ it has us giving reverence to a fallen Angel name Gaia, represented as Mother Earth throughout History. Paul Nugent, a church friend of mine gave me a book sometime ago in 2002 and it shed some light on the cartoon Captain Planet. It’s now the end of summer 2003 and thank God he didn’t reclaim it, because I recently read this in it (The World’s Last Dictator): “We all have one mother, Gaia, preserving her is the highest good. This is my religion” (Barbara Kelly, founder of ‘Save our Eco Systems’).

Captain planet is one of the leading productions on television that portrays Gaia, an earth goddess who gives to some children super powers. Of course, Ted Turner is the endorser of it, an outright pagan. Reader Digest described Captain Planet’s New Age delusion by Ted Turner as ‘the slickest, political propaganda piece ever aimed at America’s young people, promoting a leftist agenda.’ Many don’t even know that this Gaia spirit is a devil; upheld even in Wicca circles.

In the book somewhere it had said that Jose Aquellas, some high-level New Ager organized a convention of theirs, encompassing a link of 2 billion people. In the background he requested 114,000 persons involved in New Ageism to become conjugal brides of Satan. In other words, to bring Satan back to Gaia, so that mother earth could be healed. The same occurrence took place on the first Earth day of 1990, which was backed by Hollywood's 'stars'. Did you know the UN sanctioned this as the official day of prayer?

Another film that depicts the Gaia New Age delusion is "Final Fantasy: The Spirits Within." I hadn't known this Gaia spirit was this popular until I watched this film. It is another spy vs. spy contraption to cause you to choose between evil and evil; the blue spirit from within the earth and the reddish spirits from outer space. The blue spirit, Gaia, is another new age ploy of satan to have you caught up in demonology and even worship of a devil, Gaia; as previously seen. The reddish alien spirits which Aki Ross said fell from another planet and are just angry because because...are just representatives of fallen angels who after the war in heaven were kicked to earth (Rev 12). Again, none of this will be known, but persons would have left the theater with a new awareness of Gaia; amongst other evils. Notice these statements by Aki Ross, the star of Final Fantasy, "All spirits are born of Gaia, each spirit dies and goes back to Gaia" and she even said she wasn't dying but returning to Gaia. What outrage against truth! What a lie that has seeped into the minds of the viewers! What deception has unleashed into the theaters unawares. "God is a spirit" (John 4:24) and the "Father of spirits" (Heb 12:9), in fact his word clearly states that he is "the God of the spirits of all flesh" (Num 16:22). So where does this spirit comes from claiming to be what God is, even opting to say everyone is born of her rather than God? Only another devil and its deception. So it is with 99.9% of all movies, "Neither give place to the devil" (Eph 4:27).

These same underline fallen angels, new ageist agenda is laden in many cartoons, like Action Man, Defenders of The Earth, He-Man, Dragon Tales, Knights of the Zodiac, Super Friends, Atlantis: The Lost Empire and countless others. But can you easily detect them? Simply train your child and yourself to avoid television.

Harry Potter (The Sorcerer's Stone)

Since the plague of the Harry Potter's books, it has since "evolved" into movies. I am not saying things shown in Harry Potter are not true, but they are out of bounds for several reasons, to the point that God once said, "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live" (Ex 22:18). Another verse typified why, "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed [his word] belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law" (Due 29:29). That's why the Apostle Paul said some things are unlawful to utter (2 Cor 12:4). Nevertheless, we born again Christians have the spirit that prophesieth and thus enabled to attain to God's secrets and do real wonders (Mark 16:16, 1 Cor 12-14). However, not entangled in devilry that is shown in the Potter films.

Harry Potter is an outright abomination and evil in the sight of God, which I could have told you without watching the movie. But now watching the movie sometime in September 2003 I found out that it will definitely not seems that way and even seems beneficial or inspirational. For instance, I watch this film with my guards down and even being an ardent believer, I was really enticed by the film. Go Harry, you're the seeker, Get that ball! Yeah, Harry's team has won! Oh, poor Harry, miss treated by his relatives! Why that little, taking Harry's mail! Yeah his father's friend came and gave him the mail and taught that little spoil kid a lesson! Go Harry, you're the chosen one! Go Harry beat that evil wizard! Being so enthralled in the movie I can clearly see why any youngster would say, "I want to be a wizard like Harry" or "all wizards aren't bad." Moreover, with the experience that Harry had at Hog Wart and the excitement of it, any youngster would do anything to achieve it – even disenfranchising from their household.

If I was so caught up in this film, imagine the poor souls without the Holy Ghost, Non-Christian parents, Halloween practioners, out casts and anyone without godly tutelage. That's why T.V programming is the best deception of the enemy. It uses psychological appeal, empathy, sympathy and other invisible stimuli's of the human being to actually make you do something you ought not (especially if you know the truth) or believe in something that is wrong. T.V deception is the real witchcraft.

It's after watching Harry Potter that I realized that blasting a non-believer violently with the truth wont do much help, because of what they've been led to believe or programmed to "value" certain things. No wonder the scripture said, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves" (2 Tim 2:25).

But just to show you that the Harry Potter scenario is real devilry and there is no such thing as good wizards or good magic, but all are an abomination unto the Lord (Due 18:11, Lev 19:31, Lev 20:6, 27) take this quote from a former wizard:

"Despite all these powers in me, I was not yet qualified to meet with [satan] but only qualified to be his agent. All the same I was satisfied that I now had powers and could face, challenge and destroy things at will."

"I HAD NO HUMAN FEELINGS OR MERCY IN MY HEART ANY LONGER. I went into operation immediately and DESTROYED FIVE DUPLEX at a go. They all sunk inside the ground with all its inhabitants. This happened in Lagos in August 1982. The contractor was held responsible for not laying a good foundation and he paid dearly for it. A LOT OF DESTRUCTIONS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD TODAY ARE NOT MAN MADE. The devil's duty is to steal, kill and destroy."

"I destroyed lives to the extend that [satan] became very pleased and made me CHAIRMAN OF THE WIZARDS. A month after my chairmanship, a meeting was called. We attended that meeting as birds, cats and snakes."

"We then schedules to hold an AFRICAN WIZARD CONFERENCE IN 1983. We published it in all dailies and all the public media. All the forces of darkness were mobilized and we were very confident nothing was going to interrupt this meeting. In fact, everything was well planned and there was no loophole. Suddenly, THE CHRISTIANS IN NIGERIA WENT INTO PRAYERS AND PRAISES UNTO THEIR GOD AND ALL OUR PLANS WERE SHATTERED. As a result, the witches and wizards conference could not hold in Nigeria."

I could give more of others, but it is obvious once again that satan has masterminded a film or "craze" to entice this generation into demonology and wickedness through subtly – making you appreciate, want and accept devilry at its core. From the mere fact God said, "thou shalt not suffer a witch to live," should clearly tell his stances on witchcraft and wizardry. He himself said, "There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD" (Due 18:10-12).

The same exact magic wizard delusion is done through other noted films, like Dungeons and Dragons, Lord of Ring, The wizard of Oz, Charmed, Teen Witch, The Wizard, Magic: Gathering, The Never Ending Story and many others! Some of these I haven't watched. My prayer is that you're not fooled.

Star Wars

I grew up on things like Star Wars, I remember having a complete sheet set on my bed as child, plus the toys. With the reemergence of it – Episodes 1-6 and my Christian conversion I got to find out some of the deception it holds. I dealt with most of them earlier, the alien delusions, cloning, Artificial Intelligence and several others. But take this quote from the makers themselves:

“Revealing himself to be Yoda, the Jedi Master began Luke’s training in earnest. Telekinetic challenges, challenges of the will and body, more challenges than Luke had ever faced before helped mold the reckless youth into a Jedi. Still, Luke failed to “unlearn” his preconceptions. When asked to raise his sunken starfighter from the Dagobah swamps with the power of his mind alone, he responded he would try. “No,” scolded Yoda. “Do, or do not. There is no try.” Luke did not believe the Force could lift such a massive object. He was proven wrong when Yoda telekinetically lifted the X-wing fighter and placed it on dry land. Again, Luke was incredulous – he did not believe; that is why he failed.

When Yoda taught Luke how to “farsee” into the future, a chilling vision of his friends in danger caused the young Skywalker to abandon his training. Luke promised he would return, and rocketed off to rescue his friends. In the end, Luke failed, having to be rescued himself. Yoda feared all would be lost in the effort to stop Vader and the Emperor.

About a year later, Luke did return to conclude his training. Having faced the hardship of confrontation with Vader, and having learned that Vader was actually his father, Luke learned from Yoda that his training was complete. In Luke’s absence, Yoda had become quite ill. As he lay dying, Yoda shed some light on Luke’s distant past: there was another Skywalker. Yoda died shortly thereafter, disappearing as his body became one with the Force [A TYPE OF GAIA].

Luke would learn that Leia Organa was his sister, and he would also reclaim his father from the dark side. At the celebration after the Battle of Endor, Luke saw the specter of Yoda, joined by ghostly images of Obi-Wan Kenobi, and Anakin Skywalker, his father, who had died in the light” (Starwars.com).

In other words, Star Wars isn't just about advanced technologies but mingled with ancient metaphysics, yoga, meditation, mysticism, Reiki, the Upanishads, and Vedanta; in other words, paganism, devilry and witchcraft is masked under a supposedly fictional saga. Do you know how many kids out there now believe in the force? I myself keep remembering the line “the force be with you;” after watching this film. Why? Because it's a program and that's what programs do, alter your thought, belief system and thus eternal state without you knowing. Though this might not be relating to Star Wars, the Bible did say this about the Anti-Christ, “Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers...for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not” (Dan 11:38).

Notice I highlighted three quotes from the makers of Star Wars above: 1. “Telekinetic challenges” 2. “‘farsee’ into the future” and 3. “ghostly images.”

Telekinetic or “Psychokinesis (PK) – sometimes referred to as telekinesis or mind over matter – is the ability to move things or otherwise affect the property of things with the power of the mind. Of psychic abilities, true psychokinesis is one of the rarest. Few have been able to demonstrate this ability, and even those demonstrations are highly contested by the skeptics” (Stephen Wagner). One psychic website I went to had a product advertising telekinesis, “Develop your psychic energy, & your ability to focus & send it. Instructions included for using this carefully balanced, light-weight instrument to increase your telekinetic skills.” Therefore, “Telekinesis is the psychic ability that involves the ability to move objects, living beings, things and energies with your mind or spirit.”

2. To “ ‘farsee’ into the future ” literally means doing what psychics do, by the evil spirits that give them insight though some don’t know it. In other words, Star Wars is enticing your kids to be little psychics or use evil divinations.

Ghostly Images, as previously discussed, are evil spirits pretending to be somebody and thus the one in contact with Ghosts are in contact with evil spirits or more commonly, Fallen Angels. Notice that Luke’s father “had died in the light.” What is light? There is only one light, Jesus Christ and the salvation he gives. That’s why the scripture said, “In him was life; and the life was the light of men” (John 1:4). No wonder he could have said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me (John 14:6). Not by any other means or force.

Not that all the things in the occult are evil in and of themselves but should only be done by the Spirit of God. So much so that the word of God encourages us to “ ‘farsee’ into the future.” Where? It said, “covet to prophesy” (1 Cor 14:39); but not through metaphysics. This is one of the first outer space technologically advanced movies that uses so-called ancient primitive methods of metaphysics. Nicely done deception! Let the Spirit of God be with you!

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon

To tell the truth, this is one of the best Martial Arts Karate films I’ve ever seen and when I was young and unsaved I saw a lot, I mean a lot. This particular karate film was inspired by a book Ang lee, the director, read. It is hard to talk against martial arts because it is already woven into mainstream life and existed from a previous culture. However, our society and culture is so drenched in demonology under the pretext of tolerance that many are fallen away. In “Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon,” we see that karate movies have moved from pure kickboxing to love stories; in other words, emotional appeal is woven into this movie, making it impossible for anyone not to be deceived. At one point, Li Mu Bai (Chow Yun Fat) upon death spoke of going to heaven when he dies or being a ghost by the side of his female friend, Michelle Yeow. The two notions are incorrect, yet will be embedded in the minds of the viewers. Unless you’re born again you’re not going to paradise and when you die you’re not going to see the earth’s surface anymore (Lk 16:20-31); ghosts are contraptions of fallen angels. Emotional appeal is not the only thing used, but appeal to sociological issues – they made this film center around some of the so-called struggles women face (feminism) rather than pure fighting, revenge or killing. Jade Fox became Jade Fox because she was refused to study “Wudan” (or Wuxia), a type of martial arts for only men. The new holder of the Green Destiny Sword, Zhang Ziyi (Jen Yu), is a young female that literally broke the barrier of the long line of male bearers. The former owner and martial expert Li Mu Bai finally concluded that she should be the first woman to study “Wudan.” When she fought the men in the village as a new comer to this lifestyle, she was startled by their long-wind aliases. However, upon disgracing these men in battle she finally gave herself a name with “goddess” in it – another new ageist feminism delusion as against Proverbs 31. In other words, for you to be hooked on the evils of this film (Martial Arts, feminism, etc) emotional and sociological appeal was used and will exist in most modern films today.

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon and all karate films (Enter the Dragon, The Crow, Dragon Ball Z, Drunken Master, Karate Kid, the Three Ninjas and lots more) entices the viewers to appreciate, want and accept the Martial Arts. What is wrong with that, you might ask? You cannot separate the “arts” from the religion. If you’re a practitioner of the ‘arts’, you’re a practitioner of the religion. The religions of Hinduism, Taoism, Buddhism and others that worship statues, men and hold a lot of fallacy and abomination unto the Lord. In fact, Ang Lee himself said on the DVD sleeve borrowed from my cousin, “the secret martial arts are passed down over time in the great Taoist school of training and of thought.” Taoist comes from Taoism which is a religion in China and “a form of religion dealing with deities and spirits, magic and soothsaying...it was organized with temples, cult, priests, and monasteries...” (The Time Almanac, 1998). The deities and spirit it speak of are Fallen Angels or commonly called devils. The 1998 Almanac went further to say, “Central are the word Tao, which means way or path and, in a deeper sense, signifies the principle that underlines reality of this world...” Do you see the big picture now; this film and others like it are subtly pushing a pagan religion on you. Notice how it comes out when Michelle Lo said to Zhang Ziyi, “what path you choose in this life be true to yourself.” She said this after losing Li Mu Bai to death after being in love with him for years. In other words, you are the master of your own domain, choose a path regardless of the consequences; go fornicate it is your path, go kill a man it is your path, go bomb up building it is your path. God’s words totally contradict this path theology when it says, “walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment” (Ecc 11:9). Need I say more, but you would not get this deception in this movie, would you? Because it is woven into a love story with high flying special effects karate thrills.

Take this excerpt from an unknown source,

The word “MARTIAL” means “OF WARFARE” or “SUITABLE FOR WARFARE”. Martial Arts techniques were developed in India, China and later in Korea and Japan.

They are all forms of combat (usually unarmed) and are grouped together under names such as “KUNG-FU” (China), “TAEKWONDO” (Korea), AIKIDO, KARATE, JUDO (Japan).

The word “ARTS” indicates that they are not just forms of combat but expressions of EASTERN “SPIRITUAL” Philosophies and it is this “SPIRITUAL LINK” which lights the fuse to a deadly keg of ‘SPIRITUAL, PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DYNAMITE!’

In the words of Fred Neff (Author of “Hand Fighting Manual”),

“UNDERSTANDING OF BOTH THE PHYSICAL AND THE PHILOSOPHICAL PRINCIPLES IS REQUIRED OF EVERY MARTIAL ARTS STUDENT.”

It is believed by “MARTIAL ARTS” instructors, that through a series of repetitive physical exercises, access can be gained to a realm known as the “SPIRIT WORLD”, where tremendous power is available to the practitioner.

NOTE: This belief is common to all Occult Philosophy, including Yoga, T.M., Taoism, Spiritism, Zen (Buddhism), etc and it is the height of foolishness to think that a person can engage in just the physical aspects (branches) of 'Martial Arts', (Judo, Yoga and so on) without being drawn into the deeper Spiritual Realm (The Root).

We are told by one female expert for self defence (Black belt) that "The techniques of 'Martial Arts' (including Judo) have their origin in the SPIRITS OF ANIMALS, such as Tigers, Cobras, Monkeys, Bears etc and the student is encouraged to TAKE ON THE SPIRIT UNDERLYING THE TECHNIQUE IE BECOME A COBRA, TIGER etc. In the same book, the author encourages women to fight back by "Pressing their attacker's eyes into their brains" OR "Paralyzing them with a kick in the groin" OR "Making them dance with the threat of breaking a little finger" (Kaleghl Quinn – "Stand Your Ground").

The man who was responsible for the development of Judo. (Dr Jigoro Kano) found a school in Tokyo called the KODOKAN which means "The Way". This final insult in the face of the Son of God and Saviour of the world JESUS CHRIST who said, "I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE, NO ONE COMES TO THE FATHER BUT BY ME" (John 14:6).

Will you encourage your children on the broad way to hell? Martial Arts will help lead to damnation – Yes, Damnation!

These religions, such as Hinduism are relatively old and at one time God just allowed them to be without pressing aggressively with "preachers" exposing the truth; but because he loves them he's now calling all practioners to leave these religions or Hell's fire awaits – no pardon. The word of God sates,

"God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man [Jesus]" (Acts 17:24-31)

Repent means to change, the best way is to stop from watching these movies.

Star Hunter

Star Hunter is another sci-fi film that depicted to me the technology takeover with the internet. What had happen at one instance is that someone reprogrammed their space ship's A.I to destroy the ship. It locked in the crew and other things, all because everything was computerized. Just to demonstrate the technological Internet takeover, at one point the reprogram holographic A.I "dissed" a member of the crew by saying, "The program I use to boil the water is smarter than you." When I watched that the Sunday night I didn't thought much of it until the next day – a program used to boil the water – an actual computer program that makes fresh boiled water for you every morning. I realized how close we are to this when I considered the microwave. But being connected to a full computerize system (internet) will make boiling water like typing your name. You'd be on your way home and send a command (typed or voiced) for the water to boil. This might look like a great help to everyday life, but with everything computerize your privacy will be gone, easy to hack in your life and more importantly, for you to be controlled as seen in the section on the internet or the ICI document – www.threeq.com/pages/internet.html.

Jake 2.0

Having read the previous chapters consisting of Mutants, Cyborgs and the Internet, the series Jake 2.0 is not hard to understand. What happened is that he's a mutated cyborg type action hero with the ability to connect to computers, half man half machine without physically having any element of metal in him – he's the ultimate 21st century mutant. It's called Jake 2.0 because it's an upgrade of Jake, like windows 5.0 to windows XP. Again, hitting the spot earlier mention of the devil's wickedness of upgrading humans who are Satanists and others by mutation. Jake had the ability by his mutation not only to be stronger, quicker and smarter but also could wirelessly turn on computers and operate them. Wasn't this a successful experiment of Prof. Warick about the chip he placed within himself, recorded earlier? He said,

“In August 1998, a silicon chip was implanted in my arm, allowing a computer to monitor me as I moved through the halls and offices of the Department of Cybernetics at the University of Reading, just west of London, where I've been a professor since 1988. My implant communicated via radio waves with a network of antennas throughout the department that in turn transmitted the signals to a computer programmed to respond to my actions. At the main entrance, a voice box operated by the computer said “Hello” when I entered; the computer detected my progress through the building, opening the door to my lab for me as I approached it and switching on the lights. For the nine days the implant was in place, I performed seemingly magical acts simply by walking in a particular direction.”

In other words, Jake 2.0 is not just a mutant but a cyborg, “mark of the beast” puppet and the perfect Internet – wireless interconnection of computers by a fleshly living organism. This is not far off from reality and an enticement for it; because one news source recorded this about the chip that is place in the hand, “other potential application would put the chips in the role of an ultimate ID, capable of performing many of the roles that are performed by keys and ATM cards” (Dec 19, 2001).

At the end of this first episode of Jake 2.0 there was two things that had great significance.

One, they inducted him in a special secret agency – typical recruitment of Satanists, especially high level ones in government agencies. As mentioned earlier, Satanists force potentials into satanism. Mutating them, giving them familiar spirits and other things are used to make them feel special, to succor them in an initial atmosphere of elitism; like saying “you're the one,” “you're accepted with us” or “this is your thru calling.” Most often, prior to this, spirits would have made them socially inept and thus the agency or coven would be like a blessing where they can fit in. Much like Jake's nerd boy character.

Two, He handed his friend a wireless mouse to end the movie. First he came to fix her computer, she had an old system he suggested a wireless or upgrade. His mutation kicks in, a few scenes of it, then at the end he handed her the wireless mouse. In other words, you [representing other humans] need an upgrade too, like me.

X-Files

X-files might seem fictional to many but it has true tenets. For instance, the double-crossing within the agency. Reason being, most of these agencies are fronts for satanic agendas. But you can't point your finger at the F.B.I or C.I.A, because supposedly ordinary people like Molder and Skully run it. They do the dirty work while "the insiders" or devils in flesh do the cover up or devilry. They locate the ones who know the truth and the insiders indirectly have them killed or something to that effect. In other words, they are high paying puppets. A great example is seen in the movie "Triple X" or "XXX" starring Vin Diesel. He was thrown into the agency headlong and as his superiors said, "he's dispensable." As all human puppets are for these fronts. These agencies could also be used to harass progressive saints or assemblies "legally". As saints, we have to remember that mostly evil propel the worldly Kingdoms of this planet, though that will never be evidentially physical.

On the other hand, the direct story themes behind x-files have also duped the public in endless errors and paganism. For instance, one episode I watched Sept 7, 2003 Sunday night, indirectly taught that humans have Martians progenitors; in other words, we are put here by a higher race from Mars. They had a piece of strange writing that says it contains all the human genetic make-up. The rest of it and what looked like a Martian space ship was found off the Ivory Coast. This sort of thinking is embedded in several movies. They are not going to come and say these things, except Molder, but rather, episode after episode forces you to choose or draw a conclusion which they want you to draw – somewhat psychological; that's why T.V shows are programs. Other popular extra-terrestrial films do the same thing, like E.T, Aliens, Independence Day, Stars Wars, Starship Trooper and others keep programming the public of the alien delusion – there existence, their superiority, their possible help or wrath and the delusion goes on, even some that are biblical. The section of Aliens already taught on the truth about it but how can you resist to believe some of these things if you keep watching these films. This alone from the X-files program would get your ticker going, "The Truth is out there." Unfortunately, they teach a truth that is beyond what is real truth – "The Bible."

Fortress

When I watched this film I thought this is too obvious, mark on the hand scanned at ports, population control and then the epitome of it shown in the underground prison system. The closest thing I'd watch to this control environment film, years ago, was Demolition Man. Now when I watched Fortress I thought this is impossible, why would satan allow such a film to depict exactly what will or is happening? We are probably wrong, it might not be going to or is happening this way. Then I remembered what I said earlier, "Hollywood plays a major role in diverting the public from believing these things aren't harmful because the devil knows that 'nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad' (Lk 8:17). So like the woman with the familiar spirit who mocked Paul with the truth (Acts 16:17-18), he has to subtly bring it out so as to pacify it before it is revealed or made manifest."

Though I'm not enticing movie watching, you have to see this movie to believe what is intended:- the mark on the hand, an insert in the belly (literally and/or representative of possession), Artificial Intelligence, Cyborgs, clones, Audio/Video monitoring and lots of technology; all working in a environment to control humans and make them a New World Order slave.

A.I Artificial Intelligence

This Spielberg film, A.I, is really a frightening one, starring the same little boy from sixth sense; now as a robot name David. It portraits much deception but can hardly be seen being captivated by the real intense melodramatic scenes, Haley Osment can really act. It is scary because A.I has long since been amongst us in different forms, but if propelled to this level satan might well have an army of machines and props for controlling you; even if you have them in your homes as helps. Seeing that it is computers, it can and will be used against you, much like the delusion with the computer chip placed in the hands or the use of the internet. Not only that, but it will help in heightening sin in more ways than one, as even portrait in the movie. For instance, it use for artificial sex, much like an upgrade to a vibrator as seen in the character Jude Law plays. Don't think these humanoid A.I aren't been developed because even one scientist said, "My colleague Russell Beale once suggested a useful introductory definition of Artificial Intelligence (AI) for people who know nothing about it: "AI can be defined as the attempt to get real machines to behave like the ones in the movies" (Aaron Sloman, <http://www.cs.bham.ac.uk/~axs/misc/aiforschools.html>). In other words, as I've said throughout this book, "life follows art." Also from IBM's site: "Artificial Intelligence (AI) is the study of how computer systems can simulate intelligent processes such as learning, reasoning, and understanding symbolic information in context. AI is inherently a multi-disciplinary field. Although it is most commonly viewed as a subfield of computer science, and draws upon work in algorithms, databases, and theoretical computer science, AI also has close connections to the neurosciences, cognitive science and cognitive psychology, mathematical logic, and engineering" (from Research: Artificial Intelligence).

What this film does is causes you to sympathies to and be really enticed to have A.I's. Our society have already been pruned for this – that is, growing up on Barbie dolls and other humanoid toys. For instance, when I was younger I had an attachment to a 'teddy bear' who was a monkey. I slept with it, eat with it, played with it and kept it clean, plus it always stay only on my bed when I'm not there. Ironically, my teddy was also named David. All my relatives knew the love I had for David. One day my cousins came for the holidays and an afternoon when I came into my room I saw David hanging from the window with a cord around his neck; they did it to mock me. I went straight up to my cousin and punched here square in the eye, even though she was older than I. I remember Deon crying after that whack. I had so much feelings for a lifeless inanimate piece of material, imagine the fascination many will have with humanoid A.I's.

One biblical scene alone from the movie A.I will fix you permanently to accept, use and be entangled in humanoid A.I's. The scene entails the destruction of two A.I including David at this celebration of life festival. The announcer announced in slight jester, "he who is without sin cast the first stone." They had this object in there hands to hit a target over the A.I's head and acid would pour out and destroy the machine. No one could cast the balls they had in their hands to destroy the cute looking A.I David and in outraged tossed it at the announcer. Another film that has long program you to this coming reality is Star Trek and epitomized by its movie Star Trek Nemesis. Everyone who watch Star Trek the series will know that "Data" is the most popular A.I in the movie industry seconded by Johnny 5. "Data," the humanoid A.I on Captain Picard ship showed us why he is the leading A.I in show biz. He made the choice of sacrificing himself to save captain Picard and the ship – a task not even the captain wanted him to do. The entire survival from start to finish of The Enterprise was because of Data, in the movie Star Trek Nemesis. Other films, like The Matrix or even Terminator 3: Rise of the Machines, also shows the perils that this may cause, but always with humans overcoming; in other words, this peril will never happen humans will make sure of that, relax and don't speak out against it. With film like these and the western culture of humanoid toys, it will be easy to get caught in another plot of the enemy to ensnare the lives of men through A.I.: And don't think they are not coming because M.I.T has an entire department dedicating to making it a reality and with we getting lazier and lazier having machines that can think for themselves would seems like a blessing. In fact, Business Week's 2003 edition of The BusinessWeek50 said, "Some managers still think that artificial intelligence—the decades-long effort to create computer systems with human-like smarts—has been a big flop. But executives at most companies on the BW50 list know better. Artificial intelligence (AI) is often a crucial ingredient in their stellar performance. In fact, AI is now a part of a swath of industries as broad as the BW50 itself" (aaai.org).

Then nearing the end of the Spielberg film A.I, they had to include another delusion – the UFO phenomena; 2000 years later when man became extinct they found David. Again fooling the public of alien bodies living on another planet with superior technology that probably had a hand in creating man. Lies all lies. And by the way, man will never become extinct; we even continue when time is ended (Rev 22:5). Avoid A.I even in its non-humanoid form, as it is computers and thus can be easily used to manipulate you – fully discussed in the section Modern Technology and the ICI document. Nevertheless, it is getting inevitable especially with the use of the internet and the doubling of knowledge every three years. Advancement might equal your control.

Another cover up I dear to cite and feel compelled to interject is mind control slaves, as previously mentioned. The way in which David maneuvers and is programmed is the same way mind control effects its captives. Their intelligence is altered to be controlled so in a sense they are artificially intelligent, much like the ones at NASA – "compu kids." As previously mentioned, similar to the movie's different mechas or A.I's, they are different mind control slaves: Delta for killing and assassination, Bravo 2 series for running the beast computer, Juliet series for using in sex scandals and wild parties and many other types. The way in which A.I are treated in Spielberg's movie A.I, is the same way mind control slaves are treated. Used and disposed of, especially if you're a Juliet series slave, use for things like compromising politicians. I'm not making this up, humans are programmed to function exactly as A.I's, which would make this sort of technology (mind control) superior to humanoid robotics even in its greatest advancements. Read a book called "The Illuminati's Formula For Creating An Undetectable Mind Control Slave." Notice the word "Undetectable;" check the references at the end to find an online and hard copy.

Spy Kids 3-D: Game Over

This is another high tech movie with a Matrix theme. The spy kids, like Neo, are beamed into a virtual reality world or Game where as the Coral Spring local paper puts it, "to save the world from a power hungry villain." This movie brings us closer to the other side of the Matrix I didn't mention. That is, I saw a play station 2 advertisement and at the end of it this comment was made, "Live in your world, play in ours." Many don't realize that this theme has a hidden agenda behind it, which is the catalyst of the real "Matrix Revolution." What is that? You alive in this literal world and your sub conscience is in another world, but it seems like the real world. Just like how the members of Morpheus' ship beam themselves through their sub conscience hooked to a computer into the virtual reality world (a playing ground for the devil). If they die in that world, as seen in the movie 'The Matrix', they die in the real life. Though this is a nice movie, it's someone's intention for us as a people in future. How far it gets, no one can tell.

Everything in the gaming industry, virtual reality industry and computers are leading up to that end. Even the different funny faces in your hotmail account, "emoticons," are the beginning stages, though very very far from it. Guest books, interests and profile collection online are stages to make perfect avatars – those little dolls you have representing you online. An avatar also means incarnation or “the embodiment of a deity or spirit in some earthly form” (Webster). In other words, avatars are incarnation of spirits. If humans are to have avatars, real ones, that would be exactly what is seen in the movie Matrix. Because that would mean your soul disembodied from your flesh into another dimension or substances; like Neo beaming into the Matrix or a devil (fallen angel) taking on a human form. If life follows art, as seen in many instances, then a computer system might be developed where you can be incarnated into a computerized body. This can only lead to untold devilry. See a remarkable development of this at www.sitepal.com

If time tarries, what you’ll be able to do is the same exact thing Neo, Morpheus, Trinity, etc. do in the movie ‘The Matrix’. The other world is already created, it’s call the ‘internet.’ Online dolls, role-playing and avatars are progressive stages. Development from here to the “Real Matrix Revolution” might take time but it’s certain and with Hollywood, it will be appealing; like this movie Spy Kids 3-D:Game Over. There is actually a project at MIT developing real life avatars (visit: <http://web.media.mit.edu/~hannes/project/intro.html>).

Sims Online is one of the online games that draws us closer to this. One article wrote, “Chase is a mob dealer - but only in the virtual world. He is one of hundreds of players who found the path of lawlessness and deviance too irresistible when ‘The Sims Online’ challenged them to ‘be Somebody...else’. The popular commercial game, where thousands of people interact electronically, is turning into a petri dish of anti-social behavior. And that’s raising questions about whether limits on conduct should be set in such emerging virtual worlds, even if they are huge adult play pens.” Isn’t it then obvious that the direct theme behind the Movie matrix and Spy Kids 3-D:Game Over are not just entertainment but meant to deceive, pacify and entice to a coming evil reality; plus distract us from God.

Jurassic Park

Through Hollywood and some secular school teaching, satan is attempting to have we think (saved and unsaved) that we are just another animal and not the glorious dominant reflection of God that we are (Gen 1:27); even worse, that we are descendants of monkeys or some single celled organism or put here by aliens. Planet of The Apes, Jurassic Park 2 and 3, PBS’s Evolution, Star Gate, Magic School bus and others help this along greatly; Dinotopia to an extent (could be a counteraction). But God purposely made man dominant rulers of the earth. “All things were made by Him (John 1:3), including dinosaurs. Why then did the dinosaurs disappear? The answer may be found in Job 40:15-24. In this passage, God speaks about a great creature called “‘behemoth’. Some commentators think this was a hippopotamus. However, the hippo’s tail isn’t like a large tree [as described in this verse], but a small twig. Following are the characteristics of this huge animal: It was the largest of all the creatures God made; was plant-eating (herbivorous); had it strength in its hips and tail like a large tree. It had very strong bones, lived among trees, drank massive amounts of water, and was not disturbed by the raging river. He appears impervious to attack because his nose could pierce through snares, but scripture says, “He that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.” In other words, God caused this, the largest of all the creatures he made, to become extinct” (The Evidence Bible, Good News S. Florida, 2003). Why? Only he can tell, but one suggestion is that since spirits can posses an animal they would be able to possess dinosaurs and through this possession terrorize the land in dominance; over against the natural need to eat. Not that the dinosaurs have this capacity or resistance as Jurassic Park suggests (would be “ruling primate”), but being possessed by a higher intelligent force can be willed to act intelligently. So it’s not the dinosaurs but the spirit beings maneuvering them. Similar to how God use beasts to discipline disobedient Israelites, “So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee” (Eze 5:17). This is not difficult for evil spirits to do, because even some witches who travel as cats or other animals don’t always transform themselves in one but actually leave their body and possess the creature. God place in nature some strain on certain animals that if they had their way biologically, man would be extinct; the same goes for dinosaurs or greater size beasts, whether in intelligence or bodily senses. For instance, one book noted, “insects have not lungs such as man has; they breathe through tubes. But the tubes do not grow larger as the insect grows, thus preventing the development of big insects. Without this natural restriction on the size of the insect’s breathing apparatus, man would long since have lost his battle with tiny creatures” (Dr. A. Cressy Morrison). Moreover, humans are one of the best restrictions on larger animals because of our God given intelligence to dominate an area. For instance, God told the Israelites not to destroy all the nations just yet, lest the beasts come up on the wasted land and dominated it, “thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee” (Due 7:22). In other words, humans were settling on the area and thus beasts, greater in size and strength couldn’t dwell there because humans prevented them. You’re greater than all beasts on the earth and God made it so (Gen 1:26); now through being born again you’re greater than all God’s creatures in the entire universe (angels, seraphim, etc) and Christ made it so (Heb 1:3-9, Heb 2:11). You’ll see this in the last two chapters.

The Abyss

This is the only movie I didn’t watch this summer, it was one of my Old time favorite. I’d always thought it was nice science fiction film. But later found out by ex-satanists and research that devils have underwater civilizations. Remember, fallen angels are spirit beings, so they can go, live and be anywhere. I like how the movie Abyss puts them, as lights or illuminated creatures that can easily manipulate water. Not only that, they can take the shape of anything or create bodies to dwell in, even “Mer-people”; they are several accounts during history of people spotting Mermaids. Nevertheless, that seems too far-fetch to explore, let the Disney’s Little Mermaid 2 suffice. You see the problem often lies in who fallen angels are and their nature. The only thing we can compare spirit beings to is God, being that he is spirit. There are six bible definitions of God, who is so complex that no one definition can suffice.

Psalms 36:9 – “With thee, O God, is the fountain of life”
 James 1:17 – “The Father of lights”
 1 John 1:5 – “God is love”
 1 John 4:8-16 – “God is love”
 John 4:24 – “God is a spirit”
 Hebrews 12:9 – “Father of spirits”

His nature is spirit and spirits are basically light; with the ability to have no distinct form. He is the father of spirits because he made all spirit beings and being spirit meant that their nature is also light; thus making him the father of lights. Notice that light and spirit are used interchangeable, because if you literally saw a spirit you would see pure light, clearer than crystal (Ex 24:10). This is God’s nature. Yet because of love, he forsook this perfection to come and die for man in corruptible flesh. By this demonstration of love he has given those who believe in him life, being that with him is the fountain of life:- “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). Remember, Jesus isn’t another man but God the Father in flesh. That’s why the word of God tells us this about Jesus, “He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not” (John 1:10). In other words, God, ruler of all things that made the heaven and earth was in the world as another human being and the world up till now don't know that; except for a select few that the world don't know either – genuine born again Christians.

Others

As mentioned earlier, they are many others if not all. By no means am I telling you to watch T.V but rather to turn it off, no matter how mature or spiritual you deem yourself. Some of the shows are so subtly it's hard to grasp, like "Joan of Arcadia" or even some under the guise of Christian viewing, not sure, but possibly "Touch By An Angel;" they are things that don't coincide with scripture. They are even some alleged Bible prophecy movies that are far from the actual thing. In an attempt to visualize prophecy, symbology is visualized and secular scene fillers are used to piece it together. This is most often done out of zeal but we have to be careful and overly precise when it comes to prophecy, it's not an Hollywood thing. One thing is for sure, he who controls the media controls the world, a bit like the movie "Tomorrow Never Dies," with James Bond trying to take down a Media Tyrant. In the movie "Omega Code 2: Megiddo," the anti-Christ said this about T.V or Mass Media, "It does the work for me." I can't see it any clearer than that; get rid of it and train your child not to watch it (Prov 22:6)!

Conclusion

Born again Christians today shun the preachings of old, opting to say it is not relevant for today or the preachers themselves were superstitious, thus they now conclude that we can watch T.V but use moderation. Lie! Moderation itself varies. The Holy Ghost Change not, so when this evil device started years ago and his prophets spake against it, it still stands; more so now. The thing with preaching is that it gives instructions from God but doesn't explain why (Due 29:29); those of faith will follow. But what I've done is shown you about 70% of the evil intent of T.V and movies. What you do now with the truth is up to you. My hope is that you refrain from it and definitely keep the children away as well.

* denotes, where I might mix up names of movies, episodes or any such things, even strangely (time), is because of this:

In keeping with the thesis of the contents of this book being devoured by suckerers, they seeing places and sources where I get content from; when I began to do so (get it), it was probably manipulated or blocked. For instance, most of the FAQ's in "The Voice..." are persons emailing, so they blocked my emails, as lamented to Yahoo Inc in a recent letter, which has to be deliberate manipulation for it is a paid account with Gigs for space and for example, couldn't refuse email for over quota when I just got the email. Notice the ACC reference, it is a website or blog of mine, they freeze the account on the local county or state servers, so if persons asked questions or made references to things they had suck, they would delete it; and to a lesser extent, pre-gurgitate the source with the suckry. I've join under different names, then change the name on all groups (it's automatic and instant) but days later when I went to ACC I saw that the name wasn't changed on the .NET pass; it is efficient and should take immediate effect, which it did on the other groups, but not ACC, it means the group is frozen up for manipulation and why persons stop joining, even after 30, 000 invites to people who know me of that interest. This is said to prove my theory fact of suckry correct, which with this simple demonstration it is not a theory but a fact, many more obvious evidences and literal demonstrations I can give. Hence, the person who has the content that I should have from the Lord is the sucker and the person acclaiming the credits is a Testament that they are of this kind and posses such abilities to give my exact words with my exact personal experiences, having literally seen it before it was said. Hence the reason to block experiences, which I give often reference to in writing, to block their obvious suckry.

Another example with the SOURCE thingy in trying to avoid what they foresee in me realizing and exposing the suckery. That is, to avoid being the echo and solidify that I'm the legitimate author, I had started to put every source where I get everything from in quotations or research so no one would say I'm following so and so but that I did my own research and if anyone has what I said, even exactly, they are the suckerer – as Christ said, so am I – "All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them" (John 10:8). Now, by the Holy Ghost I've seen where this is also futile, because if they can see what I would do they would also foresee what I would do to avoid being an echo and fix that as well. In this case, stating the source in the suckery so when I found out about suckery in general and started doing it they would have already put that in and I would still be the echo. However, something happened, that is, in doing this they quoted sources that was not yet written and even worse, written by me as well. For example, by the Holy Ghost, though not fully remembering, but by the Holy Ghost, they quoted parts of FAQ 326 that says, "fully explained in the book

'Demonology Revealed'." Not only wasn't that book written as yet (2003), but also, I'm the author of that book and cross-reference my own books. To avoid that now they would say they probably spoke of another book with the same name, though I know of none and that would be unsuccessful. But by the Holy Ghost again, I saw a more avaricious suckry and attempted concealment of the suckery. They in the suckery seeing that I'm trying to avoid being the echo by quoting detailed sources did the same thing with another book that I'd written, but this time thinking this would be sure because of the astuteness and length of the source. That is, in another writing I quoted a section from the Student Manifesto, which is written like a piece of legislature, so when in the suckery they saw that I said Part this, Section This, Clause this of the Student Manifesto, they quickly said it to make sure I wouldn't escape being the echo and give them the credit for my work. They not knowing that the Student Manifesto wasn't yet written (2004) and more importantly written by me. As said they are loop holes in catching them and more examples like these, but you see the endless mental maddening gymnastics; and they seeing this after can do the same thing with known sources I would later use before its time by manipulating the T.V I watch, which I have seen them manipulating it; never wanted to touch on this aspect of T.V until Demonology Concealed, but....

Hence this encoded prophetic verse, "there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil" (Ecc 2:21). This man would be me in this case and a sucker taking my portion (not necessarily distribution release I had done) and this would definitely be a GREAT evil!

“WE” ARE HIGHER THAN ANGELS

We have seen where the real fight lies. That is, with spirit beings who compromise of the 1/3 angels that fell with satan. They are the principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, spiritual wickedness in high places and devils mentioned throughout the Bible. In the previous chapter especially, we saw how they operate and how influential and organized they are. It would make any non-believer afraid. However, once born again, your spiritual status and privilege will give you confidence. Why?

Born-again believers are of the highest spiritual excellence and/or righteousness. Actually, though this maybe shocking, born-again believers are more righteous than "angels".

How?

Jesus was “made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they” (Heb 1:4). In other words, this right or status is gained by inheritance. We, like Jesus, would have inherited it. The Psalmist David hinted at this in the 17th Psalms verse 15, “As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness.” So, it is after we put off this mortal flesh we shall truly see it.

You might say Heb 1:4 was only talking about Jesus! Well this verse says other wise and includes all born again believers:

“For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one” (Heb 2:11).

Meaning, the same righteousness or holiness that Jesus has, who is far above all angels and powers, is the same exact holiness we as born-again believers posses. In fact, this verse made it even plainer, “Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures” (James 1:18). “Creatures,” here, means man, angels, cherubim, seraphim and all other creature. I also checked out the Greek word used for “firstfruits,” which is ‘Aparche.’ Did you know that it means “persons superior in excellence to others of the same class.” In other words, born again believers are far higher, not only than angels, but all creatures; being second to God!

Even further, I heard one preacher (E.L) expounding on this text and it sanctioned what I just said, “Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2). He said that in the language it was translated from, the word “shall” was added for clarity. It should then read, “it doth not yet appear what we be: but we know that, when he appears, we be like him.” In other words, it’s a now action already enforced, but clearly seen when Christ appears the second time. We already have that status of superiority, but being plagued with finite understanding we cannot attain to it until the finite (flesh) is taken off.

When I first realized this I was so blown away, I was behind the computer doing the research with crosswalk.com and suddenly exhaled so loudly that the school librarian probably looked at me with disdain. But I thought, me, greater than the angels; you got to be kidding.

No wonder the devil wants to keep born-again Christians in ignorance.

Mrs. Lewis, my former sixth-former History teacher (very adept), taught us that the abolition Act of 1833 freed the slaves throughout Great Britain's Empire, but only education could secure it; which actually did happen. Reason being, they were free but unless they knew how to secure their freedom, their former masters would manipulate them into being "free bondman;" or, non-coercive slaves. While doing tertiary studies a K.C, I learnt many things concerning slavery that is not taught, much more not known. Many people still think slavery was abolish because of humanitarian reasons, but both in America and Great Britain we had undisputable learnt that economic reasons had its part. Authors like Eric Williams detailed this, as we learnt in the Green book.

He noted that after 1833 the ex-slaves had to reprogram their minds (education) that they weren't inferior livestock, but are human beings just as their former masters, regardless of whatever state they're in. Likewise, a born-again believer has to now "reprogram" his or her mind that he or she is no longer inferior to angels, spirits, imps and devils, but in fact, higher than them through Jesus Christ. In reality, we are second to God.

You might say, "we are greater in status than even the 'good' angels." Yep, we are second to God. This verse clarifies it, "But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation" (Heb 1:14-15)? In other words, none of the angels at any time will have the privilege we have.

Because he "is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God: [all] angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him" (1 Pet 3:22). We are there too, by faith (Heb 2:11); Christ being the first example. No wonder the Apostle Paul could have said, "Know ye not that we shall judge angels" (1 Cor 6:3)?

YOUR PRAYERS ARE HEARD

One of the best things about this is to know that one is right next to God. So anything one says, he hears and 'will' do; "And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: And we know that we have the petition that we desired of him" (1 John 5:14).

The prayers of a born-again believer, in both petitions and commands, will always be answered, as long as it is in God's will. Having the knowledge of this increases one faith tremendously. Wouldn't you pray more and take authority over every situation if you knew you were heard and backed by God himself?

After full assurance, faith and knowledge of Justification, one will be glorified as an authorized son or an authorized "agent" of God. Without it, a born again believer cannot function effectively in any capacity of ministry, though possessing the power and probably an outward show.

JUSTIFICATION

One bible teacher noted, "A believer that is lacking this understanding [Justification] is like a jumbo jet on the runaway with no gasoline – he has all the equipment but is going nowhere" (J.M).

That is why it is elementary that one develops faith and knowledge in justification/sanctification before one becomes an authorized user of the word of God. Baker's evangelical dictionary of bible theology had this to say,

...The generic meaning of sanctification is "the state of proper functioning." To sanctify someone or something is to set that person or thing apart for the use intended by its designer. A pen is "sanctified" when used to write. Eyeglasses are "sanctified" when used to improve sight... things are sanctified when they are used for the purpose God intends. A human being is sanctified, therefore, when he or she lives according to God's design and purpose....

If a born again believer knows that he is higher than angels while walking in justification, and remembers it, no devil or demon can mishandle him or her in anyway.

Christ said, "Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions [6000 or 6000 times 12] of angels" (Math 26:53). As Christ is, so are the born-again believers (Heb 2:11) and consequently our usage of authority.

Be very careful at this privilege though, we can cause catastrophes. Christ had this power on earth, but he limited himself so that he might give unto men the same power to overcome all things, including the 'unconquerable' sin and death. To the born again believer, use it wisely, knowing that our mission is to save souls as he did for us. In fact, exercise all our authority only by the leading of the Holy Ghost.

Because, "as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin" (1 Peter 4:1). However, "But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye" (1 Peter 3:14).

THE COMFORTER ENSURES JUSTIFICATION

The coming of the comforter is also used by God to ensure our justification. In other words, Justification is the fundamental purpose of the Holy Ghost. John 16:7 reads,

"If I go not away the comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you." It went further to say in verse 8, "when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

Verse 9, 10 and 11 went a little further as to what reprovng these three meant.

1. "Of sin, because they believe not on me" (verse 9).
Anything that is not of faith is sin (Rom 14:23) and almost everything we do in this 21st century society is sin. So to elude this, once you believe on him and become born again, you have no sin, so to speak, you are justified and cannot be accused.
2. "Of righteousness, because I go to my Father and ye see me no more" (verse 10).
When he came, left and shed the Holy Ghost, a new way to righteousness came and fulfilled the Old. That is, righteousness by becoming born again. In other words, in Christ you have no condemnation (Rom 8:1); you cannot be accused, you are sons and daughters.

3. "Of Judgment, because the Prince of this world is judged" (Verse 11).
Because the accuser of the brethren (satan) is judged, he cannot accuse you to God for any sin. Once in Christ, you have no sin. You cannot be judged because he is judged. You are perfect, being perfectly hid in Christ.

AREN'T WE LOWER THAN ANGELS?

Aren't we made lower than the angels (Psalms 8:4-5), how comes we are higher than them?

Yes, but so was Christ for our example. What God did for Jesus Christ the man, is his intentions for every born again believer.

Jesus was made lower than the angels in flesh. But when he died (repented), buried (water baptism) and ascended to the right hand of God (baptism of the Holy Ghost) he became higher than angels and all the heavens; being only second to God in the form of a first born son.

In other words, "he was made so much better than angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they" (Heb 1:4). How? "By inheritance."

All this is for our understanding, that we might know what is the height, breadth and width of our calling. We are sons of God, by this sonship or inheritance we too have obtained a more excellent name than they (angels). We are direct sons of God. Meaning, as Christ is the only begotten of the father, so is all who follow him and become born-again.

In other words, we have the status of the first born (birth right), though being made last (Gen 1:26). We are now the first executors of all of heaven, if we have his image (born again).

Why?

Angels are sons of God too (Gen 6:4). But us, though being made last, have attained the birthright; similar to the story of Esau and Jacob, Joseph's two sons and even Aaron and Moses (Aaron was the eldest). As Paul confesses, "such an high priest became us, who is holy...and made higher than the heavens" (Heb 7:26-27).

A born-again believer might exclaim, "Wow, we have inherited heavens birth right, what status and what class!"

It does sound spectacular, but remember this quotation from one of the angels in heaven, your brother;

"These are they which came out of great tribulation" (Rev 7:14).

However, because of this hope we can easily call this "great tribulation" "light afflictions."

Not that the troubles on earth are light, but when a born-again believer thinks on the inheritance that awaits them, everything will seem light; and he or she, by the Holy Ghost will strive to live righteously or "washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Rev 7:14).

Though born-again believers are last or made a little lower than the angels, by inheritance we shall obtain a greater name. Our brothers in heaven will help see to it and it's their joy to behold their little brothers, just like Esau embracing Jacob on his return home from Laban (Gen 33:4).

YOU ARE PERFECT

This verse will help you understand this hope that we have,

“Now, I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord of all. But are under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father” (Gal 4:1-2). Heir suggesting the person to inherit the blessing or inheritance.

Christ being the first heir who obtain a more excellent name and position than that of angels, then we who follow in the similitude of his suffering; “if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Rom 8:17).

“Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not” (I John 3:1). In other words, it's all based on Christ.

The word “image” in Gen 1:26, directly translated from the Hebrew, means ‘illusion’ and the word man in the same chapter, directly translated means ‘phantom’. Both words suggest a mirroring of God or the direct replica, but not the actual thing. Similar attributes, similar power, similar everything, but we would only be a reflection; analogous to how Prince Charles has Royal Status and power, because he is the replica of his Parents the King and Queen.

This was God's original intention for man; it was lost by Adam's fall and fortunately regained by Jesus Christ, through being born again. In essence, we are the same as Jesus, therefore the same as “God the son.” Christ himself told us this, “It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord” (Math 10:25).

Finally, Luke records, “The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master” (Lk 6:4). “And he hath perfected forever, them that are sanctified” (Heb 10:14). In other words, you're like Jesus and you are perfect too. Believe it!

Born Again believers, you are perfect, holy, righteous and sit far above all beings; being equal to them that are in Christ and Christ. Rejoice and fret not yourselves over the multitudes of evil discussed in this book, because, “it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2).

YOU ARE FREE

The only way you can be free today is not by democracy or liberation from a dictator or superpower; but freedom comes by being born again; “If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed” (John 8:36). By this, you side step all powers there be and sit at the right hand of God through Jesus. You become a joint-heir with Jesus Christ. And though in this life you will have Tribulation and some times be in chains, you are free being born again (Acts 2:38). Freedom has little to do with physical confinement or political dominance and more to do with your soul. Many of you have made that step of becoming born again. But through ignorance and lack of faith in Justification still belong to shackles within your minds; still allowing your circumstances to tell you who you are. Why? Because devils bring doubts and accusations at you daily, to make you walk short of the glory and freedom received. Being personally independent with a house, car and other things is not freedom. Especially when you have to "slave" to pay off all the bills - mortgage, light, water, car-payments and other monthly bills. What this does is actually gave independence in one area to make you dependent in another area without the "physical chains;" which is sometimes worse. Freedom is love, Power and a sound mind (2 Tim 1:17). Freedom is "righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom 14:17). Freedom is having the "light of life" (Jn 8:12) completely reborn and adopted in the seed of Abraham or what we call Justification.

WHAT TO DO NOW!?

This study might have been mysterious and deep, but it's actually what God wants us to ask him about. He said, "Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! ... What makest thou? or thy work ... Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me" (Isa 45:9-12). In other words, don't ask me things like "what makest thou?" Ask me about salvation, my fallen sons (Gen 6:4) and my redeemed sons (1 John 3:2; Rev 22:9).

Despite the fallen angels (devils) influence on humanity and their dominance through various devices mentioned throughout the book, God through Jesus Christ has bought back the earth to us by his power. And now, and to come, the earth is ours and we are the rightful heirs and natural dominant inhabitants of it. We lost it when the chief fallen angel, satan, tricked Adam. But like any trick, they have to be some truth around it for it to work. When satan told them "ye shall be as gods" (Gen 3:5), he was actually drawing them from it. Because God had already made them "gods" or dominant over the realms of the earth. Similar to how he tempted Jesus on the Mount, to give him something he already had. Satan and his friends seeing Adam, sought to make us loose our godship and thus set themselves up in proxy.

That's why God in sorrow for man said through the Psalmist, "They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes" (Ps 82:5-7; and also John 10:34).

Here the verse said that all "the foundations of the earth are out of course." In other words, how God intended man to be, gods of the earth, is out of sync and the fallen angels were the gods by tricking Adam; until Jesus came. As even he lamented in verses 6-7 of Psalms 82 above, "I have said, Ye are gods...But ye shall die like men." In other words, he made us gods but we are dying like men or naturally like other animals; when it was intended that we live forever. And not only that but "fall like one of the princes" (Ps 82:7). That is, in rebellion to God like satan and the other fallen angels or "princes of this world" (1 Cor 2:8); who will receive the lake of fire which was made and reserved for them (Matt 25:41), that is, "the princes of this world, that come to nought" (1 Cor 2:6).

Then the last verse of Psalms 82 said, "Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations." In other words, crying for the Messiah who should enable us to inherit the earth again through him. Through him we have regained dominance, power and authority, though it's not visibly seen altogether; but elements of it exists, like casting out devils. But another Psalm told us what to do, "Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked [princes] are cut off, thou shalt see it" (Ps 37:34). Another verse said, "The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men" (Ps 115:16); not devils, not imps, not watchers, not angels, but "ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD" (Eze 34:31).

This has been enabled because Jesus Christ came and took the power from satan and became the "Prince of princes," as prophesied in Daniel 8:25 or clearly said in Rev 1:5, "Prince of the Kings of the earth." So marvelous and prudent was it that "none of the princes of this world knew" (1 Cor 2:8). Now that Christ has become the “Prince of princes” and we being “Joint-heirs” with him, we are also a “Prince of princes” with Christ.

HOW TO STAND AGAINST FORCES OF DARKNESS

First of all, you must be born again (Acts 2:38). Prayer, Study and Fasting is not optional it must be done. The word of God then declares that we must put on the whole armor of God that we may be guarded against the wiles of the devil (Eph 6:11).

It went on to say that by being born-again we are automatically in the line of fire from the evil powers of the air, rulers of the darkness of this world, spiritual wickedness in high places and principalities. These are organized high-ranking agents of satan’s evil regime.

However, the Apostle Paul gives us the formula for standing against these forces. He said, symbolically, in Eph 6:14-17,

1. Our loins should be girt about with truth. God’s word is truth (John 17:17) and it’s available to most people throughout the world and obeyed fully by his spirit (Eze 36:27).
2. Our feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. As a believer always be prepared to tell of the salvation experience in peace; also possessing that peace as a witness of one's conversion (Isaiah 32:17).
3. Carry a shield of faith. Of course, a believer must have posses this in the first place, for we are saved by faith. We are also given a measure of faith (Rom12:3).
4. Wearing the helmet of salvation. This involves knowing without a doubt that you are saved. Any element of doubt can bring captivity. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways (James 1:8).

Each piece of amour fitted with the appropriate word has a specific meaning. The piece that was left for last, is the,

5. Breastplate of righteousness.

This involves Justification. Being justified is being righteous. Not only are sins acquitted, but also, a born again believer is completely pure and spiritually unspotted. Your former and future sins are hid with Christ.

In other words, when God sees a born-again Christian, he doesn't see the pass, present nor future sins. He doesn’t see any blemishes, whatsoever. He sees moral and spiritual excellence; which is holiness and/or righteousness. Therefore, a born-again Christian is always accepted by God and doesn’t need to fear approaching the throne of God, no matter what they have done.

The bible said Christ died unto sins once (Rom 6:9-10). Not just your sins, but sins in general, so that anyone who believes in him can be as if they had never sinned; that is, being justified.

Justification provides us with a defense to stand against devils (accusers); who not only orchestrated one’s fall, but also condemns one before God. They are both the collaborator or leading ‘partner in crime’ and the prosecutor.

When a believer puts on the “breast plate of righteousness,” he has made an impenetrable stand against unforeseen forces of evil.

The breastplate is the area that covers the chest and heart. If this area is uncovered, then the heart, which represents the core or life, will be attacked: If shut down, no more life will flow to the other areas.

Similarly, an attack against a born-again believer who doesn't have his or her breastplate on can cause serious damage to one's faith. Granted the shield of faith was swung in place, which left other areas open. Yes, we are fighting a real war. If you are a born-again believer without believing in Justification, you can fall prey to any devil; they will carry out numerous attacks in all areas of your life. But once your born again (Acts 2:38), you need not doubt any area of the Armour of God, you are justified, pure, unspotted and covered under the blood of the Almighty. Believe it!

THE WORD OF GOD SETTLED IT

This is a spiritual fight and “the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong hold.” Don't be fooled by the word strong hold, it's not fleshly but a faith move. Everything that exalts itself against the knowledge of God is a strong hold. If you're sick in your body and all things say you're going to die before your purpose, that's a strong hold because the knowledge of God in Mark 16:16 said we don't have to die by sicknesses but cast them out. The devil that often tries to make you mad, initiated by his devices, is a strong hold because it exalts itself against the knowledge of God that promises a “sound mind” (1 Tim 1:17). Cast all these down and live!

The knowledge of God or word of God acts like a price ceiling referred to in the Study of Economics. While doing tertiary studies at KC we were taught in Economics class about price ceilings and price floors. Price ceiling is set on a particular good that is a basic necessity so that the poor can have it; for example, bread, salt or sugar. Because demand and supply determine the price of goods, the price can sky rocket beyond affordability by the poor. Moreover, because the demand is so great the seller can set whatever price he chooses. If this happens the poor would be left out of necessary goods. Therefore, the government steps in and regulates a price ceiling or a fixed price that a particular good cannot exceed regardless of the demand for it: making it always affordable to the poor.

The word of God in a believer's life acts like this price ceiling and anything the devil throws at us is a violation of the word of God and must be pulled down, making us always having an escape; regardless of...

NO POWER!

No power in heaven or earth can harm born again believers, because God through Jesus Christ have all of it and he gave it to us.

One of the very first scripture in his book said, “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you” (Lk 10:19). However, notice the narration before it, “And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold..." (Lk 10:18). In other words, Jesus is saying that I saw satan fall from heaven and I'm the one who did it. So I know all the devices and tricks of him and his angels; both now, yesterday and in the future. I created him and his wisdom, so if I wanted to I can make even a single shrub of grass greater than him through my name. But I have given you the power over all his known and unknown devices because I know them, both past, present and future; from Satanism, witchcraft, mind control, aliens to technologies and devices not yet created. So if I can say nothing by any means shall hurt you, then nothing by any means shall hurt you. If I can say you have power over him, then you have power over him; because, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth" (Matt 28:18). "All" means every power and wisdom belongs to me. In fact, the scriptures made it clear that Jesus is "the only wise God our Saviour" (Jude 1:25). If satan and his angels are deemed "gods", then God is saying there is no other being that is truly wise, despite their wisdom and power; because the word 'only' suggests that he is the only being with the fullness of it and anything else are only subtleties. He alone is all knowing, all seeing and all powerful, so if he could say you have power over all that was mentioned in this series, then you have all power over it. Regardless of the many devices of the enemy, God who knows all things, say not one of them will hurt you if you believe in him. Nothing the enemy does to you can make the Kingdom of God worse off. God declared it and it stands until time ends, "I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matt 16:18).

I could go on with demonology endlessly, but this book is simply to bring some closure to the many instances of demonology placarded and taught everywhere; and not necessarily an how to book but needed truth for the "obvious unknown." For instance, after giving an instance of casting a demon to hell's fire permanently when it came upon my mouth, one person wrote and said, "What scripture(s) do you find that says we have the authority to send demons to the abyss or to permanent torment before their time? If this statement is true, why didn't Jesus send them there instead of just casting them out and allow them to torment and enter into someone else? I know that at times he would command them never to enter that person again. But if they leave a host after it is dead then even Jesus permitted them to go into the swine..." (Max, 4/13/2003). One person correctly responded, "Matthew 16:19 tells us, 'I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Matthew 18:18 affirms, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Granted, these are not specific licenses to cast demons into the Abyss, but they would seem a broad license to accomplish in the spirit whatever is deemed necessary. I am also reminded of Luke 10:17 - 'And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject to us through thy name.' This would seem to indicate that whatever a Christian insists an unclean spirit to comply with, they must do, for they are subject to those who bear the name of Jesus. Thus, if they are ordered into the Abyss, it would seem that they would have little choice but to obey, as they are subject to us" (dsm17 4/16/2003). To which I responded on that discussion board, Nevertheless, as the scripture said that we are not to feel too good about this but rather rejoice in the greater part of it all, and that is, our names are written in the Lamb's book of life - "Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven" (Lk 10:20).

We are given the privilege to cast out demons by faith. Meaning, if you have the faith you can command a tree to be uprooted and it will or any thing that you can imagine you want to do (Matt 17:20, Matt 2:21). Meaning this power is by faith and devils have been known to use deceptive ways to hamper one's faith. Not your salvation, but your faith to do the impossible. Believe you me they are very creative in deception and like Samson, it would be hampering. Though his locks were cut off and he lost his might, it was his covenant (FAITH) that was hampered not his hair. But he was still God's ("name written") and when he called to him, God answered and gave him back his might. Some things in salvation can fluctuate up and down as we are not always feeling high, but one thing God is saying that cannot fluctuate, your eternal state before him -name written- which no deception of the devil can erase. This is a sad part of Christendom that is not taught properly in our apostolic churches - JUSTIFICATION!

INVITATION

If you're not born again, then you have no mechanism to deal with the forces of darkness and also, an unhappy eternity awaits, unfortunately. Moreover, you would have no part with the blessings of being higher than angels, redeemed and on your way to paradise. Even worst, if you're an acclaimed Christian without being born again, you are in the same position as an unsaved person. Reason being, unless you have fully made up your mind to follow Christ, become water baptize in the name of the Yahoshua Ha Mashiah (or Lord Jesus Christ) and receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost evidence by speaking "in tongues," you are not saved; regardless of you attending a church and being a 'Christian'. In either case, if this is you, will you make a decision today to become born again? If so, find a church that teaches this and become saved today! Eternity is too long to be wrong! For further help, see the references.

Be encouraged, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in [Christ] ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; [Christ] have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Oneil McQuick has responded in a most positive way to the challenge of youthful strength by choosing to channel his energy into the very rewarding exercise of the study of the word of God. This undying love for the Word of God has allowed him to be the author of several books (Truth Series, Truth Series Expanded, Truth Series Evolution) including: “The Voice,” “Demonology Revealed,” “Fasting and Prayers,” “You Believe, Now Receive,” “What is his name,” “Student Manifesto,” “Sexuality Series,” “I have a Message Do You” and others.

He will also confess that his studies, however intense, have not afforded him the privilege to expound on the word of God, but like Jesus, it was simply given! In other words, it is the spirit of the Lord upon him that has graced him to write these books, booklets, newsletters, tracks, pamphlets, magazines, web pages and articles; as he confesses, "Nothing more, nothing less! Grace!"

His Christian walk began in Kingston when he received the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior under the ministry of Bishop S.U. Thomas. His subsequent migration to Florida facilitated his tremendous spiritual development and has laid the foundation for him to equip himself for the tremendous task which he has set himself to maximize whatever means necessary to touch and change peoples' lives. He has served in several areas of ministry including men, youth and outreach; with certifications in lay counseling. He is the founder of Liberation International Ministries and a licensed minister.

SEQUELS

They are two plan sequels to Demonology Revealed, called, 1) Demonology Concealed: Strange New World, and 2) Demonology Appealed: The Fallen Race. Demonology Revealed is already heavy stuff for the saints, much more the world. Therefore, the sequels should not be read if you've not read this book several times over, as an "aged" saint; and fully understand it. I strongly recommend this as the knowledge in the sequels can rock your faith, so to speak, if not graced to receive it, as Christ said in John 16:12. Not that it is Gnostic in nature or claim to have special revelation over the rest of the body. No! But the opposite, you will read and understand and having your eyes opened without grace can lead to many uncomfortable unstable states, to the point of insanity if it were possible. This is simply a caution and has the same application the introduction of this book mentions. I'm only privileged to understand as anyone else can. In other words, if you have completed reading this book from cover to cover and you've pretty much handled it well and you're left with no disturbance, then and only then you may read the sequel to this; which is not usually advised to be read if your understanding isn't up to par with Demonology Revealed. DEMONOLOGY REVEALED

"Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints."

Ephesians 6:13-18

This study was put together "To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God" (Eph. 3:10).

"I guess since those letters opened my eyes the devil is really trying a thing...but the blood of Jesus Christ is against him...the powers of darkness are defeated and under my feet...i have made copies...there were requests for it to be printed...so I gave them to the brethren and kept one for myself...they have been blessed" (T.Morgan, Local Journalist).
